PLEASANT HOME

Ohmit Brothers, formerly of Pleasant Home, have leased the Karosky garage at Rockwood. C. E. Ohmit and family have recently moved to Rockwood. I. Ohmit and his mother still reside at Pleasant Home, but they expect to move soon.

An invitation is extended to everyone in Pleasant Home to attend the all-day services next Sunday at Sandy. Services will be held in the morning at the Methodist church. All those who can are asked to bring baskets of lunch to church with them and go to Sandy as soon as the morning session is ended.

Oregon night, July 27, at the Wayfarer "America's Passion Pageant" to be given in Seattle at the University of Washington from July 24-29, inclusive.

MULTNOMAH GRANGE TO MEET SATURDAY

The regular meeting of the Multnomah Grange will be held next Saturday, July 22, at the Grange hall. Owing to the busy season, Mrs. Geo. Alder has not had time to prepare a program. She is asking that each member come prepared to contribute something to the program. If anyone has any subject which they wish discussed, they can present it at this session. The Multnomah county fair is almost here. This meeting will afford a good time to discuss booth displays for the fair.

BORING

E. V. Maulding and S. E. Waller made a business trip to Portland Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Maulding, of Sheridan, who have been visiting for the past two weeks at the home of their son, E. V. Maulding and family, left Monday evening for a short stay at the home of their daughter Mrs. Jack Shultz and family of Gresham. They then expect to leave for a visit at the home of a son, Frank Maulding and family of Washougal, Washington.

A Dodge car driven by Miss Mabel Valberg collided with a Ford truck owned by B. R. Kimbley Saturday evening in front of the new club house. The Ford truck which was not occupied at the time of the accident was quite badly damaged. The Dodge car and its driver escaped uninjured.

Walter Metzger left Saturday night for a few days' stay with his family who have been at Seaside for the past 10 days. He expects to return Tuesday. F. M. Morgan is in charge of the garage in his absence.

Contractor Moore is unloading equipment here for the highway work. The machinery is being hauled from here to Government Camp by truck.

A large and appreciative audience attended the concert at the I.O.O.F. hall Saturday night given by the Rocky Mountain Warblers.

Mr. Vonderhia, of Portland, is acting agent in the absence of Wm. Carlson, who is away on his vacation.

Lloyd Mallicoat spent Saturday on a fishing trip on Alder creek and reported excellent luck.

E. E. Addington made a business trip to Portland Monday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bozarth together with Mr. and Mrs. Woods moved to Lindberg, Washington, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Palmer entertained as guests over the week-end, Mrs. C. A. Palmer of Willamina, Oregon and Mr. and Mrs. F. Sweet of St. Johns, Oregon.

The Sunday ball game at Springdale meant another victory for Boring with a score of 7 to 16.

A joint installation was held at the I. O. O. F. hall Friday night of Boring Rebekah Lodge No. 213 and Boring I. O. O. F. Lodge No. 234. Installing officers were District Deputy Grand Master J. H. Lake and District Deputy President Margaret Wheeler. They were assisted by the following: Wm. A. Morand and Amy Morand, grand marshals; H. A. Beck and Minnie Meyers, grand wardens; Herman Johnson and Louisa Johnson, grand treasurers; James McBain, grand guardian and L. H. Mallicoat and Selma Bartell, grand chaplains. Rebekah officers installed were: N. G. Mary Potter; V. G. Valberg Hillyard; warden, Josephine Mallicoat; Conductor, Maude Brown; R. S. N. G., Minnie Meyers; L. S. N. G., Selma Bartell; R. S. V. G., Blanche Steier; L. S. V. G., Emma McBain; I. G., Mary Maulding; O. G., A. J. Gossett; chaplain, Laura Caldwell. I. O. O. F. officers installed were: N. G., Otis Rich; V. G., Emil Johnson; R. S. N. G., L. H. Mallicoat; L. S. N. G., A. J. Gossett; R. S. V. G., H. A. Beck; Conductor, John Meyers; I. G., B. R. Kimbley; O. G., W. E. Childre; R. S. S., John Hoffmeister; L. S. S., Herman Johnson; chaplain, C. E. Gossett; warden, Floyd O. Lake. A banquet was served after the installation.

There will be no services at Cottrell next Sunday, July 23 as all the members of the church and their friends are planning to spend the day at Sandy. Preaching services will be held at Sandy, Dr. A. Thompson will preach in the morning and the Rev. S. F. Pitts will preach in the afternoon. All are invited to come and bring their lunch.

CEDAR AND VICTORY

Mr. and Mrs. George Hayden and family left last Thursday for Cannon Beach where they expect to remain for a week.

The life guard, J. P. MacNeil, who was drowned on July 3 at Seaside was a relative by marriage of Mrs. George Alder. Mrs. MacNeil, the wife was Mrs. Alder's niece.

POWELL VALLEY VOTERS BOND WATER DISTRICT

Residents of the Powell Valley water district held an all-day special election last Friday for the purpose of voting on a measure to bond the district to raise sufficient funds for putting in a water system. The vote carried with 84 in favor and only three against it. The measure provides for the raising of a sum to the amount of and not to exceed $25,000.

As all those in the district are anxious to have the new water system put in, the work will be rushed as much as possible. Every obstacle has been removed and there is no reason why Powell Valley residents cannot have a splendid water system within a short time.

ROCKWOOD

About 40 neighbors and friends dropped in unexpectedly to spend the evening last Friday at the home of Dr. B. H. Pedersen and family. Dr. Pedersen has just completed his new home and the occasion was intended for a housewarming party. The guests furnished the lunch. A pleasant evening was spent.

Last Saturday afternoon the Rockwood Scouts played the Gresham Scouts at the home field. The Rockwood boys carried off the honors with a score of 27 to 11 in Rockwood's favor.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Cook and family were Mrs. Ledora Dickinson and son, Henry, and Miss Irene Dickinson, all of Portland, and Mrs. Mary Pitchford of Amboy, Washington. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dickinson came over during the afternoon and accompanied the Portland guests home for a short visit.

Mrs. Ross Lovelace, of Roseburg, visited last Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Cook and family. Mrs. Lovelace was formerly a resident of Rockwood. This is the first time she has returned for four years and has noticed many changes during her visit.

Dr. B. H. Pedersen and family, Oscar Wallin and family and Eugene Passmore and family spent Sunday down on the Sandy. A picnic dinner was served at noon and the remainder of the day was spent swimming in the river.

TROUTDALE

Mr. and Mrs. Will Wright left Saturday on their vacation accompanied by Mr. Wright's mother. They expect to go to Seaside and other coast resorts.

Miss Thelma Denpries, of Pendleton, is visiting at the Parson home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Burton, of Britton, visited over the week-end at the home of Mrs. Burton's mother, Mrs. H. E. Waite.

Bud Tiller returned home last Saturday from a trip to California.

The Troutdale baseball team played the Milwaukie Firemen's team last Sunday at Troutdale. The score was 7 to 19 in favor of the visiting team. The Bull Dogs played the Farmer Boys and won with a score 11 to 13 in favor of the Bull Dogs.

Miss Nora Burns, of Spokane, has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Margaret Burns, but returned home last Sunday.

Mrs. C. Lewis is visiting her son and family at Fields, Washington.

Mrs. Frances Fox, Mannie Fox, of Troutdale, and Mrs. Minnie Brederman of Baker, Oregon, left by auto last Thursday for California.

COTTRELL

An ice cream social is to be held under the trees at the Cottrell community church next Friday evening, July 21, at 7 o'clock. Lemonade will also be sold. A program followed by games will complete the evening. The proceeds are to go toward a fund for painting the church. Everyone is cordially invited to come.

There will be no services at Cottrell next Sunday, July 23 as all the members of the church and their friends are planning to spend the day at Sandy. Preaching services will be held at Sandy, Dr. A. Thompson will preach in the morning and the Rev. S. F. Pitts will preach in the afternoon. All are invited to come and bring their lunch.
