What Is the Value of Your Possessions?
How much are you worth in your own name? The things which are of real worth in this world cost something. Sometimes we pay gold for them. Sometimes we purchase them by the sweat of our brow. If the cost price is an indication of value, how much is your religion worth to you? How much does your religion cost you?
Rev. Earl B. Cotton will speak in the Pleasant Home Methodist church on Sunday morning on the subject, "The Price of Our Religion." He will also have charge of the evening service at 8 o'clock. (Note the change in the hour.) The subject is "Living in the days when there were no policemen." Special violin music has been promised for the evening service.
The Sunday school meets at 10 a. m., and joins with the church congregation in inviting you to attend this "Pleasant Church Home."

POWELL VALLEY
A meeting of Powell Valley Water District No. 2 will be held at the Powell Valley schoolhouse on Wednesday evening, April 5 for the purpose of nominating three water commissioners to be voted on at a later date. The petition which was recently presented to the county asking for the privilege of organizing received signatures of 95 per cent of the voters of the district. All interested are expected to be present at the Wednesday night meeting.
An unusually interesting meeting of the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary society was held at the Lutheran church on last Saturday evening, when $21.44 was received for the work. The program was furnished by the Lutheran League and was much enjoyed. One number was a talk on the need of the work in China by John Unis. The members of the missionary society are very appreciative of the good work done by the young people in furnishing the program.
A box social will be held at the schoolhouse on Friday evening, April 7 for the benefit of the Powell Valley cookery club, "Work and Win." Ladies will bring either a box lunch for two or a pie. During the evening there will be a program and a sale of coffee and candy.
Mrs. Thorwald Anderson was taken to Emanuel hospital in Portland on Saturday, where she underwent an operation. She is reported to be doing well.
Visitors at the John Palmblad home on Thursday were the Rev. E. Bjerquist, of Warren, Oregon and P. Holst, of Boring.

ROCKWOOD WILL HAVE SUNDAY SCHOOL MEET

The Sunday School association composed of the schools of the Powell Valley circuit will have its semi-annual meeting at Rockwood, Saturday, April 8, with a full program of reports, inspiring and helpful addresses and round table discussions. The Association meets in November and April, the last meeting being at Boring.

The purpose of the association is two-fold—to bring the workers in the schools together for friendly fellowship and to develop better workers and methods of work in the various schools of the parish.

The following is the outline of the program for the Rockwood meeting:
10 a. m., Opening devotions, Rev. B. G. Carney.
10:20, Reading the record and appointment of committees. Three-minute report from each school.
10:45, "Our Schools and the Stewardship Program." Rev. A. S. Hisey.
11:15, "Our Experiment in Departmentalizing a One-Room School." Mrs. Alta Gentry.
11:35, "Evangelism in Our Schools." Rev. L. F. Smith.
12:00, The Benediction. Dinner hour.
1:15 p. m., Devotions, Rev. Carney.
1:25, "Don't Send Your Children to Sunday School." Dr. Geo. B. Pratt.
2, "The Story as a Means of Missionary Education of the Juniors." Mrs. A. S. Hisey.
2:20, The Sunday School and Service." Rev. E. B. Cotton.
2:40, Round table discussion, Rev. B. G. Carney.
3, Business session.

Each school of the association may send as many representatives as may be possible, but every school should be represented by at least two delegates. The larger the number the better our meeting will be. Bring your dinner basket. The Rockwood school will furnish a hot drink.

ROCKWOOD
A social affair of much interest to Rockwood people was the entertainment in Portland on Thursday evening given in honor of Miss Edith Jelken, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jelken. The hostess was Mrs. A. Noble, whose house was beautifully decorated in pink and white. The flowers were pink carnations. Covers were laid for 14. Many beautiful and useful gifts were received by Miss Jelken, the date of whose wedding to V. W. McCormack of Portland has been set for April 19.
A very pleasant surprise was given Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Horton at their home on Friday evening, March 24, the occasion being their 25th wedding anniversary. A host of friends gathered to help celebrate the occasion and presented a handsome collection of silver. The evening was spent pleasantly in playing cards, games, music and singing. At a late hour refreshments were served and friends departed wishing Mr. and Mrs. Horton a golden and a diamond wedding.
The play "The Day Express," and entertainment will be given under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher association on Saturday evening, April 1, at the grange hall. An attractive feature of the program will be music by the orchestra of union high school of Gresham.

FAIRVIEW
Mrs. Janet Grant, who was at home for two days last week on account of the illness of her son Donald, has returned to her work as primary teacher in the Rose City Park school, Portland.
The well-known De Moss family of entertainers will give a program at the Methodist church next Wednesday evening, April 5.
At the Smith Memorial Presbyterian church on next Sunday morning, the pastor, the Rev. E. R. D. Hollensted, will preach at 11 o'clock. He will take for his topic, "The Optimism of Faith." Lillian Heslin, who has been in the Good Samaritan Hospital where she underwent an operation for appendicitis, has returned to her home and is able to be out again.
Miss Alderson has been absent from her school for the past two weeks on account of the illness of her mother. Mrs. L. Stone has been taking her place.

The Misses Ivy and Leila Robertson and Edith Jenkins of Portland were dinner guests at the home of their aunt Mrs. John Peterson, the occasion being Miss Rachael Peterson's birthday. Cedric Stone and family have moved to the Stone farm south of Fairview. A large crowd attended the play given by the Epworth League on Saturday night. Home made candy was sold. The proceeds were $66.

GILLIS
Services at the Gillis community church will be held at the usual hour next Sunday afternoon. The speaker will be the Rev. Earl B. Cotton. The Powell Valley string band will assist with the music.

BOYHOOD PRANK STAYS IN CONSCIENCE

John Brown received a letter from California a few days ago with the sum of fifty cents enclosed with it. The letter read as follows:
"When you were running the grocery store at Rockwood several of we boys stole some cantaloupes from you. I am enclosing money to cover my share as I wish to make that matter right."
Mr. Brown has no recollection of the matter referred to and says it must have happened 10 or 15 years ago.
