GRESHAM LOCALS

I. N. L. Shriner of Ashland, a former resident of Pleasant Home, where he still owns a farm, was here this week looking after the leasing of his place. He reports his family well and delighted with their new home at Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Addy of Polos, Montana, have come to Gresham and are visiting with J. N. Mewhirter, who is Mrs. Addy's uncle. They are looking for a location and expects to make their home here.

The Rev. August Youngren of Seattle, who has opened a work in Gresham, for the Japanese along evangelistic lines, will preach in the Free Methodist church on Saturday and Sunday night, December 21 and 22, in the Japanese language. The singing also will be in the same language. While these meetings are being held especially for the Japanese people all English speaking people are cordially invited to attend also. Mr. Youngren will speak in English at the Free Methodist church Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock when he will tell of his work in Japan for the past nineteen years.

The Tuesday Evening Study club will meet next Tuesday, January 24, at 7:45 p. m. in the library.

Regular service will be held at the Zion Evangelical church Sunday. Sunday school for all ages at 10:30 a. m. Preaching services in the German language at 11:30 a. m. Young people's meeting in the evening at 7:30 o'clock.

A new line of poles is being set along the east side of Main street by the P. R. L. & P. This is a part of the new installation connecting the two power lines so that Gresham will be supplied with a more regular power and light service. The poles are very large and high.

The congregations which greet Pastor Barry both at Bethel Baptist church "the Glad Hand church" and also at the Pleasant Home Baptist church are a source of encouragement and special inspiration. Theme for mutual consideration at the Bethel Baptist church Sunday at 11 a. m., "The Key to Prosperity." Sunday school convenes at 10 a. m. Everybody invited to sample the "menu" served up.

The Ladies' Aid will meet in the Sunday school room in the Odd Fellows building next Wednesday afternoon, January 25, for work. Women are asked to come prepared to sew. The refreshment committee consists of Mrs. C. M. Harrison, Miss Cora Green and Mrs. D. E. Towle.

A well attended meeting of the Gresham Parent-Teacher association was held in the assembly room of the grade school on Wednesday evening. A fine talk was given by the Rev. H. Gebhardt, musical numbers were furnished by the Whitney Boys, the Girls' Glee club and by other pupils of the school. The discussion of some of the needs of the school disclosed the fact that the schoolhouse is too small to accommodate the pupils and plans must be put under way soon for the enlargement of the present building or the building of a new structure. The association advocated the flooring of the play shed and will work toward the placing of the project in next year's budget. Refreshments and a social time were enjoyed.

Newspaper dispatches from Corvallis state that M. R. Good has been made a captain of engineers of the college military organization.

Mrs. O. I. Neal, who has been ill for about a year from paralysis, suffered a severe stroke yesterday and is in a unconscious condition. Hope for her recovery is held to be very slight.

All Gresham stores and business places will close tomorrow (Saturday) from 12 to 3:30 p. m., to enable merchants and clerks to attend the Farmers' Week banquet.

The regular meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of Gresham Post The American Legion will meet at the home of Mrs. J. H. Metzger on next Tuesday evening, January 24. A full attendance is desired.

Another community sing has been arranged for to be held at the library on Friday evening, February 17. Talks will be given by Judge G. W. Stapleton and Professor H. W. Boyer, supervisor of music in the Portland public schools. The Gresham branch of the Whitney Boys' Chorus, 50 strong, and the high school orchestra will furnish musical numbers. The formal program will be short as plenty of time is desired for the community singing and the social hour.

The regular meeting of the Ladies Guild of the Baptist church will be held at the home of Grandma Johnson of South Roberts avenue on next Tuesday. This will be an all-day meeting and the time will be spent in sewing for the coming bazaar. A business session will be called at 1:30 o'clock by the president, Mrs. A. J. W. Brown, when matters of much importance will be taken up. Members are urged to be present at this time.

Friends of Mrs. P. Lenard gave her a pleasant surprise on the occasion of her birthday on last Wednesday evening. Visiting, dancing and light refreshments were the features of the evening. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dahl, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Zimmerman, Miss Reader, Mr. and Mrs. H. Truitt, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Bennison, Miss Bernita and Harvey, Mrs. Thos. McKinney, Miss Mildred and Floyd, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Warden and Muriel, all of Gresham, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Shepherd, Dr. and Mrs. V. J. Reynolds and Mrs. Alice McGery of Portland.

Mrs. Harry McGowan of Lyle, Washington, was a recent caller, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Botkin.

E. W. Aylsworth has purchased a part of the Fred T. Merrill holdings at the 12-mile corner. He has bought 12 acres north of the Base Line road and east of the Fairview road, but not including the store property. The place has a residence and farm buildings which Mr. Aylsworth plans to improve and where he will make his home.

A man may have a spotless reputation because its black all over and has no room for spots.

NOTICE.

You will enjoy the Sunday evening service of the M. E. church. Special attention will be given heating and ventilation of the church, so you will be comfortable. Don't mind the weather. Come and take part in the singing of the grand old hymns of the church and in the service.

H. W. STRONG, Song Leader.
