GRESHAM LOCALS

Mrs. J. H. Hoss was taken ill suddenly last Sunday afternoon with an attack of grip.

Judge and Mrs. G. W. Wonaott are still gaining in health.

The Salvation Army will hold an "Open Air" and indoor meeting at the Methodist Episcopal church Tuesday evening, March 21. Special music and singing will form a part of the program. Everyone is welcome.

The quarterly meeting of the Queen Esther circle of the Portland district will be held next Sunday, March 19, at 3 o'clock in the Portland settlement center. Autos will be furnished for those wishing to go. Everyone is to meet at Mrs. Hevel's home at 2 o'clock. A newly organized quartet will furnish a number or two for the program. The members of the quartet are Misses Myrtle Rusher, Doris Zimmerman, Gladys Harmon and Vivian Hevel. Miss Vida Cemer will accompany them on the piano. Alice Peterson will give a reading.

T. W. Wixon, who has charge of the new grocery store here, and his wife have moved into the Collins house on Powell street.

Harold Kern has gone to San Francisco where he has been sent to take charge of a fleet of trucks.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Lander from Portland have moved to Gresham and are occupying the Bradfield house on Fifth street. Mr. Lander will be employed at the cannery.

W. R. Kern of Mt. Angel visited relatives here for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Boswell have bought the A. Von Readen property.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church will hold an all-day sewing and business meeting at the home of Mrs. S. Dixon next Tuesday, March 21st.

Miss Helen Cowgill, assistant state girl's club leader, has been the guest of Miss Ethel Calkins since last Wednesday. She is here to help plan club work for this year.

Mrs. J. C. Peterson, a former resident of Gresham, is here from Shaw, Oregon to visit her daughters, Mrs. Glen Davidson and Esther and Alice Peterson.

A meeting of the G. A. R. Relief Corps will be held tomorrow, Saturday Mar. 18 in spite of the fact that a previous notice was sent out to the contrary.

Mrs. Walter Metzger of Boring is visiting today at the home of Mrs. John Metzger.

Ben Matthews and little daughter are both very ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest P. Thom spent several days here visiting with relatives before starting on a trip to California which will take them away for several weeks. Mr. Thom has recently sold his ford agency at Independence.

Word has been received by Mrs. E. G. Wilkes of Rockwood of the recent marriage of her son, Thomas M. Watson. The bride was Bernice Hively of San Francisco.

Frances Mey, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Cheek living west of Gresham, died on March 10, aged 10 days.

Zion Evangelical Church.

The services for next Sunday at the Zion Evangelical church will be conducted by the regular pastor, Rev. H. R. Gebhardt.

Sunday school will begin at 10 a. m. and preaching at 11. The sermon topic will be "With Jesus in the Valley" and will be in the English language.

Choir rehearsal will be held at 1:30 in the afternoon to practice the Easter cantata.

Young people's meeting will begin at 7:30. Walter Ramser is to be the leader. The topic will be "What Does Following Christ Mean?"

HALEY

The recent Sunday school contest was won by the juniors. The juniors will be treated to a banquet by the seniors and young people next Sunday after the morning service. The sermon will be in English on this occasion and will be partly illustrated. The Rev. Andrew Johnson is pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Todmen were the recipients of a purse, amounting to about $40 contributed by the neighbors, recently. Mr. Todmen suffered a paralytic stroke last summer which will incapacitate him for at least a year. They are having a hard time of it as a consequence and the neighbors wanted to cheer them with a lift. Mr. and Mrs. Todmen wish to thank all the contributors.

FAIRVIEW

The congregational meeting of the Smith Memorial church will be held next Tuesday evening, March 21. After the business meeting a social hour will be held and light refreshments served.

"The Deceiver" Portrays Oregon Scenery.

"The Deceiver" which comes to the Gresham Theater Saturday and Sunday, is a virile tale of the great woods with scenes laid in and around one of the big lumber camps, near Bend, Oregon. Gresham people who are familiar with the topography at that section will recognize many of the scenes in this outdoor masterpiece.

Stray Sparks Causes Fires

There is nothing more cheerful than a fire in an open fireplace, but watch it. Many bad fires start from snapping embers. Use every safety appliance to confine open hearth fires.

Be sure that your house and household goods are insured in this agency of the Hartford Fire Insurance Company. If you have not attended to this matter, do not delay longer.
