CHOIR CONCERT WILL BE NEXT SUNDAY EVENING

The evening services at the Methodist Episcopal church next Sunday evening will be a treat to all the people of Gresham who love music. The program will be made up of a fine selection of anthems by the choir, special numbers by individual performers, and singing by the congregation. Of course you will enjoy every minute of the service.

The Sunday school institute that has been in progress during the past week has been a decided success from the standpoints of numbers enrolled and interest manifested. Twenty-five of the teachers of the Methodist and the Zion Evangelical Sunday schools have been in attendance at all the sessions. The plan of spending the four consecutive evenings in the study of the needs, methods, and aims of the Sunday school has been most heartily approved by those enrolled in the classes. Better trained teachers for the Sunday schools of Gresham is the end in view.

The topic of the morning sermon by the pastor of the church, the Rev. A. S. Hisey, will be "The World's Greatest Enterprise. What is the Prospect of Success?" Special numbers by a selected quartet will add much to the attractiveness of this service.

COUNTY COUNCIL HOLDS PROFITABLE SESSION

The meeting of the County Council Parent-Teacher association met in Troutdale Saturday, the ladies of that place serving a hot lunch at noon.

J. A. Churchill, state superintendent of public instruction, spoke on the beautification of rural schools and grounds, also of the observance of Arbor day to the planting of trees or shrubery. Mr. Churchill will furnish, free of charge, rose slips to any school writing for them.

A short musical program was enjoyed. Plans are under way for an entertainment to provide funds for the Council. Current events will be read from Lynch and Troutdale circles.

Circles represented were Riverdale, Corbett, Terry, Troutdale and Lynch, each president reporting interesting meetings.

The next meeting will be held at Corbett in the union high school on the third Saturday in March.

Dancing.

Dancing at Cedarville Park, Linneman Junction each Sunday evening commencing at 8 o'clock during the month of January. Admission, gentlemen 75c, ladies free. Hune's Agnes peppy 7-piece orchestra. Devereaux & Randle.—Adv. tf

GRESHAM LOCALS

The Women's Home Missionary society will meet at the home of Mrs. C. M. Zimmerman Wednesday afternoon, February 8. The hostess will be assisted by Mrs. L. L. Kidder, Mrs. B. L. Walrad, Mrs. S. J. Bennison, and Mrs. Wm. Thom. Mrs. James Elkington will be the leader.

The ladies' gymnasium class basket ball team of Gresham played the Orient team and won. It seemed to be a one-sided game as the score was 10-0 in favor of Gresham. Those playing on the Gresham team were Misses Letitia Pulfer, Reba Embry, Gertrude Eastman and Genevieve McAllister; and Mrs. Cecil Metzger. Mrs. Lucy Davidson and Mrs. Yalger. The two teams are planning another game for next week to be played at the Orient grange hall. Full particulars and date will be given next week.

A surprise party was given in honor of Mrs. J. V. Cogswell at her home on last Wednesday evening, February 1. It was gotten up by her friends and neighbors to celebrate her birthday. It happened that Mrs. Cogswell went to town on that day so that plans for the party were easily carried out. Old neighbors and friends from Linnemann were also invited. There were about 20 present. A very pleasant evening was spent. Games were played and several musical numbers rendered.

Regular services will be held at the Zion Evangelical church Sunday morning. The Sunday school convenes at 10:30 o'clock. Come, there is a class for you. Preaching services in the English language at 11:30 o'clock. Sermon topic, The Christian's Yoke." "Come thou with us and we will do thee good."

The people of Gresham and vicinity are cordially invited to meet at the Bethel Baptist church next Sunday morning, February 5 for the mutual consideration of the question, "What is Man?" After the sermon, the right hand of fellowship will be extended to new members and this will be followed by the ordinance of the Lord's Supper. Pastor Barry will preach at Gillis at 3 p. m. His theme will be "Acceptance of Salvation."

The next meeting of the Queen Esther chapter will be held at the home of Mrs. Glen Davidson on Monday evening, February 6. The hostess will be assisted by Misses Letitia Pulfer and Vivian Hevel. All members and friends are cordially invited

Mrs. A. Hughes has been visiting her son Everett and his wife in Burley, Idaho, for the past three weeks and has just returned home.

Mrs. Anna Hamlin has moved to the Ross building on Third street.

The Rev. David Q. Barry and Mrs. Barry have rented the Hamlin cottage on Main street and will move in at once.

Mrs. J. H. Wood, who has been ill with grip is better but Mr. Wood has caught the malady. His condition is not serious.

The ladies of the Baptist Guild will meet next Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock sharp at the home of Grandma Johnson to work.

Mrs. A. B. Wood, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia during the past week, now has a trained nurse.

W. C. T. U. bake sale is to be held tomorrow at A. W. Metzger's store.

New Royal Cords, 30x3½ at $18.30, W. A. Hessel.

Tractor Implements Less in Price.

Following the drop in the price of Fordson tractors recently announced, substantial decrease in the price of tractor implements has been made, according to Raker & Son, local Fordson dealers. No. 7, 2-base, 14-inch chilled plow now sells for $87.75 and No. 3 1-base, 16-inch chilled plow for $80.35. This gives a tractor and splendid plow attachments for $850.60.

to be given to the student writing the best Essay on the subject "What Lincoln's Gettysburg Address Has Meant to the World."

There are four separate contests—the same prizes for each—The Sophomores and Freshmen, the Juniors and Seniors, the Seventh Grade pupils and the Eighth Grade pupils.

SEE THAT YOUR BOY OR GIRL ENTERS THE CONTEST.

Teachers have full instructions. Seventh Grade pupils do not compete with Eighth Grade pupils, nor Eighth Grade with High School students.

The County Superintendent of Schools approves of the plan, and will appreciate your efforts in making the contest a success and an inspiration of patriotism in the students.

Teachers must give notice to First State Bank of the intention of their school to compete on or before February 10th.

See that your school is properly enthused.
