Importers, exporters, travelers—ship and sail under the Stars and Stripes

THERE are today few ports in the world of importance to shippers or travelers, which cannot be reached by ships that sail under the Stars and Stripes.

President Harding has said that, "We cannot sell successfully where we do not carry". The American Merchant Marine that once almost vanished is again an established and important carrier of the world's commerce.

You can ship or sail anywhere in American ships designed for utmost comfort and safety.

Miss Helen Moller of Portland spent Sunday with her mother Mrs. A. B. Moller.

Fairview school closed on Friday with a picnic and basket dinner. Owing to the rainy weather the picnic was held on the school grounds and dinner was spread on the tables in the Grange rooms. Principal B. G. Carney had provided numerous games and sports of all kinds which kept the children busy and were well enjoyed. A number of parents were there who took charge of the dinner. Ice cream was served in the afternoon. On Thursday evening the school gave a very interesting program in the city hall which was well attended.

Mr. and Mrs. George Burlingame, Mr. and Mrs. E. Surface and son Donald of Yakima, drove down in their car and are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Burlingame. The Burlingame men are brothers and Mr. Surface is a brother of Mrs. E. Burlingame.

T. Savage and children of Woodland, Washington and Mrs. M. Dowthit of Portland were guests at Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mollers, last Sunday and Monday.

Grange will be held next Saturday in the hall here. Every Granger is urged to be present as this is the first meeting in the contest.

SANDY BLUFF

The Parent-Teacher Association of Cottrell had its June meeting on Wednesday in Dodge Park near here, an all day meeting with a very large attendance. Games were played till noon when a bountiful dinner was spread, after which there were races of all kinds and all the ice cream one could eat. A short program completed the day's performance and every one left feeling that every moment had been enjoyed. Next meeting will be held in the school house July 3d, at 8 o'clock sharp.

The eighth grade class with its teacher Mrs. Van Fleet, parents and some friends, went to Gladstone Park Friday, where they listened to an excellent program and the members received their diplomas. The class consisted of Myrtle Brook, Edna Beers, Freida Ruther, Zaidee Ault, Anil Killen, Byron Baucke, Lewis Meehan and Herbert Edwards. Zaidee Ault received a diploma for eight years regular attendance, she being the only one in the county to receive such diploma.
