GUARD THY TONGUE.
Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips from speaking guile. Depart from evil, and do good; seek peace, and pursue it.—Psalm 34: 13, 14.

RELIEF FOR THE LIVESTOCK BREEDER.

The war finance corporation, under the direction of Dwight F. Davis, has finally succeeded in proving its worth, and has turned early banking opposition actually into an attitude of approval. Its future work will be watched with closest interest. The two bills introduced in congress covering the orderly marketing of agricultural products and the financing of the livestock industry demonstrate a grasp of fundamentals that means much for the public whose welfare depends so much on the farmer. It is evident the financing of the livestock industry, with its turnover coming only once in two or three years in the case of breeder herds, cannot best be handled through the Federal Reserve system, and that new machinery must be set up. The antiquated system of 30, 60 and 90 day notes obviously spells destruction of the industry. The breeder is sitting continuously on a volcano. In times of tight money or at the dictum of unconscionable money lenders, he must sacrifice his young stock to meet insistent calls for loans.

We have now proposed a system of regional rediscount corporations, to be known as Federal Livestock Finance Corporations along lines similar to the Joint Stock Land Banks. Surface examination indicates the plan will give relief to the livestock breeder, and encourage rather than discourage the industry. The proposed legislation attempts to provide a means by which the best quality of livestock paper, complying with definite standards on which investors may rely, can be used as a means of raising a substantial amount of funds at reasonable rates, and upon terms which will put the 90-day bogey out of sight. Every banker and every interested citizen should give study to this legislation and back it to the limit of his influence unless something better can be brought forward. The livestock breeder has been the goat long enough.

ILL MANNERS.

The ill-mannered boy invariably becomes an ill-mannered man. An ill-mannered man is not often successful in a business which requires that he come into daily contact with the buying public.

People who spend their own money want to receive courtesy as well as the value of that money. They do not care to pay for a grouch or a grunt.

School teachers are always endeavoring to improve the manners of their pupils, but they find it a difficult task where manners are not taught in the home.

These are every day facts—not theories, or a sermon.—F. W. Barber.

More than 250 young people, interested in boys' and girls' club work enjoyed the two weeks of intensive training at the Oregon Agricultural College in June. Some of them were winners of prizes and some were sent by their local organization through money raised by entertainment and other ways.

The records of the divorce courts reveal the fact that nagging is at the bottom of many unhappy marriages. It always leads to unpleasantness and trouble.

PLEASANT HOME

The Rocky Mountain Warblers will appear at the Pleasant Home Baptist church on Wednesday evening, July 12, at 8 o'clock. The concert is free but a silver offering will be taken.

On account of the concert for Wednesday evening at the Baptist church, the meeting for Wednesday evening at the Methodist parsonage has been postponed to Friday evening, July 14. Persons 15 years of age or more who are interested in climbing Mt. Hood attend this meeting on Friday evening at 8 o'clock. It is hoped to arrange for a party to make the ascent of this famous mountain about the first of August or such other time as may be agreeable to those concerned.

Mrs. Alta M. Gentry, director of religious education of the Pleasant Home Methodist church, left Sunday evening for Salem where she will attend the School of Rural methods which is being conducted at Willamette University. She will be gone two weeks.

On account of the concert at the Baptist church Wednesday evening and also because of the absence of Mrs. Gentry, their leader, the Girl Reserve meeting has been postponed from Wednesday evening to some later date.

GRESHAM ATTORNEY PLACED IN JAIL

The case of Milo C. King which has been pending in the court for several weeks was brought to a climax last Saturday when the case was brought up in the court of Circuit Judge Gatens. The charge was for contempt of court and when he refused to pay the $50 necessary for his release he was placed in the county jail Saturday.

Jane Elizabeth King, divorced wife of Milo C. King, was granted alimony several months ago by the court but she has never received any of it. Mr. King is now far in arrears in his payments. He told Judge Gatens he did not have the money nor could he obtain it.

Mrs. King is said to be in poor health and much in need of the money. Her health has prevented her from securing employment.

Unless he pays the $50 Mr. King must remain in jail at least ten days, after which he can subscribe to the pauper's oath and win his freedom.

The Bank of Gresham pays 5 per cent interest on time deposits.—Adv.
