REPUBLICANS!

Shall Oregon continue to hold the pre-eminence that is now hers?

Shall she forge ahead as a leader in the Republican party?

Answer "Yes!" Vote X 13 for Ralph E. Williams for Republican National Committeeman

In the presidential election of 1916 when there was dissension and division everywhere, Oregon was the only state west of the Missouri river to go Republican. Harmony.

Progressives and Republicans united in giving credit to this remarkable achievement of Ralph E. Williams, national committeeman since 1908.

In recognition of this and other services Ralph Williams was elected vice-chairman, the second highest honor within the power of the Republican National Committee to bestow. It is a position of influence to be reached only by years of faithful and intelligent service.

Ralph Williams is the first committeeman representative from any western state to be elected to the vice-chairmanship.

Ralph Williams is a veteran of the national organization. He stands at the head with the leaders. A new man would, of custom and necessity, stand at the foot with the followers.

Republican leaders, in Congress and out, are Ralph Williams' friends. This friendship means much to Oregon and the Northwest. Without ostentation Ralph Williams enlists the aid of these leaders for the things the Northwest needs from the National government.

THE COUNTY COMMISSIONER PROBLEM.

The county commissioner contest presents serious problems for the voters in Multnomah county. There are seven in the running, two of them are up for re-election, Holman and Hoyt. Two others in the race, Muck and Lightner, are ex-county commissioners. Mr. Muck was defeated for re-election four years ago after serving one term. The other three men out for nomination for this important office are, J. H. Rankin, Robert A. Sawyer and Dow V. Walker.

Two men are to be nominated and elected. Of the seven candidates the two highest will be the regular primary nominees.

This situation probably will mean a badly split up vote. The voter must do considerable thinking, make his choice and vote his convictions.

The office of county commissioner is one of the most important in the county. The county commissioners are the business managers for the affairs of the county. They spend our money. They decide largely what shall be done and what shall be paid for it.

It is extremely important that the board be harmonious. There are supposed to be three commissioners working together for the county's interest. Hence each should be a man of recognized business ability and personal integrity and absolute fidelity to public trust.

We have just such a man in Holman. A man four-square to the world, a man of conviction, of business ability, of unflinching fidelity, in the face of severe criticism from some who have been unable to "control" him.

Of the other candidates the Outlook strongly recommends J. H. Rankin, or Robert A. Sawyer, as capable, reliable business men of Portland who are men of their word, with reputations at stake and would work agreeably on the board.

GRESHAM PEOPLE HEAR RADIO CONCERT

A radio concert was given the public in front of the Electric building using the radio set belonging to Floyd L. Mack. Being the first concert of its kind in Gresham, it created an unusual amount of interest. Many people gathered on the street to hear the music sent out by the Oregonian and others in Portland. At intervals the sender would deliver a message to some station along the line and his words could be heard distinctly. A horn and an amplifier were used to enable the audience to hear.

The Bank of Gresham pays 5 per cent interest on time deposits.—Adv.

SENATOR THOS. F. RYAN FOR STATE TREASURER

What Others Say:

With Judge Ryan as state treasurer the people would be assured that the affairs of the office would be administered honestly and economically, that every dollar would be protected and that the disgrace put upon the state by Mr. Hoff would be wiped out. Mr. Ryan's record is absolutely clean.—Portland Telegram.

Neither investor, nor guardian of public funds, nor as economist nor as administrator has Mr. Hoff earned re-election. His opponent, Thomas F. Ryan, of Oregon City, was for eight years assistant state treasurer and his qualifications for office seem superior to those of Mr. Hoff's.—The Capital Journal, Salem.

Dear Mr. Ryan:

"The result of my investigation of the office of State Treasurer is so eminently satisfactory that I wish to express my appreciation of finding an office where such a magnitude of business is transacted, conducted in the manner you are now and have been handling the office of Treasurer of the state of Oregon for the time you have acted as deputy. No man I know of in Oregon is better fitted to fill the position of Treasurer than yourself and I believe the voters will show their faith in you by electing you to the position."—R. E. Pinney, Auditor and Adjuster of Official Bonds of State Treasurer.

Competency in the office of State Treasurer is too grave a matter to be set aside in the interests of party or class. The Oregonian believes strongly that Mr. Hoff, whatever his other attributes may be, is not sufficiently versed in business matters to be continued in his present trust and that Mr. Ryan should be nominated.—The Oregonian.

Judge Thomas F. Ryan and O. P. Hoff, present state treasurer, are the two candidates for the Republican nomination to this office, and Hoff's administration is the principal issue. Ryan is making the race on his record as assistant state treasurer under Former State Treasurer Thomas B. Kay, and a platform of constructive policies. Hoff's administration was subjected to a special grand jury investigation in the spring of 1920 resulting in the jury severely condemning his policy of purchasing bonds from Morris Brothers with state funds at stuffed premium prices. It enabled the bonding firm to realize nearly $100,000 in excess profits.—Portland Telegram.

A sum of $150,000 of state funds is on deposit with the State bank that closed its doors today. The State Bank of Portland is carrying a larger amount of state funds on deposit than any other bank in the city. The state treasurer has a son employed in this institution. Let us retire Mr. Hoff and have a thorough investigation of this important office in all matters, as well as the work connected with investments made of trust funds.—Chas. Coopey, Secretary Oregon Scenic Association.
