GRESHAM, OREGON

GRESHAM LOCALS

Mrs. H. L. St. Clair left Saturday morning on an extended trip east to visit her daughter, Mrs. Benjamin H. Davies, residing at Grey Eagle, Minnesota. Mrs. St. Clair will make several stops on her way east for the purpose of visiting her brothers and sisters and other relatives.

The painting has been completed on the John Metzger building on the corner of Powell and Main streets.

The Royal Neighbors will meet Friday evening, July 14, at the home of Mrs. C. E. Osborne.

The Gresham Theater put on a special animal show last Friday evening which everyone, especially the children, enjoyed. There were ponies, a burro, a white goat, a monkey and some dogs. Their trainer, dressed as a clown put them through many stunts.

Mrs. Archie Cornutt and her children, John, Thursey and Archie of Riddell, Oregon, are visiting relatives in Gresham. They expect to remain here for some time. The Cornutts are former residents of Gresham.

Frank Maybee of Los Angeles is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Raker. Mr. Maybee formerly lived at Dayton where he was acquainted with the Raker family.

Fred Hoss was taken seriously ill while at work last Friday. At present he is slightly improved.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Cooley left this morning for Myrtle Creek to visit their daughter, Mrs. Carl Alder and family. Mrs. Mertie Carnine and children, Cora, Arthur and Ona from eastern Oregon who have been visiting friends here, accompanied the Cooleys.

D. M. Roberts bruised one of his hands in some unknown manner and infection set in, but it is improving. Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Squires spent Saturday at the Willamette Valley Chautauqua.

Cecil Metzger has let the contract for a new modern six-room bungalow to Jake Metzger. It is now being erected on the two lots purchased last spring from Carl Shattuck on Main street beyond the Bull Run track.

A. Wilkinson is planning on building a new home near the location of the new Cecil Metzger home. Mr. Wilkinson is building the garage and expects to build the house later.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Johnson and family have just returned from Rockaway where they went on their vacation a week ago. They returned home on account of the illness of their boy. They expect to spend the remainder of their vacation on a trip south.

A. McCollough of Moberly, Missouri, is visiting his uncle, the Rev. J. H. Wood and Mrs. Wood and other relatives here.

Guests at the O. A. Eastman home over the Fourth were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Miller of Seattle, parents of Mrs. Elton Eastman and their daughter, Thelma.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Nichols and son of Silverton were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Anderson.

Misses Irma Murphy and Jennie Murray of Portland visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Kern recently.

The regular meeting of the Security Benefit association will be held Wednesday evening, July 12.

Miss Edna Shoemaker entertained a number of invited guests last Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Honey. The evening was spent on the beautiful lawn. Those present were much interested in looking at pictures and hearing Miss Shoemaker tell of her life as a missionary and teacher in China. She interrupted her story at intervals by inserting spicy anecdotes which amused her audience very much. Those present besides Miss Shoemaker and the host and hostess were Dr. and Mrs. A. Thompson, Mrs. Gunther of Portland, sister of Miss Shoemaker, Miss Gertrude Alexander, Mrs. L. S. Alexander and Mrs. M. Shoemaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Page and children, Mrs. Minnie Atkinson, Mrs. Geo. Metzger and James Lawrence took a trip to Scappoose Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Anderson visited recently with friends at Canby.

A. E. Lindsey, Mrs. Lindsey and sons, Albert and Donald and daughter Dorothy, drove down from Nampa, Idaho, early this week. They came by way of Burns and Government Camp, stopping at Welches. They are visiting relatives here for a few days.

F. N. Wirt of the Powell Valley Nursery, is attending the Nurserymen's convention in Portland this week.

Mrs. Blanche Holman and son, George, of Omaha, Neb., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jackson and family living south of Gresham. The Holmans were neighbors of the Jacksons for 10 years in Nebraska. Mrs. Holman and son will return home by way of California.

Regular meeting of Gresham Lodge No. 125, I.O.O.F. in the Odd Fellows hall, every Thursday evening. Brothers welcome. Work in initiatory degree. CLARENCE STANLEY, N. G. C. A. HILL, Secretary.

Mrs. Hazel Wonacott and daughter of Portland spent Sunday and Monday visiting Mrs. Wonacott's mother, Mrs. Lena Needham and other relatives. She attended Gresham Rebekah lodge on Monday evening.

The Queen Esther girls will hold a food sale on Saturday, July 15, at Davidson's drug store. There will be cake, pie, cookies and bread for sale, beginning at 12:30.

A Neglected Car Never Runs Smoothly and Doesn't Last

Long

Please keep these facts in mind, when your car gets out of order. Also please bear in mind that WE DO SKILLED WORK ONLY, and we want to keep your FORD in first-class condition. We want to do your work.

A skilled mechanic can cure your balky car where a tinkerer would convert it into junk. A car is much like the human body. You can not abuse it and expect it to properly perform its functions.
