GRESHAM LOCALS

Judge and Mrs. G. W. Wonacott are just recovering from a severe attack of the grip. They took sick on February 18 but are able to get around the house now. Their daughter, Mrs. Wm. Glover, is here from San Francisco to take care of them. As soon as she heard they were ill, she left her work at the hospital and all her patients and came to nurse them back to health. Several of Mrs. Glover's old school-mates dropped in today to pay her a visit. They were Miss Myrtle Willis, Mrs. N. Roberts, Mrs. Minnie Forbes and Mrs. Ford, all of Portland.

Judge G. W. Stapleton is detained at his home on account of illness.

A parade of union high school students marched up Main street today noon. When they reached the fountain on Powell street, they formed a circle and gave their high school yells. Their parade intended to herald their big game tonight.

The Areme club will meet at the home of Mrs. J. C. Shultz Monday evening, March 13. All the Eastern Star ladies are invited to attend.

St. Helens has one of the best high school basket ball teams in the state of Oregon. So has Union High school No. 2. The two teams meet tonight and those who attend the game will have a chance to decide for themselves which is the better.

Regular services at the Zion Evangelical church next Sunday are as follows: Sunday school at 10 a. m. Divine worship in the German language at 11 a. m. The sermon topic will be "With Jesus on the Mountain." A special offering for the church extension fund will be taken at the morning service. Evening service at 7:30 o'clock with Miss Minnie Schrepel as leader. Topic for discussion "Habits, Good and Bad."

Mrs. A. Thompson has been ill with the grip since her return from The Dalles. She is reproving now. Her son, Dr. Wilbur Thompson, is here from Sandy.

The Tuesday Evening Study club will meet at the library March 14. Mrs. Lambert will read a paper on American song composers. The subject of Mrs. Kilgore's reading will be the two Chicago poets, Edgar Lee Masters and Carl Sandburg.

O. A. Eastman's cousin, Grant Eastman and his wife, are visiting at the Eastman home. Mr. and Mrs. Grant Eastman have just come from California where they spent the winter and they are now on their way back to their home in Wisconsin.

Plans are under way for the annual St. Patrick's day luncheon to be given by the Ladies' Aid society on March 17. The place of the luncheon will be announced later. A sale of fancy articles will be held in the afternoon following the luncheon and all who are contributing articles for the sale are expected to send them either to the parsonage or to the home of Mrs. B. L. Walrad not later than March 15.

C. A. Carothers has gone to eastern Oregon on business. Mrs. Carothers is visiting with relatives and friends in Portland over the week end.

Mrs. Lena Needham has returned from Portland where she went early last week to care for her daughter, Mrs. Roy Wonacott, who has been ill.

Mrs. Benj. Cameron spent last week week at Corvallis visiting with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Thompson. Mr. Cameron went to Corvallis the latter part of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson returned with them to Gresham and spent last Sunday here.

Word has been received here of the death at Roseburg last week Friday of Len Lovelace, formerly of Rockwood. Death was due to paralysis. Mr. Lovelace is survived by his widow, two sons, Ross and Floyd and a daughter, Mrs. Maive Iler.

Mrs. Ethel Miller, who is employed at the Bishop Bros.' store, has been sick all week with the grip.

GRESHAM TO HAVE JULY 4 CELEBRATION

H. A. Lewis, president of the Multnomah county fair board, appeared before the Gresham city council at their last meeting and asked that a Fourth of July celebration be given this year on the fair grounds.

Councilmen expressed themselves in favor of the request and appointed a committee to confer with the fair board. The men chosen on this committee are C. I. Raker, A. Hammar and C. G. Schneider.

A committee of business men will also be chosen to cooperate with the other committee and the fair board. One of the proposed features of the celebration is horse racing on the race track. No definite plans have as yet been made, however.

This celebration promises to be one of the best ever held here. With the early start in beginning to make plans for it, everything indicates that it will be an event to look forward to.

Doctor—"Well, I am glad to see you are coughing easier this morning."

Man with the grip—"I ought to, I practiced all night."

MRS. A. C. RUBY WILL BE HOSTESS TO W. C. T. U.

Mrs. A. C. Ruby will entertain the members of the W. C. T. U., their husbands and the honorary members at her home on the Base Line road on next Monday evening, March 13. This will be a social event of much interest. A short program will be given, including a duet by Mr. and Mrs. H. W. trong, solos by Mrs. Richard Neubauer and C. E. Rusher and a reading by Mrs. C. M. Zimmerman.

Each lady will furnish a box lunch for two.

Automobiles will be at the Gresham library at 7:45 to take those wishing to go.

GRESHAM GRANGE TO HAVE TALKS ON TREES

Clayton B. Lewis of Portland will be a guest at the Gresham Grange Saturday, March 11, and will give a talk on some subject pertaining to trees.

The program for that day will deal with trees in various ways. There will be a roll call and each granger in answering is to give some interesting thing concerning trees.

Additional numbers on the program will be a solo by Miss Myrtle Rusher, a recitation by Miss Catherine Metzger and a musical number by Miss Martha Hagberg.

The afternoon program is public and everyone is invited.

Dance at Orient

A dance will be given at Orient Grange hall on Saturday night, Mar. 11, by Orient basket ball team. Tickets $1 a couple and supper 50c a plate.—Adv.
