GRESHAM LOCALS

The Knights and Ladies of Security will hold their next regular meeting, Wednesday evening, February 8 in Metzger's hall. It is expected that several new members will be initiated.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Mast are rejoicing over the arrival of an 8 1/4 pound girl who was born Monday, February 6. Both mother and daughter are doing well.

The W. H. M. S. will meet Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. M. Zimmerman. Mrs. Elkington will lead the study.

Miss Gladys Neal, who was home during the recent illness and death of her mother, has returned to Oregon Agricultural College where she is resuming her studies in music.

Mrs. Frank Moore, who has been seriously ill with erysipelas for several days, has taken a slight turn for the better.

The next meeting of the city council, which meets on the first Tuesday of every month, will be held this evening, February 7, in the city hall. The meeting will start at 7:30 sharp and all are asked to be on time.

Floyd Metzger and wife spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Metzger and family.

Elbert Weissenfuh, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia for several weeks, has been taken to Portland to the hospital. An abscess has formed on his lungs which necessitates an operation.

A 7 1/2 pound baby daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Kirkwood on Monday, February 6, at the home of Mrs. H. C. Timmerman.

The first of a series of high school debates will be given in the auditorium on next Friday evening, February 10. It is to be between the Estacada and Union High school.

Henry Weiss was operated on a week ago last Thursday for appendicitis at a private hospital in Portland. He is getting along as well as can be expected. It is hoped that he will be able to be brought home next Sunday.

Noel Moore, two-year-old grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moore, has been very low with pneumonia for several days but he is slightly improved today. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Moore, have moved here just recently from Idaho Falls, Idaho and expect to make their home here permanently. Mr. Moore has been appointed agency manager of the Pacific Coast by the Montana Life Insurance company. Mrs. M. C. Rogers of Portland has been with Mrs. Moore during the child's illness.

The regular meeting of Gresham grange will be held next Saturday, February 11. The morning will be taken up with routine work and after the dinner hour the installation of officers, which was postponed last month on account of the death of Mrs. W. A. Hessel, will take place. Past Master Mrs. J. R. Cavanagh will be the installing officer. She will be assisted by Past Master George W. Stapleton. The public is invited.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at the library on next Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The bake sale which was held last Saturday was such a decided success that plans have been made for a similar sale on the first Saturday of each month.

C. E. Cree was greeting friends in Gresham last evening. Mr. Cree, who lives near Lents, is excluded from his home on account of a case of small pox there.

E. W. Stratton is serving on the jury in the circuit court of Multnomah county.

to be given to the student writing the best Essay on the subject "What Lincoln's Gettysburg Address Has Meant to the World."

There are four separate contests—the same prizes for each—The Sophomores and Freshmen, the Juniors and Seniors, the Seventh Grade pupils and the Eighth Grade pupils.

SEE THAT YOUR BOY OR GIRL ENTERS THE CONTEST.

Teachers have full instructions. Seventh Grade pupils do not compete with Eighth Grade pupils, nor Eighth Grade with High School students.

The County Superintendent of Schools approves of the plan, and will appreciate your efforts in making the contest a success and an inspiration of patriotism in the students.

Teachers must give notice to First State Bank of the intention of their school to compete on or before February 10th. See that your school is properly enthused.
