GRESHAM LOCALS

John Brown has gone to Alsea, Oregon to look after property interests there. He expects to be away about two weeks.

Wm. Hornecker and wife, R. H. Confrey and wife and son Donald, passed a pleasant day and enjoyed the hospitality of the Cannings at Kelso, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Walrad, Mr. and Mrs. Will Hessel, Mr. and Mrs. James Elkington and daughter Jean, left Saturday for the coast for an outing. They left no word as to when they expect to return and so will be looked for when they come into the city limits.

Mrs. Cairns of Rice, Minn., was the guest of Mrs. James Elkington last week.

Mrs. Genevieve Hollenbeck of Rupert, Idaho, who has been visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Kern left for her home Monday.

Nineteen ladies and two men from the Geo. Wright Post and Corps of Portland, spent Saturday here with the M. A. Ross Post. During the afternoon some of the ladies from Portland sang and several made short speeches. One of the usual fine and abundant dinners was served at noon.

The E. H. Kelly and Joe Exleys and their families are at Welches gathering huckleberries and enjoying an outing trip.

Mrs. Sylvia S. Dix has returned from Lexington, Oregon, where she went last spring to visit with her son.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Kern took a trip over the week-end to Mt. Angel. They saw some beautiful country and many evidences of fine crops.

T. R. Howitt and Ezra Thomas went to Vancouver, B. C., to attend the big fair. Mr. Howitt had a horse in the races.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Bell of Corbett, a 9 1/4-pound son, and to Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Hite of Boring, an 11-pound daughter, on August 19, at the home of Mrs. Timmerman.

Mrs. M. D. Kern, who was taken suddenly ill the latter part of last week is now able to be around. Her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Hollenbeck, and son, who have been visiting here have returned to their home in Idaho.

The picnic of the Ladies' Aid and the Women's Home Missionary society, which is announced for the fair grounds on next Friday evening, August 26, is for the families of the members of the two societies and their friends. The plan is to take well filled baskets and enjoy the evening meal together at the grounds.

Miss Ethel Mewhirter of the force of the First State Bank, is enjoying her vacation with friends at Tillamook.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Michel and Miss Mabel Michel have gone to Seaside for an outing.

Miss Harriet Alexander, who has been under treatment at a Portland sanitarium for several weeks is now at the home of her sister, Mrs. Carrie Hansen.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Gibbs are here from Ione, Oregon, at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Gibbs.

Mrs. H. L. St. Clair, Miss Winifred St. Clair, Mrs. P. A. Gould, Mrs. Clara Sunday and Miss Eva Tacheron drove to Crissey's Gladiolus Farm last Sunday afternoon to see the flowers, which are now in bloom in all their glory. The sight is one well worth going far to see.

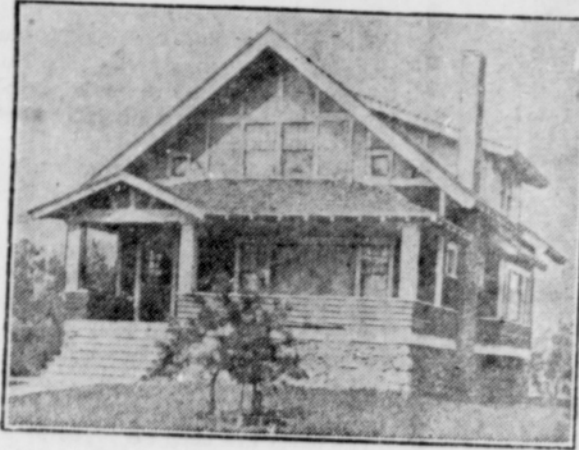

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Jones entertained at dinner last Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Albertson and daughter Helen, of Parma, Idaho, Mr. and Mrs. Russell K. Aklin and children, Russel and Bettie, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Jones and son Bobbie, and Hallie Jones.

Dr. H. V. Adix and family have returned from a week-end trip by automobile to Seattle and other Washington points.

Week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Averill were the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Orr and sons, Dwight, Sumner and Paul of Tacoma. They made the trip by automobile. Mrs. Orr will remain here for a week or two.

H. L. St. Clair, editor of the Outlook, is now in Minnesota where he will visit for a short time before returning home. He is now with his daughter, Mrs. Ben H. Davies, at Grey Eagle.

E. D. Raker and T. J. Bailey have just returned from Clackamas lake where they enjoyed a week's vacation hunting and fishing. While there they feasted on bear steaks, huckleberry pie and whipped cream. They were so fortunate as to kill a young bear and were also fortunate to be near the ranger station where huckleberry pie and whipped cream were possibilities. They have a variety of pictures to show of the bear they shot but the huckleberry pie and the cream will have to be taken on faith.
