

Tourist Maps for Free Distribution.
Several sets of very fine tourist maps have been sent to the Outlook by the Oregon Tourist and Information Bureau for free distribution to those desiring them. The maps include those of Washington, Oregon and California, Portland with the main roads in and out of the city, the Columbia river highway, both upper and lower. Altogether this is a most useful collection of maps. They may be had by calling at the Outlook office.

Bids Wanted for Truck Service.
The Berry Growers Packing Co. would like to figure with you on hauling all or a part of their berries, cans, sugar and barrel tonnage for the current season. Phone 1871 or call at the cannery.
D. E. Towle, Manager.

GRESHAM LOCALS

R. T. Smith was seen down town for the first time today since he was taken ill last March. He is feeling much better since the warm weather has arrived.

Seven new candidates were initiated by the Gresham Rebekah lodge last Wednesday evening. They are all still alive but much wiser. A social time occupied the remainder of the evening. Refreshments were served. A number of guests were present. Mrs. Cora Evans came out from Portland accompanied by her sister-in-law Mrs. Childers of eastern Oregon. Mrs. Childers has just returned from attending grand lodge at Eugene.

The Jones Lumber company is planning a clean-up campaign. Two barrels of paint have already been purchased toward putting a new coat on all the buildings.

The family of J. M. Stransky, who has been employed by the Jones Lumber company for the past three months, has arrived from Bushnell, Nebraska. Mr. Stransky is now searching for a suitable house. The family expect to make their home here.

Little Linnville Davidson, 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Davidson, has had to have his leg in a cast since a week ago last Thursday. He was trying to climb his daddy's auto and thought he had nearly succeeded when he reached the fender but he fell off and fractured one leg from his knee to his ankle. The little sufferer has been very patient but he will be glad next Monday when the doctor removes the cast. The injury is slowly mending.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Camplan spent an afternoon last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Millikin. Mr. Camplan is known here as former owner of the vulcanizing shop next door to the Gresham Electric company. He sold the shop to G. Fudicker about a month ago. The Camplans visit to Gresham was to bid friends good-bye before starting south on a three-weeks' vacation trip.

M. M. Squire is driving a fine new Overland-4 which he purchased recently from Hessel.

Charlie Brown, who has been attending the Pacific School of Pharmacy in Portland, is at home for the summer vacation. Charlie has been carrying on his school work and at the same time doing some practical work in a drug store in Portland, which took up several hours each evening.

S. J. Bennison and son Harvey have gone to northern Idaho where they will be employed for a time estimating timber for a logging company.

Leslie St. Clair and family have moved into the Frank Heiney house on Roberts avenue and Fourth street, recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Boswell.

Mrs. Kate Church and daughter, Miss Nettie, left Monday after a week's visit with Mrs. S. J. Bennison.

Mrs. Ruby Emery Buckle has been appointed superintendent of the new Walker Maternity hospital in connection with Good Samaritan hospital in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Maxwell are rejoicing over the arrival of an 8 1/2-pound daughter, Violet Opal, on Tuesday, May 30. Mrs. F. D. Axtell is caring for the mother and baby, who are doing well.

Mrs. Chas. Jones of Warland, Montana, visited over the week-end with her sisters, Mrs. Thos. McKeeney and Mrs. S. J. Bennison.

Day Rossman and family drove to Eugene, their former home, for Decoration day.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Larsen visited on Tuesday with the family of the Rev. R. E. Myers at Woodburn.

Alfred Honey has returned for the summer to his home of Gresham Heights. He will be joined by his wife and daughter at the close of the Portland schools.

W. L. Crissey of Gladiolus Farm was a business visitor in Gresham on Wednesday of this week. He was accompanied by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Crissey. The elder Mr. Crissey is nearly 80 years of age and feeble in health. This was his first trip away from the farm in 15 months.

Mrs. A. W. Metzger and baby left on Thursday for her former home in Indiana to be gone about six weeks. During her absence her niece, Miss Bernice Beers and Miss Maude Metzger are keeping house for their uncle "Bert."

Mrs. Gertrude Schanno has returned from Moditt's hot springs in Washington.

Kenneth Roberts and H. L. St. Clair attended a meeting of Portland Lodge B. P. O. Elks on Thursday evening in the Portland auditorium, when 500 new members were formally received into the order.

The regular meeting of the city council will be held next Thursday evening, June 6.

THE ISLE OF ZORDA

ADAPTED FROM
JULES VERNE'S
"MATHIAS SANDORF"

See this escape from a prison set on the edge of a precipice. Blinding rain, thunder, lightning and a daring deed—as sensational a thrill as you ever experienced.

See the harem scenes and the Oriental dancers.

See the slave market scenes; the acme of French artistry.

See the drama, revel in its romance, be electrified by its sensations.

The Isle of Zorda is surrounded by adventure, mystery, thrills, beauty and sensations.

CEDAR AND VICTORY

Stewart Thompson has gone to Knappa, Oregon to work in a logging camp.

The six-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll McCreary died Thursday evening, June 1. His death was thought to have been caused from concussion of the brain and spinal trouble. Funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

The Victory Pig club will have an ice cream social on Saturday evening, June 3, in the Victory schoolhouse. Home made candy will also be sold. The funds are to go toward sending one or two delegates to summer school. The social will begin at 4 o'clock in the afternoon and continue all evening. There will be no program. Mrs. Alta Stafford is local club leader. The club members are Leonard Nelson and Archie Peterson of Powell Valley, Floyd Stafford, Lawrence Douthit, Harold and Lewis Dahl and Harlan Hayden.
