

Fordson Tractor

There are many tractors clamoring for the patronage of the farmer. The very air is charged with the noise of their claims. One would think that all the farmer had to do was to buy a tractor and he would enter into the Millennium.

Well, consider this fact—there are a great many different makes of tractors. Tractors have been on the American market for twenty years. In that time some three hundred thousand tractors have been sold to the farmers in the United States. The Fordson tractor has only been on the market two years, and in that time more than one hundred thousand Fordson tractors have been sold to the farmers of the United States.

LYDIA HAMMERLUND IS HONORED BY SHOWER

Between 45 and 50 friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Backlund at Haley last Saturday evening in honor of Miss Lydia Hammerlund whose marriage to John Lundberg is soon to take place.

The home was beautifully decorated in pink and white streamers and red cupid hearts. In one corner of the large double sitting room a canopy was suspended containing rice. At about 8:30 Miss Alice Olson ushered in the bride-to-be and seated her beneath the canopy beside Mr. Lundberg, while Mrs. Johnson was playing "Till We Meet Again," on the piano. As soon as she was seated Miss Olson pulled a string attached to the basket and showered the couple with plenty of rice, while the guests sang, "Wedding Bells Will Ring So Merrily." Little Ardis Bergstrom came in pushing a decorated baby carriage with a large kewpie doll dressed in pink and white as driver. The carriage was loaded with all kinds of useful articles in aluminum and pyrex kitchen utensils, towels, lunch cloths and numerous other useful things. After the bride-to-be had opened all the packages each guest had a question which she was to answer to her best ability. Hearts cut in different shapes with a rhyme were passed to be matched for partners for lunch. Mesdames Backlund, Bergstrom, Olson and A. Lekberg served dainty refreshments.

Among the guests were Mrs. Halstrom and son, Misses Lillian and Jessie Brown and Ruth Olson, all of Portland.

GUARDING AGAINST

THE TWO

GREAT ENEMIES

OF THE RANGE—

Rust and Those Heat Leaks

The Monarch Duplex draft safeguards your baking and your cooking and insures uniform heating. No half-burned coal or charred wood with the Monarch Range. Any fuel burns to a clean fine ash.

Monarch Ranges are made of malleable iron, not cast iron, because malleable iron can be made thinner and therefore gets to a heating point that much quicker. Malleable iron permits the use of riveting hammers. Neither bolts nor stove putty are used in Monarchs. That's why they stay tight. The Monarch features are ones which we are desirous of demonstrating to you. There are other important quality and value points in Monarchs which you should investigate in person.
