A recent visitor to Gresham was Miss Jane Gould of Chicago. Miss Gould was the guest of Miss Elizabeth Johnson.

The Woman's Missionary Guild of the Baptist church met last Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. J. W. Brown. Miss Edna Shoemaker, who for several years has been a missionary and teacher in Huchow, China, described her work there. In her talk she told of her methods of teaching these children from a race of people of whom we know so little. Embroidery work and painting is included in the school work there. Miss Shoemaker expects to go to her work in China the first part of August. While the missionary staff has been practically cut in two, Miss Shoemaker as been again chosen because of her splendid work there. A reception will be given in her honor before her departure.

Mrs. H. Donley spent Friday with her mother Mrs. H. M. Shaw. She will return to her home in Spokane Friday night. Mrs. Shaw, who has been ill for several days, is improving.

Several Gresham people left last Monday for Newport to attend the state G. A. R. encampment. They were Judge and Mrs. G. W. Wonacott, Mrs. C. G. Humason and Mrs. Maggie Elm. Mrs. Meegan of Portland also accompanied them. Judge and Mrs. Wonacott returned to Gresham late last night. Mrs. Humason and Mrs. Meegan returned today. Mrs. Elm stayed in Newport to visit friends and is not expected to return home until after the Fourth of July.

Members and friends of the Bethel Baptist church enjoyed a picnic Thursday at Cedarville park. There were about 62 in the party. A fine dinner was enjoyed.

A Sunday school picnic for the Zion Evangelical church was held last Sunday at Gordon creek. About 75 spent the day there. A typical picnic dinner was served at high noon. The afternoon was spent in playing games. A splendid time was enjoyed by all.

The Rev. David Q. Barry and Mrs. Barry are attending the Willamette B. Y. P. U. conference this evening at the East Side Baptist church. Dr. Thomas Villiers is the speaker of the evening.

John Schenk is at home for his vacation from Los Angeles, where he has been attending college.

David Anderson and family have returned to their home in Winthrop, Washington, after a week's visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Anderson.

Guests at the L. L. Kidder home are his brother, E. R. Kidder and two sons of Pecatonica, Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Stout of Hoff, Oregon, were in Gresham today looking after business interests. Their son, John, was one of the recent graduates from Washington high school in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Stout plan to move here in the fall to put their children in the local schools. Frances, the daughter, will be in the high and their son Mack in the grade school.

Principal R. E. Cannon of the high school and Mrs. Cannon have moved temporarily to Portland where Mr. Cannon is attending summer school. Their address is 350 Montgomery street.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Squire were given a surprise by a number of friends last night as a reminder of the 19th wedding anniversary. The guests came provided with lunch, to which Mrs. Squire added coffee, and all enjoyed a pleasant evening. Those who made up the party were Mr. and Mrs. Leon Baketel and son Francis, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Benton all of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Curry and daughter, Evelyn, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Crane.

A new supply of road maps of Oregon, Idaho and California has been received by the Outlook for free distribution to any calling for them.

Ralph Aldred and Harry Wostell returned from the University of Oregon last week by a five-day horseback trip from Eugene, Oregon. After spending the week-end at the Wostell home in Gresham they resumed their journey to Seaside. Mr. Aldred, who is a professional movie organist, concert pianist and orchestral director, is the guest of the Wostells, where he has been entertaining many Gresham music lovers. Among the musical soirees, he spent Tuesday evening at San Vista, the picturesque home of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Neubauer on the Columbia highway.

Members of the Methodist church choir and their friends enjoyed supper together Thursday evening on the banks of the Sandy river. The evening was spent in singing and playing games around the campfire.

Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Raker left Monday morning for Seaside accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Bailey and family and Mrs. Bailey's brother, James V. McCandless. The party motored down and returned by way of Tillamook. They found the weather as warm at Seaside as it is here. Mr. McCandless arrived in Gresham recently from Florence, Colorado.

Mrs. F. B. Peck, mother of Miss Norma Lee Peck, was in Gresham Thursday afternoon to witness the awarding of the cup to Gresham.
