TROUTDALE

A number of friends of Mrs. M. Lewis gathered at her home the evening of March 16 to wish her many happy returns of the day, it being her 80th birthday. Music and a delicious lunch were features of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry McGinnis of Portland were recent guests at the Joe McGinnis home.

The social given for the Baseball League was a decided success both socially and financially. Besides having a most enjoyable evening, $157 was taken in from the sale of baskets and a popular subscription raised the fund to over $200. Mr. Hopkins was elected captain.

Mr. and Mrs. Willet have moved to the Miller acreage a mile south of Troutdale.

A number of Troutdale women attended the meeting of the County Council at Corbett on Saturday.

Mrs. Henry McCollough and Mrs. C. E. Bush of Bridal Veil attended Eastern Star chapter on Saturday and were the guests over night of Mrs. L. Ostrand.

Bill Robinson and Andy Anderson, who are with the bridge gang at Mosier, spent Sunday in Troutdale.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Spence and little son were the guests at the W. C. Spence home on Sunday.

Victor Holm and Miss Carmen Paterson were Sunday visitors of the S. Holm family.

The Robinson twins have been quite sick.

Clarence Parsons has returned home from Mosier to commence spring work on the McGinnis celery farm.

ROCKWOOD

A very successful meeting of the Parent-Teacher association was held last Friday. A feature of the afternoon was the awarding of a window plant as a prize to the room having the largest representation of mothers present at the meeting.

The plant was won by Mrs. Burlingame's room. The winners generously promised to loan the plant to the other rooms occasionally. The association is planning for an entertainment to be given on April 1, when a scarf for a library table will be sold, also homemade candy, coffee, doughnuts and sandwiches. There will be a grab bag. The proceeds will go toward the fund for the payment of the piano, which is nearly complete.

Earl Lounsberry, who broke his arm while playing baseball with the Fairview team, is getting along nicely.

The Misses Sigfrid and Victoria Oily of Portland came out to help celebrate the birthday of their niece, Ruth Walin, who was 11 years old on Thursday.

Mrs. Edward Dickenson of Portland visited on Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dickenson and Mrs. Willard Cook.

Recent announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Edith Jelken to W. W. McCormick.

FAIRVIEW

The Polyanna Cooking club met on Saturday at the home of the leader, Miss Margaret Jones. Miss Helen Cowgill, state assistant girl's club leader, and Miss Ethel Calkins, Multnomah county club leader, were present and gave interesting talks. Plans were outlined for demonstrations to be given in the near future. The work of the club is progressing very satisfactorily.

At the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock the pastor, the Rev. E. R. D. Hollensted, will preach on the subject, "Why Christians Differ."

CEDAR

A birthday dinner was given last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Wood in honor of Mr. Wood and Russel Gentry. This birthday cake was baked and decorated by Miss Mabel Wood. On it were placed 19 candles in honor of Russel's birthday. The most wonderful part of it was the decorations which were composed of quaint pictures, four in all. They were pictures of children, a boy and a girl, and seemed almost too pretty to eat. The guests besides the family were Mrs. Lydia McCulloch and her daughter, Miss Oriene McCulloch, and W. Sawyer, Robert and Gladys Miller came in the afternoon.

GILLIS

The Rev. David Q. Barry of Gresham will preach at the Gillis community church next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. His subject will be "The Best Source of Investment."

Powell Valley Girls Serve Dinner.

Two girls, who are members of the cooking club, Edith Wright and Pearl Gustafson, cooked and served a three-course dinner last Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gustafson. There were 13 who partook of the good things prepared by the girls. They planned the menu which consisted of soup, creamed beans, mashed potatoes, pie and cake. All the family declared it was the best dinner they had ever tasted.

THE WORLD NEED OF A PROGRESSIVE PROGRAM

People about Pleasant Home will remember the man who was present at the Farmer's Institute last September and spoke on the subject of "Better Churches." He, Prof. W. H. Hertzog, of the department of rural Sociology of Kimball School of Theology, will speak at the Methodist church Sunday morning at 11 a. m. His subject will be "The Present World Situation and the Program of the Church." Arrange to be on time at this service or you may miss part of this helpful address.

The evening service at 7:30 will be in charge of the committee composed of G. H. Bickford, Mrs. Mary Bickford and Mrs. E. E. Van Fleet.

The Sunday school meets at 10 o'clock and has a class especially for "you." "You" are always welcome at any service held in the "Pleasant Church Home."

PLEASANT HOME

A number of Pleasant Home young people and their friends have organized a Tuckabatchee club. The name means get one, add one to it and stick together. The club was organized March 11 at the home of Mrs. Alta Gentry. Arthur Sloop was elected temporary president, and Mrs. Alfred Sloop secretary. There are 20 charter members. A singing class will be one of the activities. A second meeting was held last Saturday, March 18 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Ball. The occasion commemorated St. Patrick's day with all the decorations in green.

Mrs. M. Lennartz went to McMinnville recently to visit Mrs. Irene Hall Smith.

The Methodist Ladies' Aid held an at-home in the church a week ago Friday. The occasion was in honor of several new members and was enjoyed by all.

The sawmill owned by Anderson and Lauderback is in operation again.

The Tuckabatchee club is to meet at the home of Mrs. Alta Gentry Saturday instead of at Mrs. L. S. Alexander's on account of the poor health of Mrs. Alexander.

Some new pebble glass windows have replaced the old ones in the Methodist church. The old windows have been used for the new Sunday school building.

Pleasant Home Baptist Church.

Bible school at 10 a. m. The B. Y. P. U. will meet at 7 p. m. Preaching at 8 o'clock by Pastor Barry. This will be the second sermon in the series on the "Grandest Word in the English Language."

The young people will meet in the parlors of the church Tuesday evening, March 28 for their monthly social gathering. A special invitation has been extended to the young people of the Bethel Baptist church of Gresham to enjoy the evening with them. A grand time is expected.
