THE WINCHESTER STORE

FOR CUTTING UP YOUR WOOD

All ready boys—new Winchester tools for working up the winter wood pile. Out in the wood lot Winchester cross cut saws bite their way quickly through tough, knotty logs. Winchester axes fell trees in record time. For the householder who wants to "warm up" we have other Winchester axes, and wood saws made to save his muscles and nerves.

Winchester Axes — Sharp cutting edges, thin ground—Perfect balance. Second growth hickory handles. Patented interlocking wedges. Single and double bit axes.

Winchester Cross Cut Saws —High grade steel. Teeth well-sharpened and correctly set. Blade thinner at back than at tooth edge prevents binding.

GRESHAM LOCALS

Albert Barry, who is employed at the Ruby Stock Farm, was kicked by one of the champion horses which is on exhibit at the fair grounds and is suffering from a broken leg as a result.

Orville Zimmerman returned from the mountains last week and is assisting his father in the Mt. Tabor garage.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barker have written of the birth of a son on September 16th at their home in Long Beach, California. Mrs. Barker is well known here as Esther Elford, a sister of Mrs. C. M. Zimmerman.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Moffitt and children were in Gresham Monday. Mr. Moffitt was here on business and Mrs. Moffitt accompanied him and spent several hours visiting friends. They are leaving Astoria for their farm near Dayton.

Jos. Haley is planning the erection of a modern one-story bungalow just east of the residence of Judge and Mrs. G. W. Stapleton. The work of excavating the basement has begun and part of the lumber is on the ground.

Chas. Witter has the basement of his new home dug and work on the building will soon commence. Mr. Witter has just completed a most attractive garage on the property on South Roberts avenue and has graded the lot around the proposed dwelling.

A four-thousand-dollar sport model Kissel Kar was burned to the wheels near Hogan station on last Friday evening. The car belonged to a Mr. Rice of Portland, who was driving and who was accompanied by his wife. The fire broke out suddenly and Mr. and Mrs. Rice had to jump out to escape being burned. The car was turned over to the insurance company.

Principal C. M. Quicksall of the Gresham grade school states that the enrollment of pupils for last week reached 238.

Mrs. Eugene Fowler and two children from Roseburg are visiting this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Burch and attending the fair. Mr. Burch has returned from the mountains near Mt. Adams, where he has been in forestry service.

Mrs. James Sterling has received the announcement of the birth of a baby girl to her niece, Mrs. Mildred Briggs Kennedy of Portland on last Friday, September 16.

W. H. Mitchell of Portland is again in charge of concession space in the main pavilion and has taken up his residence in Gresham for the week of the fair. Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell have rooms in the B. W. Emery residence.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bliss have returned from an outing at Seaside where they spent a delightful vacation in the up-to-date cottage of Geo. W. Kenney of Gresham. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. H. Higby of Portland. They report fine weather and splendid roads.

Chas. J. Lisle, of the Salem Statesman and Pacific Homestead, was in Gresham today visiting the fair. He is visiting many of the county fairs and thinks the Multnomah county fair is one of the best.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hamilton and their daughter, Mrs. Erna De Veny of Portland visited the fair today and called on old neighbors in Gresham.

Mr. and Mrs. George Pullen have come up from Seaside to put up some of the fall fruit on their place and visit the fair.

WHOLE "LIZZIE" FAMILY ATTEND COUNTY FAIR

"Just tell 'em to 'Meet us at the Fair'" said Ellsworth Raker yesterday when asked if he had anything to say in our special issue. "Say that if the folks want to see something nice in the way of finished products of Henry, the much maligned, to come over to our big exhibit and we will show it to them. Everything from 'highbrow buzz wagons' to strictly utilitarian tractors. Also watch the big Fordson dragging the harrow on the race track daily. Break up the track? Not so as you can notice it. It glides like a thistle down, but the drag does its work thoroughly. Nuf ced."

O. N. FORD EXHIBITS FORTY GOLD MEDALS

O. N. Ford, manager of the Portland Gun club, and famous trap-shooter, has 40 gold medals on exhibition at the fair grounds. These medals were won by Mr. Ford who holds several world's records for trap-shooting and is well known in the United States as a first-class shot.

These 40 gold medals are valued at $2000. They are on exhibit at the art department. This is the first time these medals have been placed on exhibition at any fair. Mr. Ford also has 125 silver trophies which he promises to place on exhibit next year. These two sets of trophies form one of the largest and best collections of their class in the world.

BAPTIST LADIES TO HAVE STAND AT THE FAIR

The Ladies' Aid of the Gresham Baptist church has secured a concession on the fair grounds, and all during the fair will serve delightful eats. The ladies have voted to contribute $500 to their new church building to be erected in Gresham, and not only will they contribute to the fair by helping feed the great multitudes, but also will be doing service to Gresham by putting their money in a local building of which Gresham will not be ashamed.

Newspapers at the Fair.

The Outlook's rest booth on the south balcony of the main pavilion is a cozy place which will be attractive to people who are weary with "seein' things" and who wish to snatch a little rest. Mrs. Leslie T. St. Clair is in charge to answer questions about subscriptions and give any assistance possible.

Opposite the Outlook booth two great Portland dailies have headquarters. The Portland Telegram's stand is beautifully decorated and was the first on the balcony to be ready for the fair. Leon Baketel of the editorial staff can't stay away from the fair. He has been a familiar figure about the grounds and at the Telegram's booth for several years.

The Oregonian came in a little late but is none the less attractive. This is headquarters for the Oregonian's staff members and their friends. Curtis Hendricks, local representative for the big paper is in charge.

Outlook's new phone—1561.
