COMMISSIONER HOLMAN ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY

At the outset I want to say that I do not expect support from those who prey upon the resources of the county nor from the politicians who serve those who prey upon the resources of the county; but I do expect the support of those good citizens who hope for sincerity on the part of those who represent them in their government.

If one is sincere he will certainly make political and personal enemies of the grafters and incompetents. For instance, he will oppose, as I did, the excessive cost of advertising the delinquent tax-list amounting to from $12,000 to $30,000 a year and aid in the reform of this unwarranted expense, as I did, whereby now every necessary purpose is served by the mailing of postal cards at an annual charge of approximately $400.

Such acts bring down upon my head the wrath of the Oregonian and like forces whose commercial resources are thereby curtailed, and so it goes all along the line. I can give a similar reason for the active opposition at this time of every prominent politician opposed to my re-election; moreover these forces are not always careful to be either accurate or truthful in their statements.

If you approve the Columbia river Highway, the Interstate Bridge, the One-hundred miles of paved county roads, the taking of the management of the county farm out of politics and putting it under the supervision of the Oregon Agricultural College and thereby transferring an annual deficit of 45 years duration into an annual saving of over $7000; the re-organization of the business methods of the county whereby order and method prevail where formerly chaos existed; the taking of the outdoor relief work of the county out of politics and getting the unpaid and voluntary assistance of sincere and earnest men and women to help solve this most difficult of all administrative problems; the building of the new county hospital (which has been most grossly misrepresented by those opposing me politically). If you favor these things which I have either initiated or supported, and for which I am willing to be responsible, and if you favor a continuance of the care and attention which these projects and reforms have required and the fortitude and patience necessary to accomplish them, then I believe that for your own best interests as a citizen and taxpayer of Multnomah county, I can expect your support for re-election, not so much for me personally, but for the type of county government for which I stand.

I know that some of the things which I favor have been severely criticized by the Oregonian. Take the hospital, for instance, yet Dr. Mayo, than whom there is no higher authority on the subject, and those local physicians and surgeons who have interested themselves in the problem, approve it; and I am sure you will too if you will but take the trouble to learn the facts from reliable sources and not be led astray by the misstatements and prevarications of those who are fighting me personally.

There is now a great hue and cry about high taxes. While, of course, every effort must be made at all times to keep both public and private expenses to a minimum, and already public projects have been curtailed, yet most people pay less annual taxes for the support of our local government whereby they get free public schools, paved roads, police and fire protection, the maintenance of courts of justice, the regulation of the public health, the care of the indigent poor, etc., than they voluntarily pay for telephone service in their homes.

Sixteen years ago practically the entire city of San Francisco was destroyed. Since that time this great city has been almost entirely rebuilt and today it is a strong, vigorous, healthy and prosperous city; and yet for political effect only, our political critics here, in Portland, are harping upon the necessary cost of a county hospital which is absolutely vital to the decent and humane treatment of the poor, and the funds required to support our public schools.

I am for progress and reasonable development of our growing community consistent with sense and discretion under all the circumstances and with as few mistakes as possible. I hope I am constructive and not destructive, progressive and not reactionary, economical and not extravagant, optimistic and not pessimistic as to our future, and that I have a real desire and sufficient ability to competently serve the best interests of all our people.—Paid Ad.

PLATFORM

If I am nominated and elected I will during my term of office continue to be as good a commissioner for all of the people of Multnomah county as I know how to be. I will not accept dictation from any individual or from any group of individuals; but will endeavor to do whatever is needful for the public welfare at the least possible cost. Particularly do I favor administering the county so as to encourage the building of homes, the success of commercial enterprises, the humane treatment of the unfortunate, and the growth of our public schools which I believe to be of the first importance in the preservation of our government.

SLOGAN—Serving all, I obey only the People's will and my own conscience. —Paid Ad.

Multnomah County Commissioner who seeks re-election. His statement and platform will be found on this page.

FORD SALES SHOW RAPID INCREASE

Ford retail sales showed a rapid increase in volume during March, says Raker & Son in a report just received from the Ford Motor Company, Detroit, and have necessitated the building of 101,164 Ford cars and trucks in April in order to meet the requirements.

This is the largest output of Ford cars ever scheduled for April, being 10,000 above the same months of a year ago. It also marks an early opening of the spring and summer buying and seems to indicate that even more Ford cars and trucks will be sold in 1922 than in 1921, which was a banner year.

Orders for Ford cars and trucks have already exceeded the supply in many parts of the country and purchasers are finding it necessary to accept deferred delivery. The Ford Factory at Detroit is getting into capacity production as fast as possible, with the hope of preventing a similar shortage when the spring-summer rush begins.

Ford dealers throughout the United States are urging Ford customers to place their orders early and thus prevent the possibility of having to wait for delivery.

NOTICE OF TAKING UP AND SALE OF ESTRAY HORSE.

One roan horse, 10 years or older, white star in forehead, left hind foot and part of leg white. Weight about 1150 to 1200 pounds.

Said horse broke into Ed Sell's place about three miles east of Gresham April 7th, 1922, and will be sold at said place on May 16th, 1922 at 2 p. m., by Constable M. M. Squire. JOHN BROWN, Justice of the Peace.

RALPH E. WILLIAMS

The Republican National Committee consists of one member from each state in the Union and is the political organization of the party.

In June, 1921, at the Committee's first meeting after the inauguration of President W. G. Harding, every state cast its vote for Ralph E. Williams of Oregon for Vice Chairman of the Committee, recognizing by their unanimous vote his fitness and ability as a leader to fill this responsible position.

A vote for Ralph E. Williams for Republican National Committeeman will confirm the action of the 48 states in electing him Vice Chairman of the Republican National Committee, a position never before held by a Western man.

Ralph E. Williams of Oregon, as Vice Chairman of the Republican National Committee, is directly in line to become National Chairman, the highest position attainable in the Republican organization, which is not only a great honor but a big National advertisement for the state of Oregon.

Neither a National Committeeman nor the National Committee makes or executes the laws, but carries out the policies and platform of the party adopted by the delegates at each previous National convention.

Mr. Williams is senior member of the National Committee. Seniority in this committee gives one the same power as seniority in the U. S. Senate.

Vote to keep him there.
