

GRESHAM LOCALS

There will be a regular meeting of the Gresham Parent-Teacher association next Wednesday evening, January 18, in the assembly hall of the grade school. All parents and any interested in the school are invited. A good program will be given.

E. L. Melton, deputy dairy and food commissioner, was a caller in Gresham on Thursday in the interests of his department. General conditions here, he says, are good in the stores and markets. He says he occasionally finds butter wrapped in paper with no name of maker. The person marketing or shipping butter without a proper label on each roll is liable.

The ladies of the Study club met Tuesday evening at the library. Mrs. Cogswell read a paper on Gilbert

Stuart, painter of presidents. Mrs. Sutliff gave a brief survey of American literature. America's humorist, Mark Twain, was discussed by Mrs. Naylor. The papers were very interesting and greatly enjoyed by all present.

Pastor D. Q. Barry of the Bethel Baptist church, "The Glad Hand Church," invites the people of Gresham to meet at 11 o'clock next Sunday morning for the mutual consideration of the life of Elijah. This will be the first in a series of similar topics.

Mrs. Mary Kesterson, mother of Mrs. C. M. Harrison, has been brought here from Portland to be cared for by her daughter. Mrs. Kesterson, who is 85 years of age, is blind and ill. She has been for some months in a private home in Portland where she has been cared for.

H. L. St. Clair and his son, Leslie, have gone to Eugene to attend the Fourth Annual Conference of Newspapermen being held today and tomorrow in connection with the University of Oregon School of Journalism. Mr. St. Clair is on the program for a paper on "The Twice-a-Week Paper and Business." The two men went by automobile, leaving here yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. L. F. Burns of Portland will speak on home missions at the Free Methodist church on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 in connection with the quarterly meeting which is in progress over Sunday. Services will be held this evening, Saturday evening and Sunday, when District Elder W. T. Klotzback of Portland will preach.

Roy H. Gibbs is building a double garage on his property on Main street just north of the Mt. Hood tracks which he and Mrs. Gibbs will occupy until a residence can be erected. The property fronts on Main street.

Henry Tilgner of Portland has purchased the Main street garage of Geo. Elleff and will do repair work, buy and sell used cars and specially represent the Cadillac agency. His garage is in the Ross building.

GRESHAM BUSINESS HOUSE IS IMPROVED

Extensive improvements and repairs are being made on the business house of John Rometsch, which is occupied by the Liberty Restaurant at Main and Powell streets. The building will be built out 16 inches to the property line, plate glass windows will be placed in the north and east walls and the entrance will be changed from the corner to the north side near the street intersection.

S. Pappantonis, proprietor of the Liberty Restaurant, says that the changes will greatly add to the appearance of the building.

PLEASANT HOME

At the Baptist church next Sunday evening the new pastor, the Rev. D. Q. Barry, will preach at 8 o'clock on the subject, "The Unpardonable Sin."

The junior department of the M. E. Sunday school has been loading a ship with money and clothing for the past few months. It is announced that the ship will leave for the Near East next Sunday morning. All members of the department will want to see it depart.

A Bargain

Hood loop road. For particulars call at my place of business at Powell Valley. Phone 1075 or write Karl J. Hagerberg, Gresham, Oregon.

KELSO

Miss Caroline Vaeretti is planning an interesting entertainment in connection with the graduating exercises to be held Saturday evening, January 28th. Seven pupils will receive their eighth grade diplomas at that time.

The lath mill owned by Ned Nelson and Max Kligel, erected on Ned Nelson's place, is now in operation, sawing lath. John Jonsrud is sawing the lath. Gus Ludwigson is employed sawing wood and getting out material for lath.

The Ladies' club will meet Thursday, January 26th, at the home of Mrs. Gilbert Eri.

Charles Johanson, a brother of Mrs. Hannah Nelson and a prominent farmer and dairyman of Orient, died at the Good Samaritan hospital on Saturday.
