

A catfish woman leads her husband a dogs' life.

The biggest liars, like the biggest fish, usually get away.

The man who boasts of his Americanism and then preaches intolerance, is not any more of an American than the pro-German during the war who also said they were Americans.

A shade that resists strain

Shades made of Brenlin, easily resist such strain as this.

Ordinary shades of coarse muslin are filled with chalk and clay.

Brenlin
the long-wearing window shade material contains no filling. Wears three times as long, without a crack or pinhole.

Come in and see the many beautiful colors of Brenlin window shades.

Salmon in Ramekins.
Melt 3 tablespoons butter, add 3 tablespoons flour and pour on gradually 1 cup of milk. To this add one pound can pink or chum salmon, having previously removed the bones and skin and flake it fine, also one can peas, 1/4 teaspoon salt and 1/2 teaspoon celery salt. Fill ramekins and cover with butter crumbs. Bake till light brown. This can also be made without the peas, and will serve six people.

GRESHAM LOCALS

Sunday School at the Free Methodist church next Sunday will be at 10 a. m. Preaching by the Rev. M. V. Whetzel will be at 11. The Rev. Mr. Whetzel is occupying the pulpit in the absence of the regular pastor, the Rev. E. D. Blackman, who is attending the camp meeting at Newport. There will be no evening services next Sunday.

There will be no services at the Zion Evangelical church next Sunday as the pastor is away on a short vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Cannon have moved into the Timmerman house next door to the Outlook office which they purchased recently. Remodeling of the building has already been commenced.

Guy Jones has reopened his jewelry store and is again taking orders for watch repairing.

Mrs. C. A. Hill was brought home from the hospital last Wednesday.

Word has been received of a baby girl, which was born to Mr. and Mrs. C. Bennett on August 11. She has been named Betty Duke. Mr. and Mrs. Bennett were formerly residents of Gresham but moved to Lents recently.

Mr. and Mrs. John Herman and daughter and John McKenzie of Long Beach, California, left this morning on their return trip to California after visiting here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Anderson. While out here they visited old Dakota friends in Oregon and Washington.

The Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Woods went to Pleasant Home Thursday to spend a few days visiting at the home of D. T. Williams.

The Queen Esther Circle will meet Monday evening, August 21, at eight o'clock at the home of Miss Vida Cemer. This meeting is important and it is desired that all members and prospective members be present.

W. F. Albertson of Portland was the guest on Wednesday of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Clananah.

L. P. Manning returned last Sunday from Zig Zag mountain where he went as a guest of Wm. Williams, an old schoolmate. The men left Gresham Thursday of last week on a fishing and huckleberry trip but as it rained all the time they were gone, they camped in a rangers cabin and caught four little fish and did not get any huckleberries. Mr. and Mrs. Williams were guests at the Manning home during fair week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Collins and family were visitors last week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Clark who now own the Collins home. Miss Opal Collins spent fair week visiting in Gresham as the guest of Miss Helen Maxwell. Mr. Clark is home from eastern Oregon but expects to return the latter part of this week.

NEW STATION, GRAVEL ASKED FOR IN PETITION

The following petitions are being circulated in Gresham and vicinity and are worthy of the support of everyone. The first petition is to have the strip of road graveled between Palmbad station and Kunitake's West Spur which is practically impassable in winter. The second petition is for the establishment of a stop-on-signal station between Palmbad and Anderson stations. The main purpose of the petition is to secure a means of having the car stop in that vicinity and make it possible for people living in that district to get on at this point instead of having to walk to a neighboring station. This is also worthy of everyone's support.

J. W. Perry, who lives near Anderson station took both petitions and appeared before the county commissioners and the railroad officials before presenting them to the people. In each case he secured a favorable audience and was advised to circulate the petitions. In due justice to Mr. Perry's efforts, it has been suggested that the new station be named Perry station. Following are the petitions:

To the Board of County Commissioners of Multnomah County.

We, the undersigned citizens of Multnomah and Clackamas counties in the state of Oregon being interested in the roads of Multnomah county and especially in the condition of the road between Palmbad station on the Estacada division of the P. R. L. & P. company line and a point on the same line known as Kunitake's West Spur, do hereby petition the Board of County Commissioners to gravel said county road between said points with a strip of gravel seven feet in width, and of sufficient thickness to make the road passable during the winter season, and urge that same be done before October 1st next.

We, the undersigned, citizens of Multnomah and Clackamas counties, and patrons of the P. R. L. & P. Co., respectfully petition the Portland Railway Light & Power company to provide for a stop-on-signal station at a point known as Kunitake's West Spur on the Estacada division of the P. R. L. & P. company's line, located between Palmbad station and Anderson station, and urge that same be provided for before October 1st, 1922.

OUTLOOK REGISTRATION BOOK HAS MANY NAMES

The usual custom which the Outlook has followed for several years of having a registration book in the Outlook booth at the fair was again adopted this year. While not as many names were placed in the book as would have been had there been some one in the booth to call people's attention to registering, nevertheless some interesting information was secured through the names registered.

The addresses of signers included the names of several nations. William Buckley gave his address as Sydney, Australia. From this information it can be said nations from the ends of the earth were represented at the fair. Armstrong, British Columbia and Prince Rupert were the addresses of two signers found at different parts of the book. The first must have been in a humorous frame of mind when she signed her name as she added "I like Portland, but oh, you Canada." Fort Worth, Texas, Ontario, California, Chicago, Illinois, Tacoma, Washington, and Risley, Oregon, were represented besides Boring, Portland and Gresham folk.

PEOPLE WHO LOST HOME ARE THANKFUL FOR HELP

The Gresham Outlook has been asked by Mrs. A. H. Brannan and Miss A. M. Brannan, the owners of the house that was struck by lightning Monday evening and burned, to thank the Gresham fire department and neighbors who so kindly helped during the fire. They feel that too much cannot be said of the splendid way in which all helped carry out the furniture in an effort to save as much as possible.

CUCUMBER BOATS NIFTY; OTHER WAYS TO SERVE

To make a cucumber boat pare the cucumbers and slit lengthwise. Hollow out each half and refill it with a salad mixture of equal parts of diced cucumbers, celery and tomato, with mayonaisse dressing. From white letter paper cut a small sail and insert it in a skewer or any small piece of clean wood. Put the sail in the center of the boat.

So many cucumbers are now growing on the vine that the O. A. C. farm news man asked the home economic specialists to tell him how to tell the editors how to tell their readers how to make present and future use of them. The foregoing and following were among the many ways suggested:

Have ready a perfectly clean jar, crock or keg. Use only good firm cucumbers, not too large and cut them from the vine with a pair of scissors leaving about half inch stem on each. Never put on vine and always handle them so carefully as not to bruise them. Wash clean and wipe dry. Put a two or three-layer of coarse salt in the bottom of the keg, then a layer of closely packed cucumbers, cover with salt and proceed in this way until all the cucumbers are used, stopping off with a layer of salt, and over that layer of freshly picked grape leaves.

Use plenty of salt. Pour in cold hard water to cover. Put a clean white cloth over the top, tucking in the edges snugly down the sides, then put in an inverted plate or a hardwood board to fit and weight it down with a large clean stone, to keep the cucumbers well under the brine.

Cover the keg and set in a cool place. Cucumbers may be added from time to time as they are gathered, with more salt until the crock is full. Be careful always to keep the cucumbers well under the brine and if there should be too much brine throw some of it away.

When removing cloth, plate and stone, do so carefully and if any scum has gathered wash thoroughly before returning to the crock. When the pickles are wanted for table use, take out enough to last about one week, freshen them in clear cold water baths until they are plump and just right to the taste, changing the water frequently and tasting a pickle occasionally to see if it is too salty.

The pickles are then ready to be put in cold vinegar with any preferred spices and in about 10 hours or less they will be ready for use. A small bunch of dill put in the vinegar imparts a delightful flavor. Cover the jar and set in a cool place. —O. A. C. Experiment Station.

German Issues Note of Cheer.
The report last month that a printers' strike was in progress in Berlin was the signal for much sarcastic comment on the part of paragraphs. The New York Tribune commented as follows: "Our next ray of Sunshine comes from Berlin, where the printers have struck and the billions have ceased to flow. In the last week in June, the increase in paper currency was just 11,250,000,000 marks. This is as far ahead of anything that the wildest greenback prophet ever dreamed of as these times excel the Dark Ages. The situation is such as would please the most fertile brained cartoonist, but it has actually happened. The Germans, who are an active and laborious people, now depend on the printing press to turn off morning and afternoon editions of the national wealth and no doubt call some times for extras. 'Making money' is the literal word for what is taking place in Berlin and when their secretary of the treasury needs a few billions, he doesn't go through the tiresome formalities of the old regime. He simply writes what he wants, marks the stuff 'Proofs to the Reichsbank at 11 o'clock sharp,' sends it up the tube and in a short time Germany has some more billions ready. The French, who have less sense of humor than the Germans, do not like this at all, for they pretend that it is simply a game on Germany's part. It is strange that an art-loving people like the French do not recognize the admirable work in these German banknotes, but then to be really humorous requires a philosophic sense."—Robt. E. Smith, president Lumberman's Bank, Portland.
