When the painter applies paint on your house it is to your best interests to know what that paint is—its spreading capacity—its appearance—its durability. You are the man-who-pays-the-bill and who loses if the paint goes wrong. Make sure of good results—the most satisfactory and economical job—by having your painter use

SHERWIN-WILLIAMS PAINT PREPARED

It is better than any other prepared paint on the market, or "lead and oil". The Sherwin-Williams Co. safeguard its quality in every process of manufacture. They make all their linseed oil; own and operate large zinc and lead mines and smelters, and make their dry colors in the largest and best equipped dry color plant in the United States. The results are in the goods.

PLEASANT HOME

"The Code of Joy" will be the topic of the Sunday morning sermon at the Methodist church on July 10. The preaching service begins promptly at 11 o'clock. Sunday school meets at 10 a. m. The Junior department will meet as usual at the parsonage.

A number of members of the Methodist church are planning on taking a lunch and leaving immediately after church for the home of Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Wood where they will spend the afternoon in visiting and will hold a service of song and good fellowship. A special invitation to attend is not needed, none are being given. All who wish to join in this service and feel that they would enjoy an afternoon spent in this way should come prepared to go with the crowd as everyone will be welcome.

Mrs. N. H. Bickford and daughter Mrs. Mary Johnson are in California where they were called by the illness of the former's son Nathan Bickford.

PLEASANT VIEW

The berry pickers at the Emily, Martin, Bramhall and Harding fields were treated to ice cream, cake and punch at Mr. Bramhall's last Tuesday evening. Besides the pickers and members of their families, a few of their friends were invited also, making about fifty merry makers.

Mrs. Chas. Malmston and daughters, Lois and Louis of Portland are camping at the home of her brother T. F. Soule.

Quite a party of young people from here spent the week-end camping near Mt. Hood.

POWELL VALLEY

The regular meeting of the Lutheran League will be held at the church next Sunday evening. A program will be given and the regular business transacted.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Olsen, Mr. and Mrs. Frank and children, Mrs. Emma Johnson and Mrs. Emelle Johnson spent the Fourth near Gladstone where they enjoyed a community picnic.

John and Nellie Johnson and Myrtle and Ernest Anderson enjoyed a Fourth of July camping trip to Mist, Oregon.

SANDY.

Rev. Earl B. Cotton will preach at the Sandy Methodist Church on Sunday evening at 8 P. M. A cordial invitation is extended to all.
