OFFICERS INSTALLED IN GRESHAM MASONIC LODGE

Frank Patterson, most excellent grand high priest of the grand chapter of Royal Arch Masons of the state of Oregon and his staff of grand lodge officers were in Gresham last Tuesday night and constituted and installed the officers of the Gresham chapter No. 44. After the installation, a splendid banquet was served during which time good talks on the welfare of the chapter and its officers were made by the most excellent grand high priest who is also an old friend and companion of Geo. W. Stapleton.

Among the guests of the evening were companions from McMinnville and Oregon City. They all expressed themselves as having enjoyed the evening. The smiles on their faces as they departed were good evidences that they really had.

The officers installed on that evening were:

W. H. Congdon, most excellent high priest; J. C. Schulz, king; Geo. W. Page, scribe; A. W. Botkin, treasurer; W. A. Johnson, captain of the host; Harry Pulfer, sojourner; W. K. Hamilton, Royal Arch captain; U. G. Smith, master of the first vail; A. J. W. Brown, master of the second vail; George Honey, master of the third vail; James Elkington, secretary; W. H. Rutherford, sentinel.

D. S. Johnson has sold three lots in Whitehead addition to Louis Racine of Latourell. Mr. Racine expects to build on them in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Wood, of Pleasant Home, were Gresham visitors today. Mrs. Wood is regaining her strength following the serious illness which she had this winter and spring.

GRESHAM LOCALS

All members of the Ladies' Baptist Guild are asked to meet Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fietta Hibbert, across the street from the Gresham library. The meeting is called for 2 o'clock sharp. Plans for having a Baptist cafeteria on the fair grounds, during the fair, will be discussed. After the discussion, the meeting will adjourn to the fair grounds in order to find out definitely just what needs to be done. The fair is only a little over a week away so all arrangements must be made immediately.

T. W. Wixson of the 20th Century store and Mrs. Wixson left this morning for Rockaway beach. Mr. Wixson will return to the store in a few days but Mrs. Wixson expects to stay for a week.

Mrs. A. Hisey returned Tuesday evening from Falls City. The Rev. A. Hisey remained for the Epworth League institute which is now in session there.

Mrs. Adelaide Beers has been visiting relatives in Gresham recently.

The Rev. D. Q. Barry expects to return Saturday from Columbia City to spend Sunday here.

Mrs. A. E. Malo left Sunday evening for Seaside accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Rosabelle Drennen and her niece, Miss Edmer Ellis, both of Portland. They will be gone a week. Mr. Malo has an interest in the Zweibel Manufacturing company and is employed at the plant. He and his family reside in Gresham. A brother-in-law, John C. Ellis and son Johnnie, are stopping with Mr. Malo during his wife's absence.

H. L. McClure, wife and daughter, W. L. McClure and wife, of Oakesdale, Washington, Glen A. McClure of Indianapolis, Indiana, T. N. McClure and family of Lamond, Washington, who are touring Washington and Oregon, stopped in Gresham on Wednesday night, leaving early the next morning for Portland.

Mrs. Geo. Rank of Gresham, and Mrs. Oliver of Miles City, Montana, were callers on Miss Emma B. Johnson yesterday.

"A record attendance" is the report from the Epworth League camp at Falls City this year, which is being attended by Rev. and Mrs. A. S. Hisey and daughter Helen, Rev. E. B. Cotton and a number of young people from Gresham, Pleasant Home and Fairview. There are a dozen or fifteen in the local party. The total attendance is running between three and four hundred according to the daily papers. The institute will close Monday, July 31.

The ladies of the Bethel Baptist church will have charge of the main cafeteria on the fair grounds this year and ask the support of city to help to make their undertaking a success. They will also have charge of the same stand they had last year.

A pleasant surprise was given Mrs. S. S. Thompson last Monday evening, July 24, when about 12 of her lady friends arrived at the Thompson home to spend the evening. The occasion was to celebrate her 62d birthday. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. W. H. Crary and daughter Nan of eastern Oregon spent Friday with N. J. Auclair and family.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. W. Brown and daughter, Miss Doris, returned Monday from Vancouver, B. C., after having been gone a week. The Browns were the guests of Mrs. Jno. Brooks of Portland on the tour which included 400 members of the Northwest Real Estate convention. About 60 of the party were from Portland. The party went by train to Seattle and took the boat from there to Vancouver. They had an enjoyable trip and saw some wonderful scenery. Portland carried off the cup awarded for the best five-minute talk on their home town.

Bert Hoss has returned to his work at A. W. Metzger & Co.'s after a two weeks' vacation.

Mrs. J. E. Schneider and children arrived from Seattle Thursday. They came by auto and will drive to San Francisco where they will join Mr. Schneider and will make their home in that city. Mrs. Schneider is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Morrison.

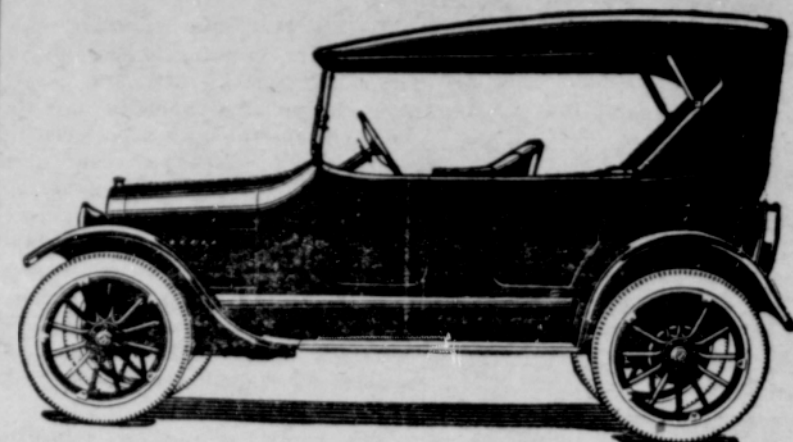

Mrs. W. J. McLaughlin, of Garden Home, visited Mrs. J. H. Hoss last Sunday.

PORTLAND MAN WILL PREACH AT M. E. CHURCH

Preaching services will be held next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at the Methodist church. A Portland man will occupy the pulpit. The Rev. A. S. Hisey is at Falls City attending the Epworth League convention and will be away over Sunday.

The Epworth League convention this year is one of the most successful ever held. There were 275 enrollments on the first day of the convention from the Salem and Portland districts. The convention is being held this year on the new grounds. Permanent buildings are just being completed and one in use this year.

Why Not Pay a Little More and Get a Car:

THAT has a standard three speed transmission. A baked enamel body that will not check or crack. One man top with attractive gypsy curtains. Two good lined brakes on rear axle (hand emergency). Water pump cooling system with honey comb radiator. Standard Remy Ignition with water proof coil and timer that will not wear out.

High grade rear axle assembly with spiral gears and New De-pature ball bearings—quiet and strong.

That uses approximately 30% less gasoline and 100% less lubricating oil.

That has a rigid steering gear making driving safe.

Four doors and slanting adjustable windshield.

Superior gear oil pump lubrication with pressure oil gauge.

Motor, that will not have to be rebored in less than 50,000 to 150,000 miles.

Willard Threaded Rubber battery (highest grade battery made).

Large king bolts with grease cup lubrication.

Solid running boards covered with linoleum.

That is fully equipped, nicely finished, substantially built with "nothing to buy but the license."
