PLEASANT HOME

Rev. W. P. Ford will preach at the Baptist church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

The regular preaching services will be held at the Methodist church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. At 10 o'clock the Sunday school session will meet.

The regular classes will discuss the Sunday school lesson which is one of a series of lessons which has created considerable discussion and have proven of great interest.

The Juniors will meet at the M. E. parsonage as they did last Sunday. All those who arrive before the last bell finishes ringing, may wear their "On Time" stars home with them this Sunday.

THE PLEASANT HOME barber shop and pool room will be open from 8 a. m. to 8 p. m. from now on. C. B. Steinman.

CORBETT

Columbia grange met in regular monthly session on Saturday, May 7th, with a good attendance of members and six visitors present. Two candidates were initiated and a very enjoyable hour was spent at the banquet table. Mrs. Lydia Ostrand, lecturer, presented a very fine program pertaining chiefly to Mothers' day. Marjorie Bush of Bridal Veil played a very pleasing piano solo, and her younger brother gave a recitation, "My Mother's Face." Mrs. Pounder gave a select reading, Mrs. Ostrand a recitation, "My Mother's Bible," in which she exhibited her mother's Bible that was brought across the plains. Mrs. Clara Smith, gave a select reading on "The Birth of Mother's Day", also Joaquin Miller's poem "The Mothers of Men."

Rev. Edw. Murphy preached two fine sermons Sunday, "Mothers' Day." The Sunday evening service was especially for mothers. The choir had chosen special songs for the service. Andry Tregaskis rendered a violin selection in which her mother accompanied her on the organ, and the Misses Catherine Hall and Alice Merzhan sang a duet.

Mrs. Sourd has two sisters visiting her from Wyoming.

Miss Dorris Emily is very ill with pleurisy and rheumatism.

The Frank Knieriem family is ill with diphtheria. Their baby died Monday night. The latest report from there is that they are improving. A trained nurse from Portland is in attendance.

Mrs. David Benfield from near Tillamook is visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. L. Benfield.

PLEASANT VIEW

Mrs. Caroline Lampert, who has been a resident of this district many years, died quite suddenly at her home here the evening of May 7. Mrs. Lampert has had two very serious illnesses in the past couple of years which left her in very frail health and necessitated her son, Julius Lampert, giving up farming so that he could devote all of his time to the care of his mother. The funeral services were held at the Catholic church at Gresham on the 10th and the burial was at St. Joseph's cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Larson had guests from Portland Sunday.

Robert Graham, who has been in rather poor health for several months, was taken to the hospital Tuesday.

POWELL VALLEY

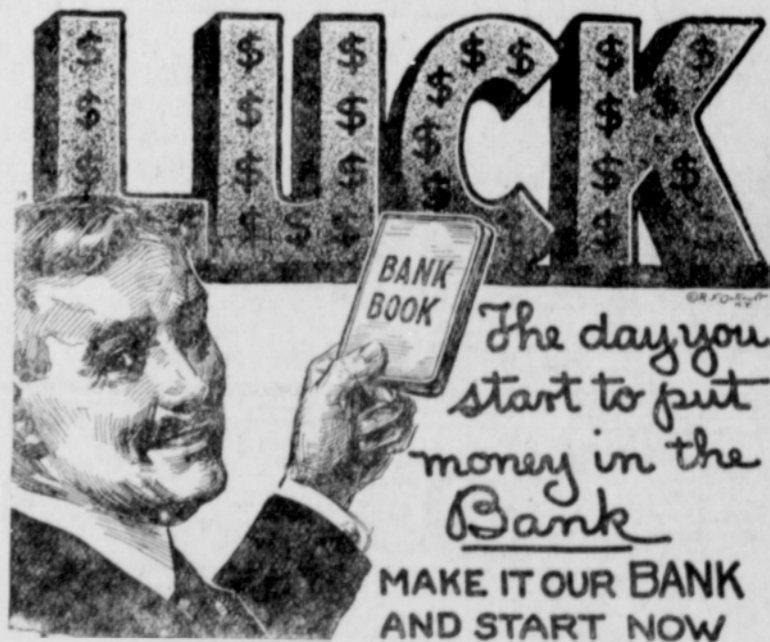

Services in the Mission church will commence at 10 a. m. with the Sunday school session. Preaching service will follow at 11 o'clock. At the close of the morning service communion service will be held.

In the evening at 7:30 the preaching service will be in the English language. A cordial welcome is extended to all.
