

Fordson Farm Tractor

The after-service that goes with the Fordson tractor is second to none. Fordson dealers are located in every community with stocks of repair parts and employing skilled mechanics who know just how the Fordson should be repaired and taken care of to do its best work.

This Fordson service means that your tractor can be kept busy every working day during the entire year; that Fordson repairmen are ready to show you how to get the best results from the tractor.

Fordson service insures you against delay in getting parts. It is your protection. It is a protection now being enjoyed by more than 100,000 Fordson farmers in the United States.

Let us tell you all about the Fordson tractor and Fordson service. Let us demonstrate the Fordson on your own farm. Come in and let us prove everything we say.

Dr. Bert E. Smith will deliver his famous lecture, "Keeping Step with Dad" at the Methodist church this evening at 8 p. m. A song and devotional service will commence at 7:30. All are invited to attend and it is considered a wonderful opportunity by those who know of Dr. Smith's work. He is superintendent of adult department of the general board of Sunday schools of the M. E. church.

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held at the library Thursday afternoon at 2:30 p. m.

John Roth, a brother-in-law of Mrs. Ed. Baumann, was hurt in an accident with a gasoline saw and received a serious cut on his hand. About 10 stitches were necessary to close the wound.

W. K. Hamilton has sold his Portland property and has rented a place in Powell Valley.

Miss Connie Page and Miss Lota Stinson were guests at the home of Mrs. Geo. Page, Sunday.

M. D. Kern is ill with grip. Mrs. Emma Gilmore is confined to her home with an injured foot. She stepped on a rusty nail Saturday and has had a very sore foot ever since.

Reports from Miss Evelyn Metzger, who underwent a serious operation for appendicitis last week, are to the effect that she is progressing as well as could be expected. She is still very weak and suffering considerable pain.

Mrs. O. A. Eastman reports that the total receipts from the Salvation Army drive will probably amount to $300. The girls have not all reported as yet the amounts collected by them during the tag day drive Saturday but it is thought that they collected about $50. A fuller report will be made later.

The Women's Home Missionary society will hold a bake sale Saturday at the Gresham Drug company's store room. There will be all kinds of good things on sale for Sunday's dinner. Take a vacation Saturday and buy your dinner at the bake sale.

The Women's Home Missionary society will meet with Mrs. C. M. Zimmerman Wednesday evening. The ladies will entertain at this meeting the Queen Esthers, Mother's Jewels and the Home Guards. This will also be the occasion of the annual mite box opening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sleret were callers recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Duke in Sandy.

The red electric light has been hung over the fountain and will be used to signal the night watchman whenever there is any trouble. The light can be switched on from the telephone office and was placed at the suggestion of Mr. Wostell, after the recent attempted robbery of the Troutdale bank.
