

The Bethel Baptist Church.
It has been a tremendous inspiration to the pastor to greet the crowds at the church on Sunday morning, and he thanks the people for the hearty spirit of cooperation. Bible school at 10 a. m. Preaching by Pastor Barry at 11 o'clock sharp. "The Crowning Glory" of the acrostic "Gospel." This will be the last in the series. The pastor will be assisted by the juniors, and Guy D. Jones will sing a solo, "Open the Gates of the Temple."

The evening song service will open at 7:15, and Miss Edna Shoemaker, a returned missionary, will throw on the screen a series of pictures to illustrate her talk. Be sure to be on hand and help in the service with all your heart.

A Matrons' Silver Medal contest will be given Wednesday evening, April 5, at 8 p. m., in the Methodist church under the auspices of the Gresham W. C. T. U. Admission, 25c. Children under 12 years, 15c.

Say it the Want Ad way.
Who Has the Master Key?

Zion Evangelical Church.
The following services will be held Sunday. Sunday school for all ages at 10 a. m. There is a class for everyone taught by specially trained and competent teachers. Come and join your class. Divine worship in the English language at 11 a. m. At this service the presentation and testimony of the confirmands will take place and the pastor will give a brief talk on "Confirmation."

Rehearsal of the Easter cantata "The Resurrection and the Life" at 1:30 p. m. This cantata will be given by the choir on Good Friday evening.

Young People's meeting at 7:30 p. m., with Miss Ida Schrepel as leader. The topic for discussion will be "Better Bible Reading." In his talk the pastor will discuss "Atonement" as taught by the Word of God, Christian Science, Spiritualism, Russellism, Theosophy, Mormonism, Seventh-Day Adventism and Modern Theology.

If you have not chosen your house of worship you are most cordially invited to make this church your home. Join us in our progressive program for the present and the future and receive your share of the blessing.

GRESHAM LOCALS

The Woman's Auxiliary to the American Legion met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. John Metzger. The state president came out Monday thinking it to be the meeting night and she could not come again on the next evening. The next regular meeting is expected to be an interesting one. Plans will be given later.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Gibbs have been quite ill with the flu but are better now. Their daughter, Miss Lella, is caring for them but she expects to leave the first part of next week for Bend to resume her work as a nurse.

Word has just been received from Mrs. C. Gordy that her daughter, Mrs. J. J. Wilson, has a fine baby girl born Tuesday morning, March 28 at one of the Portland hospitals. Mrs. Gordy is taking care of her other grandchildren during her daughter's illness. Both mother and baby are doing fine.

The regular monthly meeting of the city council will be held next Tuesday evening, April 4 in the city hall.

Saturday, April 8, will be the regular meeting day of Gresham Grange, and a program of importance to all members and their families at this season of the year is being planned by the lecturer, Mrs. R. F. Walters. While the program is not complete at this time, Mrs. Walters is able to announce that W. L. Crissey of the "Gladolus Farm" will speak on "The Beautifying of the Home Grounds," and Miss Mary P. Billmeyer, county public health nurse, will speak on some subject relative to the health of the family.

The Rev. A. S. Hisey and Mrs. Hisey attended the dedication on last Sunday afternoon of the great tabernacle at East Third and Irving, Portland, where revival meetings will be held during the next six weeks under the auspices of the united Methodist churches of Portland. The opening service was held last night, with Evangelist George Wood Anderson as speaker, Walter Jenkins, the well-known song leader, will have charge of the singing.

Mrs. Fred Powell, who has been in Portland for treatment of a nervous disorder, was returned to her home improved in health.

E. W. Aylsworth and family moved recently to their newly-acquired farm on the Base Line road. The house which they vacated on S. Roberts avenue is now occupied by the W. A. Winters family.

Mrs. A. Lee of Portland is visiting her grandchildren, Gertrude and Frederick Lee, at the home of their other grandmother, Mrs. Carrie Powell. Mrs. Lee came to help celebrate Gertrude's birthday.

Seventeen students of grade and high school registered as members of the junior choir of the Methodist church on Wednesday afternoon and chose for their president Georgia Stapleton. Hazel Cooley is secretary-treasurer and H. W. Strong director. Others are expected to join at the next meeting on Wednesday afternoon.

New platform scales have been received by Postmaster E. E. Johnson to facilitate the handling of the large volume of second-class and parcel post mail at the Gresham postoffice. In this connection record action was obtained by the postoffice department. In less than two weeks from the time when Miss Johnson wrote to Washington for the needed equipment, the scales were received by her and are now installed.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Squire and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Munson of New York have returned from a brief trip by automobile to Seaside.

H. C. Larsen is planning to start tomorrow morning for St. Cloud, Florida, where he will join Mrs. Larsen, who has been there for several months. They will return after a vacation of a month or six weeks.

Word has been received of the birth of a daughter recently to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kelland of San Diego, California. Mrs. Kelland will be remembered as Miss Grace Lee, formerly of Gresham.

Percy Smith has been visiting for several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Smith. He has been at Newberg for the past year but expects to go at once to Grants Pass to open a carpenter shop.

A regular meeting of the Gresham Business Men's club will be held Monday evening, April 3. All members are urged to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Sutiliff expect to move to Yakima, Washington tomorrow.

Kyanize

FLOOR FINISH STAINS AS IT VARNISHES

—brings out the natural beauty of the wood

One operation—that's all. Take a can of Kyanize Floor Finish (any color, Light Oak to Dark Mahogany), and a good brush—apply without mixing. Before your eyes, old furniture disappears. In its place you have a handsome ornament. Stained and varnished in a single stroke. Kyanize Floor Finish, made to endure abuse on floors, is for that very reason, ideal for furniture and woodwork as well. Waterproof—of course—and gritty heels cannot scratch it white.

HERE'S OUR TRIAL OFFER ON KYANIZE FLOOR FINISH
Present this advertisement to the dealers below, with 15 cents for a good brush to apply it, and receive a quarter-pint can of Kyanize Floor Finish (any color) FREE of charge.
