

Full Text of Four-Power Treaty Providing Peace in Pacific Ocean Regions.

The United States of America, the British Empire, France and Japan. With a view to the preservation of the general peace and the maintenance of their rights in relation to their insular possessions and insular dominions in the regions of the Pacific ocean.

Have determined to conclude a treaty to this effect and have appointed as their plenipotentiaries: The President of the United States, His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British dominions beyond the seas, Emperor of

India, and for the Dominion of Canada, for the Commonwealth of Australia, for the Dominion of New Zealand, for India, The President of the French republic, His Majesty the Emperor of Japan, Who, having communicated their full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed as follows:

ARTICLE I.

The high contracting parties agree as between themselves to respect their rights in relation to their insular possessions and insular dominions in the regions of the Pacific ocean.

If there should develop between any of the high contracting parties a controversy arising out of any Pacific question and involving their said rights which is not satisfactorily settled by diplomacy and is likely to affect the harmonious accord now happily subsisting between them, they shall invite the high contracting parties to a joint conference to which the whole subject will be referred for consideration and adjustment.

ARTICLE II.

If the said rights are threatened by the aggressive action of any other power, the high contracting parties shall communicate with one another fully and frankly in order to arrive at an understanding as to the most efficient measures to be taken, jointly or separately, to meet the exigencies of the particular situation.

ARTICLE III.

This agreement shall remain in force for ten years from the time it shall take effect, and after the expiration of said subject to the right of any of the high contracting parties to terminate it upon twelve months' notice.

ARTICLE IV.

This agreement shall be ratified as soon as possible in accordance with the constitutional methods of the high contracting parties and shall take effect on the deposit of ratifications which shall take place at Washington, and thereupon the agreement between Great Britain and Japan, which was concluded at London on July 13, 1911, shall terminate.

It is often called a little world, but it seems pretty big to the lonesome old fogey whose family is away on a vacation.

CASE AGAINST KANE IS DISMISSED TUESDAY

The case against Henry Kane which was held this morning was dismissed for lack of prosecution. Jos. Griffis, grandfather of Mr. Kane, had signed a complaint accusing the latter of stealing several hundreds of dollars. Investigation failed to disclose evidence against Mr. Kane and later it was said Mr. Griffis denied signing the complaint. It was alleged that Mr. Griffis often mislaid money and other articles and later discovered the missing articles. Since he did not appear to prosecute the case was dismissed.

Because a man calls his wife "dear" in public is no sign they have a happy home life—maybe she is, at any price.

Obituary of Mrs. Christina Person.

Mrs. Christina Person was born in Malmo, Sweden, December 12, 1833. In early youth she was confirmed and became a member of the Swedish Lutheran church. She married Mr. Person, also of Malmo, Sweden. God blessed this union with four children, three sons and a daughter. One son and her husband died in Sweden. In 1890 she with a son and her daughter emigrated to America and for many years made her home in Oregon. She died of old age at the home of her son, Peter, of Corbett, Wednesday morning, January 11, at 2 o'clock at the advanced age of 88 years and 30 days. Besides the son and the husband who died in Sweden she was preceded to the other shore by her daughter Ellen Person Lofstedt. Those remaining to mourn their loss are two sons, Peter of Corbett and Ulf of Malmo, Sweden, six grandchildren and three great grandchildren. Funeral services were held at the Zion Evangelical church Friday afternoon at 2:45 o'clock, Rev. H. R. Gebhardt officiating. The body was laid to rest in Douglass cemetery.
