MEMORIAL EXERCISES WELL ATTENDED

Memorial day exercises were held at the Baptist church Monday morning. The program was of unusual interest and the attendance was nearly double that of recent years.

A number of veterans of the civil war were present but their thinning ranks brings an ache to the heart and a choke to the voice as the number is growing smaller each year. Nine of the veterans joined in the march to the cemetery.

The program was in charge of Judge Geo. W. Wooncott, national aid-de-camp of the G. A. R.

Rev. A. S. Hisey read some extracts from a historical review of the origin of memorial day, also General Logan's general orders for the observance of the day.

C. E. Risher sang in his usual pleasing manner a beautiful song, "Do Your Best for One Another."

Rev. H. R. Gebhardt read President Lincoln's famous Gettysburg address which has become immortal in its fame.

Rev. Earl B. Cotton paid the address of the day and gave high tribute to the soldiers who have died to raise this country to the place that it now holds. Included in this tribute were the wives and mothers who remained at home while their men went out to fight for the cause of truth and righteousness.

Rev. Mr. Cotton, while giving the highest tribute to the veterans of the past, emphasized the fact that it was our duty to carry on the work which they had begun and help to make this nation stand for righteousness and truth. Americanization he defined as beginning with the individual and widening in ever increasing circles of services and improvement until, the individual, the home, the neighborhood, the town, state and nation were helped to a happier, healthier, better plane of living.

The services at the mound in the cemetery which were conducted by the W. R. C. were impressive and following the decoration of the mound the Boy Scouts and their leader, Rev. A. S. Hisey, decorated the graves of the old soldiers who are buried in the Gresham cemetery.

FAIRVIEW

The Portland Study club held its annual banquet last Tuesday evening in Fairview at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Cady. This year the husbands of the members were invited as guests. The house and table were artistically decorated with the beautiful wild Lupine. During the banquet the gentlemen were requested to tell about the funniest things that had occurred in their lives. At first they declared that their married lives had been too serious to contain anything funny, but upon being reminded by the wives of funny incidents, their stories furnished entertainment for the evening. Mrs. Cady surprised the guests by announcing that it was also the anniversary of Mr. Cady's birth and presented him with the birthday cake.

Mrs. Clara Stevens from Portland visited her aunt, Mrs. G. E. Bills, Tuesday.

Lloyd Anderson has been quite ill with tonsillitis. Sunday guests at the Fairview Holstein Farm were, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schwartzback and daughters, May and Helen, Otto Kneutze and Fred Detrick.

Picnic supper on the lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Althaus was a feature of the evening.

Obituary of Mrs. Amy A. Hill.

Mrs. Amy A. Hill, mother of Clarence A. Hill of Gresham, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Rosa E. Hauser, of Portland, on Friday, May 27. Death came suddenly of heart trouble. The funeral service was held from the Gresham Baptist church on Sunday afternoon and interment was in the Gresham cemetery. Rev. Jesse E. Brown, pastor of the church, preached the funeral sermon.

Amy A. Green was born in Crawford county, Indiana, August 10, 1847. She moved with her parents to Missouri when she was 10 years of age. She joined the Methodist Episcopal church about the same time and remained a faithful member of that church all her life. On October 10, 1871, she was married to John J. Hill at Cleopatra, Missouri. Four children were born to this union. One died in childhood and one in early manhood. The husband died in Buffalo, Oklahoma, January 20, 1905. Since then Mrs. Hill has lived with her surviving children. She has made her home in Oregon since 1913.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their sympathy and kindness at the time of the death and burial of our beloved mother, and for the beautiful floral offerings.
