"SILAS MARNER"

George Eliot's Classic

"Silas Marner", a feature photoplay, will live, be remembered and admired because it follows this immortal book to the letter.

"Silas Marner" is George Eliot's classic. It is sheer drama. It depicts the surging emotions of a soul of a man, who, driven to believe gold to be his God, finds true reality in the love of an adopted child.

"Silas Marner" as a book is vital, interesting and full of climaxes.
Nothing dry here. Just one thrill of emotion after another.

If you love the best, see the best.

United States Veterans' Bureau.

For the purpose of having every ex-service man in Gresham protected by government insurance, an intensive drive to secure applications for veterans' insurance amounting to at least $50,000 will be held here June 12 to 17 inclusive, according to Kenneth L. Cooper, manager of the United States Veterans' Bureau of Portland. This amount, if secured, will help swell the state's insurance total, the goal to be striven for being $2,000,000, he stated. The campaign is limited to the Pacific Northwest District of the Veterans' Bureau and it is expected that more than $5,000,000 in War Risk Insurance will be reinstated or converted by veterans during the week beginning Jun 12.

American Legion posts throughout the entire district are planning to cooperate actively in making the drive a success. Norman W. Engle of Seattle, Northwest representative of the national organization of the Legion has sent communications to many of the posts urging them to form drive committees to help carry on the campaign. He stated that service men of Gresham may make application for the government insurance, either through the local post and the state department of the Legion, or the U. S. Veterans' Bureau in Portland.
