GRESHAM LOCALS

Word has been received from Ross Brown who left last week for Los Angeles to take up his work with the American Express company.

Rev. A. S. Hisey officiated at a wedding early this morning when Chas. Allen of Mills City and Miss Clara M. Astells of Portland were married. Mr. Allen is head mill wright at one of the mills at Mills City. The young couple left for a highway trip today after which they expect to drive to Seaside.

O. A. Eastman has built sheds for sheltering some of the lumber in his yard near the Mt. Hood depot. He is handling a large amount of lumber there.

Miss Edna Wood of Aimes was taken to Good Samaritan hospital on Wednesday where she underwent an operation for appendicitis and the removal of tonsils. Mrs. Harriet Timmerman accompanied her. She is doing well and will be brought in a few days to Mrs. Timmerman's home in Gresham.

Glenn Rusher arrived this morning from his eastern trip which has taken the entire summer. He was one of 113 men from O. A. C. who were sent to Camp Knox, Kentucky, for training in field artillery practice. Glenn will go next week to Corvallis for his senior year's work at O. A. C. Since leaving Camp Knox he has visited in Indiana, Illinois and Oklahoma and returned home over the Canadian Pacific and stopped off at Banff, Lake Louise, Victoria and Vancouver, B. C.

A special meeting of the Gresham W. C. T. U. will be held on Tuesday afternoon, September 13, at the home of Mrs. J. N. Clananhan. Election of officers and delegates to the state convention will be held and reports of superintendents will be given. A special feature of the meeting will be a social hour when refreshments will be served. Those who will assist Mrs. Clananhan are Mrs. E. Davidson, Mrs. W. F. Honey and Mrs. C. J. Lundquist.

The special lecture on Saturday evening, September 10, at the Bible chautauqua being conducted by the Seventh Day Adventists in Gresham will be "The Return of the Jews." On Sunday evening, September 11 the subject will be "In the Shadow of the Cross."

Mrs. Page and Miss Mabel Page, mother and sister of George Page, who have been visiting here for several weeks have returned to their home in Pasadena, California.

The Queen Esther circle will meet Monday evening at the home of Mary Cogswell at Linnemann station. The members are urged to bring their Queen Esther song books. Those who have machines are asked to notify Letitia Pulfer or meet at the home of Mrs. A. Hevel at 7:45 p. m. Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Pulfer and family have moved to the house which was owned by the late J. S. Hall. The Pulfers have sold their home on First street to Mr. and Mrs. Auclair and family of Cottrell. The Auclairs are moving to their new home today.

Cecil Moffit, formerly in charge of the agricultural department of the Union High school, was a Gresham visitor Wednesday.

Professor Ruzek of Oregon Agricultural College, is in the county looking after the fertilizer trial farm east of Sandy.

Mr. and Mrs. K. F. Johnson of Damascus returned last week from a few months' visit to Sweden.

The meeting of the Women's Home Missionary society has been changed from Wednesday to Thursday afternoon of next week to accommodate Miss Edna Shoemaker who will give the address of the afternoon. The program will include also vocal solos by the Misses Gertrude Alexander and Edella Towle and a piano solo by Miss Joyce Kidder. Mrs. C. E. Rusher is the leader for the day. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. D. E. Towle who will be assisted by Mrs. K. A. Miller, Mrs. Jno. Metzger, Mrs. S. C. Wyeth and Mrs. J. C. Shultz. September is dues paying month.

Chas. J. Olson of St. Paul, Minnesota came recently to visit his sister, Mrs. C. J. Lundquist and family and to join his mother and sister who have been here for several weeks. The three and the Lundquist family spent a few days at Seaside. The visitors have returned to their home in St. Paul.

Mrs. A. Hughes and Miss Della Hughes spent a few days on a trip to Victoria and Vancouver, B. C., and witnessed the dedication of the peace arch at Blaine, on the international line marking a hundred years of peace between the two countries.

Roy E. Cannon, principal of the high school and Mrs. Cannon have taken rooms at the home of Mrs. Marion Johnson.

Missionary services in the English and German languages will be held at the Zion Evangelical church next Sunday at 10:30 a. m. and 2:30 p. m. Outside speakers will be present. Dinner will be served at noon. A most cordial welcome is extended to all.

John Freeman, formerly of Gresham, was a business visitor in Gresham on Thursday. He was accompanied by Irvin Pace and Ben Riggs of Opdyke, Illinois, who are looking the country over with a view to establishing homes.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Smith of Springwater are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Carothers. Mrs. Smith is a sister of Mr. Carothers.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gibbs and son, Clifford, have returned from a delightful week-end trip to Seaside. Mr. and Mrs. Gibbs have as a guest the former's brother-in-law, George Dixon, of San Francisco, who is here on an extended visit.

Prof. Herbert E. Cosby has been holding culling demonstrations in the various communities the past two days.

MULTNOMAH GRANGE TO ENTERTAIN POMONA

Pomona grange will meet with Multnomah grange Wednesday, September 14. A good attendance is expected and Multnomah grangers are preparing to entertain in the usual hospitable style.

The Pomona grange has been set ahead one week on account of the fair week being at the regular time for Pomona.

Multnomah grange has also postponed its regular session until October 1 because of the fair date.

WILLIAM EVERETT WINS PORTLAND GIRL AS BRIDE

Miss Celia Osterdahl of Portland became the bride of William S. Everett at a simple ceremony held at the home of the Rev. Mr. Pratt of Fairview Sunday morning. The Rev. Mr. Pratt is an old friend of the bride's family.

The young people were attended by Miss Ebba Osterdahl, sister of the bride, and Carl Christensen, friend of the groom.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Everett left for a short honeymoon trip to the coast after which they will make their home in Gresham. They have rented the Wood home near Powell street and South Roberts avenue and will make their home there until they build.

Mr. Everett is well known here as the chief lineman of the Multnomah and Clackamas Telephone company and has grown up in the neighborhood. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. Everett of the Orient neighborhood. Mrs. Everett is a cousin of Albert Ekstrom and is known to a number of local people as a charming girl.

DON'T OVERLOOK VALUABLE SERVICES

We mail our customers each month a statement showing the exact status of their account, on the back of which is a blank enabling a customer to reconcile his account with that of the bank.

Few, if any banks in the State mail such a statement to all their customers because it means a great expense during the year.

It is not enough to use only one or two of our services, for we can offer you others by which you can profit. Make use of as many as you can. This list will give you an idea of the services which we are equipped to render you:

Commercial Checking Accounts
Savings and Time Deposits
Domestic drafts and Telegraphic Transfers
Foreign drafts on all civilized countries
Purchase, sale and care of Securities, including United States Treasury Certificates and Bonds.

Safe Deposit Boxes for Rent
