GRESHAM LOCALS

The Gresham Parent-Teacher association will hold a meeting at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, Wednesday, March 15, in the grade school assembly room.

Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Munson, sister of Mrs. M. M. Squire are here on a visit from Portland, New York.

Mrs. Ethel Miller, who was ill last week with the prevailing illness, went back to work at Bishop's dry goods store Monday morning.

The weekly teacher's training classes are to be continued for three more weeks at the Methodist church on Wednesday evenings and commencing at 7:30 sharp. All are invited to attend who care to.

E. D. Raker, who has been ill for the past week at the home of his parents, is very much better.

Word has been received here of the promotion of Loren Myers of Seattle to the position of wireless operator on a large vessel which has started on a year's cruise around the world. Loren is a graduate of union high. He went with his mother to Seattle and entered the University of Washington after graduating from the school here. After one year at the university he studied at a radio school for a year and is now in the practical work for which he has been studying. He expects to return to his studies at the close of the year. Loren is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Myers of Gresham.

Miss Edith Hiatt has been very ill with influenza for the past week or more but is reported to be improving.

Walter Brown has been quite ill with grip.

Mrs. P. A. Gould returned on Friday from McMinnville where she had spent a week with her son-in-law and daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Perry Thornton. Mr. Thornton is in a hospital suffering from cancer. He will probably be brought to the home of Mrs. Gould in Gresham for care.

Harvard Calkins, the four-year-old son of Harry Calkins, fell and broke his arm. It has been set by the doctor and he is getting along nicely.

Mrs. H. J. Stocker, who was being cared for in Portland for three weeks was brought to her home in Gresham the latter part of last week in a critical condition.

Dr. W. F. Bohna, drugless healer and nerve specialist, from eastern Oregon, has opened offices in the Sell building where he will treat acute and chronic diseases.

Del Regal has recently returned from a visit to New York City and other points east.

Mrs. C. H. Calkins has returned home after a two weeks' visit with friends at Astoria.

Salvation Army Meeting.
Workers from the Salvation Army headquarters in Portland have made arrangements for a meeting to be held at the Methodist Episcopal church in Gresham on next Tuesday evening, March 21. This will be preceded by an open air meeting on the street. Special music and singing will be features of the service. Everybody welcome.

FAIRVIEW

The basket ball team of the Fairview school won in a game with the Rockwood school on last Friday afternoon. The school is prosperous and interesting. There are now three teachers, Mrs. U. B. Willard, Miss Muriel Anderson and Miss Clara Sales.

POWELL VALLEY

Mr. and Mrs. Louie Berg are the proud parents of a baby boy born on March 7. He weighed 8 3/4 pounds at birth. Howard Chester has been chosen for his given name. Both mother and baby are getting along fine.

Boys' Potato Club Record.

Several issues ago, an article written on a demonstration given by our local club boys at the Portland commercial club contained a misprint. The club boys' average yield was 285 bushels as compared with 100 bushels, the average yield secured by the farmers of the state.

Lynch Parent-Teacher Dance.

A "hard time" dance will be given at the Lynch schoolhouse on next Saturday evening, March 14, under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher association.

Chicken Thieves Get Heavy Penalty.

Two young men, confessed chicken thieves, operating in the outskirts of Portland near Lents, were each given 99 days on the rockpile by Judge Bell. They were responsible for the disappearance of about 200 chickens during the past few weeks.

Automobile wrecks are often caused by human wrecks.

If you "don't care what it costs," you didn't earn the money even though it may have been paid to you.

A man may not know his own mind but he's generally egotistical enough to think he can read others' minds.

TEACHERS AND SCHOOL BOARD ENTERTAINED

The Victory Parent-Teacher association will entertain the teachers of the surrounding districts and the county school board on next Friday evening, March 17, at 8 o'clock at Victory schoolhouse. Mr. Alderson, county school superintendent, will be present and standardize the school. The following program has been arranged:

Pictures by Mr. Alderson on the native birds of Oregon.

Song, "America."

Reading by Edna Wood.

Song, "School Days," by Harold and Lewis Dahl.

"Magpie" by Edna McCreary.

A short talk by Rev. Earl B. Cotton.

Miss Helen Cowgill, assistant state girls' club leader, is to spend the latter part of this week in Gresham and it is expected that she will be present to give a short talk on club work at this time.

Talk on Education by Prof. R. E. Cannon, of union high school in Gresham.

The ladies on the refreshment committee will serve lunch.

There will be a short business meeting at 7:30 sharp in order that it be completed before time for the program to start. All Parent-Teacher association members are urged to come early.

A sale of home made candy will be held to raise money for the school.

A NIGHT SCHOOL ON POULTRY WORK BEGUN

Night school on poultry work is being held every Wednesday night at the home of H. C. Compton at Haley. Wm. S. Averill of Gresham high school has charge of the work.

Last Wednesday night "Selection and Care of Eggs for Hatching" was taken up. There were 20 pupils at the meeting. Next Wednesday night, March 15, the subject will be "Care of Baby Chicks." The session will start at 8 o'clock sharp and continue until 9.

WOODMAN CAMP MAKES GREAT MEMBERSHIP GAIN

Hundreds of members of Multnomah Camp No. 77 Woodmen of the World in Gresham and vicinity will be interested in learning that the camp has passed the 6000 mark in its membership, making it one of the most notable lodges in the entire United States.

Ship Gresham Potatoes by Parcel Post.

Half a ton of seed potatoes arrived in Oakland, Oregon just recently by parcel post from a Gresham grower whose name is not known. They were consigned to Keith Kesterson, who lives on the Umpqua river about 14 miles from Oakland. They were shipped in 20 sacks of 50 pounds each and will be delivered to Mr. Kesterson's ranch by the Kellogg Elkton mail stage in installments, because of the poor condition of part of the road.
