Official paper of the Town of Gresham Official paper of the Town of Fairview

Entered as second-class matter March 3, 1911, at the Postoffice at Gresham, Oregon, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

GREETINGS.

The Outlook extends greetings to all its readers at this Christmas season. It is especially grateful to its many contributors for their cooperation and to the advertisers for their loyal support.

Because of the press of work in the job department it seemed that the usual holiday number would necessarily have to be omitted but the idea was distasteful and early in December it was planned to get out a 12-page paper instead of one of 16 pages as last year.

TEACHING MEN TO WALK STRAIGHT.

The crime wave, the era of moral laxness and lawlessness, is just what was prophesied and to be expected following the war. Much of the condition which has prevailed for the past two or three years and has now, it is to be hoped, reached its height, can be traced more or less directly to the influences of the great war.

COMMUNITY SINGING.

The value of singing to create and keep alive and active a spirit of friendliness, good will and mutual helpfulness in a community cannot be overestimated. Community singing cements friendship. Community singing vitalizes community spirit.

Library in Gresham and now a movement is on foot to make community singing a regular thing. It is planned to hold one some time in January under the auspices of the business men.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS THAT LAST.

It's a fine thing to give gifts that last, that grow as they are used, that repeat themselves over and over. We cannot slight the loved ones and the kiddies, of course, but while remembering them we can also do our part to bring happiness to those less fortunate.

When we make Christmas presents to our own we will in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred only be adding to the comforts and pleasures they already enjoy.

If there is only one thing you can do then this latter is the more important. And it will bring more of real joy to you. Therefore it would seem that this ought to be the first thing to do and not the last.

From J. J. Handsaker, of the Near East Relief work, comes a sample of an appropriate Christmas card. It moves the heart of the humanity-lover to read it. Here it is:

My Christmas gift to you this year is a heart brimming with Christmas cheer.

The money that would have bought a present for you I have given to the Near East Relief.

In His name, for whom on that first Christmas Day there was no room, I have helped to buy shelter, food and clothes for thousands of starving children in the land where He was born.

Many in this locality have recently contributed to this needy and worthy cause, perhaps all you can spare, perhaps not.

When tempted to buy useless gifts or merely make an "exchange of gifts," why not stop and think of a better way to observe the festival of Christ's birth and let the true Christmas spirit have sway?

The Outlook has sent to Mr. Handsaker for some of these cards and arrangement is made for receiving contributions at the Outlook office or by K. A. Miller at the Bank of Gresham, who is chairman of the local Near East Relief committee.

It is suggested that those preferring might make their contribution to the American Red Cross whose relief work is more general, covering this as well as foreign countries.

Perhaps you know of needs nearer home where you can make an application of the Christmas spirit of peace and good will toward men.

The freshman class of Corbett high school gave a party recently in honor of the other classes. It was a fine social occasion all planned and carried out by the freshmen under the supervision of Mrs. Lillian Crank.

The Columbia Telephone company is putting in new lines to replace those torn down by the recent ice storms. The P. R. L. & P. company has repaired its lines and is again serving the community with light and power.

Services at the community church have been discontinued since the storm. The Christian Endeavor and Sunday school of the church are growing, also the Ladies' Aid. The latter held a bazaar on December 2 when they took in $223.

LUSTED

At the last meeting of the Parent-Teacher association a splendid program of readings and songs was given after which a basket social was enjoyed. The next meeting will be held January 13 and another fine program is under way.

The merchandise store, garage, barber shop and drug store seem to have no complaint coming regarding business during the past year.

From the glance backward it seems to have been a prosperous year for Boring and let's make next year just a little better.

The program and lunch of the Parent-Teacher association was well attended and unless there is the biggest bunch of liars around these parts of anywhere in the world, they were thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sherman are planning to move onto their farm near Woodland, Washington, about the first of the year.

A SERMONETTE.

By REV. H. R. GEBHARDT. For too many folks religion is a thing apart from life, a something that can be distinguished from life itself. That is not only their theory but at the same time their practice.

BORING

By L. H. MALLICOAT. At the close of an old year or the beginning of a new we usually look over our books to see just how we stand, take stock of what we possess and lay plans for the coming year.

As a community we shall take a glance backward for a year, and note some of the changes. Though it has been considered a rather hard year there do not seem to be any destitute, though work seems to be hard to find, there are but few idle.

A number of improvements and transfers have taken place during the past year that makes us think there are better times for us ahead. We usually judge a community by its appearance, or in other words, the number and condition of public and private buildings.

A number of new homes have been built during the past year that should help to improve any community. Among them is a new 5-room bungalow, modern in every respect, owned by Tom Roots.

The old hall of the Boring Live Wires has been remodeled, and now is used for "movie shows" and dancing. F. M. Morgan has had charge of the work.

Ky Stone has built a large bungalow on his farm a short distance east of town, which adds considerably to any farm.

Mr. Holtz, formerly of Sandy Ridge is having built a modern house on his tract just west of town. A number of other new buildings have been erected during the past year that add to the community, but limited space will not permit mentioning.

Just a glance at a few other improvements. The church and the Sunday school show a marked increase in enrollment and attendance, reaching the high mark during the latter part of the year. Rev. J. B. Carney of Portland, who finished a part of last year, has been assigned pastor for another year. We trust that the steady growth in the church and Sunday school will continue on through the new year.

Our school is in charge of Mr. Mallicoat, Miss E. Anderson and Miss O. Dugger. This being Mr. Mallicoat's sixth year. The enrollment has grown until it will be necessary to add a new teacher another year. It has passed the hundred mark, with more to enter the first of the year. The recent census points to a large increase next year. The standing in the recent tests speaks for the quality of work being done.

We should not fail to mention the I. O. O. F. and Rebekah lodges, which have made a steady growth during the past year and have furnished several entertainments for the public. The subordinate lodge meets every Wednesday evening and the Rebekah the first and third Friday of each month.

A grange has been recently organized that meets once each month in the I. O. O. F. hall. Visitors are always welcomed to the above lodges.

The merchandise store, garage, barber shop and drug store seem to have no complaint coming regarding business during the past year.

From the glance backward it seems to have been a prosperous year for Boring and let's make next year just a little better.

TERRY

By H. G. ANDREW. The program and lunch of the Parent-Teacher association was well attended and unless there is the biggest bunch of liars around these parts of anywhere in the world, they were thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Nickerson, owners of the "Double-Decker" brand of home canned farm products, are building a modern 8-room house on their property on the Base Line road.

T. J. Cowing and J. M. O'Donnell are planning on planting more berries this coming spring.

At the demonstration of the "Cletrac" farm tractor on the Harris nursery farms and the J. M. O'Donnell farm on Tuesday of this week, the sale of a machine to Mr. Harris, Mr. Kniefel and Mr. O'Donnell is reported.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sherman are planning to move onto their farm near Woodland, Washington, about the first of the year.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Stone and Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Andrew will give the next program of the Parent-Teacher association on the second Saturday in January, 1922.

A Christmas program will be given by the pupils of the Terry school Thursday night, December 22.
