GRESHAM LOCALS

Mrs. Walter Brown of Ft. Canby, Washington, is spending the week at the home of her father, C. Hoecker. Her sister, Mrs. A. H. Rehm and two children, also of Ft. Canby, visited here over the 4th.

Several families of Gresham people joined in a delightful picnic on the 4th at Cedar creek in the Sandy district. Those going were Dr. and Mrs. Frank Peak, K. A. Miller and family, Dr. W. J. Ott and family, Dr. A. W. Botkin and family, L. L. Kidder and family, W. B. Thorne and family, Jas. Sterling and family, J. E. Metzger, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Carlson, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Walrad, Miss Mina Gilbert and Miss Gertrude Alexander.

Mrs. A. McManus had as guests over the week end Mrs. Lulu Findley of San Jose, California and the latter's daughter-in-law, Mrs. Stanley, of San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Worden of Portland were guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Kidder over the week end and attended the picnic in Cedar Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Whetstone are entertaining for a few days Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Cyroski of Aberdeen, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Metzger and the younger members of the family drove to Salem yesterday for a visit with their son, Henry, who is a patient in the State Tubercular hospital. They found him making a very satisfactory gain in health.

After winning Sunday's baseball game with a score of 9 to 7 Gresham team met defeat Monday when the tables were turned and Tigard won by a score of 12 to 10. Both games were played with Tigard.

The case of Charles McGinnis who was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Brown Tuesday morning on the charge of taking a Ford door and some grease on May 27 from the premises of J. J. Robertson, was dismissed on account of lack of evidence. The only evidence against Mr. McGinnis was the finding of a cane which he was accustomed to carry but which he explained he had lost some two months before the alleged theft.

Miss Josephine Pihl of Olympia, Washington motored to Portland with friends Friday evening. She has been the guest of her brother Walter at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. W. Brown. A trip to Eagle Creek was much enjoyed by the party on Sunday.

On Monday July 4 Mrs. A. J. W. Brown kept open house for out of town friends and entertained at dinner H. L. Gerdes and three sisters, Mr. and Mrs. W. Barber and two children from Portland. In the afternoon Mrs. John Brooke and son Alf with his fiancée, Miss Raas of Hillsboro, came out to call on the Brown family and to take in the races.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Larsen and Mrs. Percy Larsen enjoyed a trip to the beaches over the week end. They visited Mrs. Larsen's nephew at Wauna and spent some time at Seaside where they called at the homes of Rev. A. C. Brackenbury and Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Cianahan.

Miss Esther Peterson and Miss Letitia Puffer spent the week-end at Shaw, Oregon, with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Peterson.

Miss Alice Roberts spent last week at North Beach, Washington.

Rev. C. A. Nutley, of Seattle, formerly pastor of the Baptist church in Gresham, called on old friends here on Saturday.

Frank Jones has recovered the use of his hand and is busy again at his work after being laid up for a few days with blood poisoning occasioned by a scratch from a tin shingle.

Miss Ethel Mewhirter, Miss Ethel McCarty, Miss Hotchkiss, of Portland and Charles Mewhirter and Roy Gibbs, spent the Fourth at Dodge Park.

A party was given in honor of Alden Miller, by his mother, Mrs. K. A. Miller, Friday, June 24, when about thirty-five young people helped him celebrate his fifteenth birthday. The affair was a lawn party and green trees were set in to supplement the shrubbery on the lawn. Miss Mabel Shipley assisted Mrs. Miller.

H. E. Davis, for many years a resident of Gresham and manager of the Cotton farm, was a business visitor one day last week. Mr. Davis is custodian of the grounds of Reed College where he and his wife make their home.

Get A Horn!

Put your hammer in the locker
With your hand-ax do likewise;
Anyone can be a knocker,
Anyone can criticize,
Cultivate the building habit.
Though it hurts your face to smile;
At the start it may go awkward,
But you'll get it after while.
