1925 Fair! Coming!

Let's go—tomorrow.

Your presence will count—tomorrow.

All together: "I'll be there"—at Cedarville.

All roads will lead to Cedarville Park tomorrow, Saturday, for picnic dinner and speeches.

The Outlook office will be closed tomorrow from 12 noon to 2 p. m. 1925 fair site picnic. Everybody going.

Gresham will be a dead place in a business way tomorrow, Saturday, from 12 to 2 p. m., for business men and everybody will be at the picnic at Cedarville to publicly launch the local 1925 fair site. Most business houses will be closed during the above hours.

When Ireland lays down her weapons of warfare against England and agrees to conditions of disarmament there is stronger hope that President Harding's disarmament plans will succeed.

An announcement says the Canadian Pacific railroad will provide smoking compartments for women, thus recognizing the equality of the sexes in traveling. Verily, the world moves—not always in the right direction.

Grants' Butte was not named for General Ulysses S. Grant. If it was that would make it world famous. But the name is just as good and as a feature of the 1925 fair site it will be just as attractive. Help to make it better known by your presence on Saturday at the booster picnic.

Woman Moonshiner "In."

Mrs. Nettie Connott, who holds the uncertain distinction of being the first woman convicted of moonshining in Oregon, began serving her jail sentence of six months Wednesday. Mrs. Connott was operating in the Bull Run district and is said to have been running a moonshine still for many years. The jail sentence carried with it a $500 fine.

Helping Greek Children.

Medical supplies and nursing care for refugee children in Greece are being furnished by the American Red Cross which is co-operating with the Greek government. To supplement this work and aid in restoring these children to normal, the Junior American Red Cross has made an appropriation from its National Children's Fund to be used in developing school and recreational facilities at Saloniki where many orphan refugee children are being cared for. Opportunities for properly directed play and exercise, and schools for the instruction of these children, are as necessary for their development as food and nursing.

Well Known Incendiary Sentenced.

Lorenzo E. Dole, of Florence, Oregon, was sentenced to four months in the Multnomah county jail by the Federal court here on July 11, for willfully setting out fires in the forest in 1920.

This case has attracted a great deal of attention both on account of the unusual conditions of the case as well as the unusual character of the defendant. On May 17, 1921, a federal jury sitting at Portland, brought in a verdict of guilty against Dole for maliciously setting a fire within the Siuslaw National Forest on May 16, 1920. According to statements of forest officers, Dole had long been suspected of setting forest fires and efforts had been made year after year to secure evidence against him but without success.

From the statement of witnesses, Dole's method of work was original and only an unusual combination of circumstances brought about his conviction. It seems that by long practice he could flip a burning match into brush along a road or trail, even from horseback. Forest officers say that he tried this once too often, for on May 16, 1920, as brought out in the evidence, one of the witnesses was that day trying out a new telescope by casually watching through the glass occasional passers-by on a road some few hundred yards distant, and happened to see Dole deliberately strike matches and flip them while still burning into the dry ferns and brush along the roadside. Dole is a professional land locator having operated in the Siuslaw country for years, from headquarters near Florence. His application for a new trial was denied by Judge Wolverton and he will begin his sentence on October 1, having been granted a stay of execution until that time to harvest his crops.

CARLSON EXPRESSES VIEWS ON PATRIOTISM

Gresham, Oregon, July 13, 1921.—Editor Outlook:—Knowing you were unable to attend the Orangemen's picnic on July 12 I thought no doubt your readers would be interested in a brief outline of the day's events. Everything passed off fine and all seemed to enjoy themselves. There were 800 members of the Orange lodge and the Ladies' auxiliary in the line of march from the Golf Links to Sellwood Park where they partook of a fine dinner and then spent the rest of the day in merry games and sports. It is hard to express the joy it gives to any public spirited American to see those brave men and women come out for the principles that our country stands for, namely the stars and stripes, the public school, the Christian religion and the separation of state and church.

Thoughts of pity ran through my mind for the poor fellow or lady who would give as a reason for not attending that they could not spare the time. Now a true Christian would hate to make such excuses when the public knew it was not facts, still they would like to be classed as loyal American citizens and recognized as such. Statistics show that there are not more than 10 or 15 per cent of the public but what stands for those principles, and what good American who is entirely free from the yellow streak would care for the opinions of that small number of traitors' trade or patronage?

"Three cheers for the American flag, public school and Christian religion" should be our battle cry. Let the fellow across the pond have the rest. R. R. CARLSON.
