Miss Shoemaker Writes From the Mission Fields.

A letter has been received from Miss Edna Shoemaker recently by Mrs. Ethel Miller. The letter is dated August 27 and was sent from Shanghai, China. Miss Shoemaker tells how busy she is these days in the foreign field. The letter follows:

"A greeting to you from China shores. We arrived yesterday and I have been busy every minute since, seeing old friends and meeting groups of students. It is fine to be in old China again. Tomorrow I will start for Mokansen the nearest summer resort to spend a week, meeting with the friends of our mission and get in touch with what is going on."

Ignition Expert.
$25 will be given to him who proves that I can not find the deficiency of his machine on starting, lighting and ignition. Main street Garage. Phone Gresham 1228.

GRESHAM LOCALS

Miss Clara Sales, of Fairview, Mrs. Yokel, and Walter Staffenson have purchased Overland cars recently from Will Hessel. Miss Sales and Mr. Staffenson each owned Overland cars and drove them for three years and have now purchased new ones. The price of Overlands has dropped $29. The price on the Willys-Knight has dropped $145.

John Brown joined a party of friends from Newberg on a hunting trip last week. He left Gresham on Thursday of last week and joined Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Mewhirter and daughter of Newberg and his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Mewhirter and daughter who are from Iowa and visiting in Oregon. The Mewhirters are cousins of J. N. Mewhirter of Gresham. The party camped at a new beach known as Nesckwin beach and which is in the southern part of Tillamook county. Mr. Brown returned home Monday evening without any deer.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Cooley are Mrs. Cooley's cousin, Mrs. Quin McClure and daughter, Marian from Livingston, Montana, and Mr. Cooley's brother, John Cooley from California. Mr. and Mrs. McClure and family were former residents of Gresham and still own a farm near the Benson Farm which they expect to occupy next year. Miss McClure expects to leave soon for Monmouth where she will attend normal this fall. Mrs. McClure's brother, Walter Hoffman, wife and son Ellsworth, were dinner guests at the Cooley home Sunday.

The Gresham Rebekah lodge will meet Monday evening, September 25. The anniversary of the organization of the lodge will be celebrated with a program.

George Metzger is not teaching school this year. Having taught 32 years, he feels he is entitled to a rest.

M. B. Splawn, his mother and his sister, Miss Helen Splawn, motored to Monmouth last Sunday morning to attend church. They heard H. E. Russell who held meetings at Corbett several successive years and is known to many in this vicinity. On their return they visited Miss Elsie Roland at the state tubercular hospital near Salem. Mr. Splawn has recently returned from Cherryville where he worked for three months on the Mt. Hood Loop road.

Mrs. W. E. Beegle and Mrs. P. A. Gould have returned from a 10-day visit at Rockaway with W. R. Gould and family. They reported a most delightful outing.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Heyne are the parents of a 7½-pound boy, born last night.

Mrs. Wm. S. Graves, of San Francisco, is visiting with her mother, Mrs. S. E. Sease and her sister, Mrs. I. S. Korsund.

Mrs. J. D. Taylor left last week for Omaha for a visit with relatives.

The Outlook Publishing company has come into possession of a 1920 Willys-Knight touring car in payment of an old printing account. The Overland-4 belonging to the company has been sold to Floyd Mack. The two transactions were consummated early this week.

William Thom and family attended the annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal church at Vancouver, Washington, last Sunday. They heard the ordination address which was given by Dr. Charles Vermilya of San Francisco formerly of North Dakota and met other former pastors of that state.

Students from here who registered at Willamette University early this week were the Misses Winifred St. Clair, Eva Tacheron, Caroline Tallman, Violet Coe and Marjorie Lyman and Curie Hisey.

Gordon J. Taylor, of Mollala, lecturer, entertainer, writer and real estate man, was a Gresham visitor today.

Delegates of the local W. C. T. U. who attended the county convention held this week in the Methodist Episcopal church South, Portland, were Mrs. B. L. Walrad, Mrs. Mary Shoemaker, Mrs. H. S. Clow, Mrs. W. F. Honey, Mrs. Geo. F. Honey and Mrs. J. N. Clanchan. One of the most interesting features of the convention was said to be the address of a Japanese woman who is attending the Episcopal convention. She reported 900 members of the W. C. T. U. in Japan and said that her own little town boasted 1200 members. She will attend the world convention of the W. C. T. U. in Philadelphia.

The Ladies' Aid society will meet next Wednesday with Mrs. C. J. Lundquist. The hostess will be assisted by Mrs. A. Hammar and Mrs. S. C. Jones. Efforts are being made to bring out a full attendance of members at this meeting.

The Auxiliary to the American Legion will meet Tuesday evening, September 26, at the home of Mrs. John Metzger at 8 o'clock.

A surprise party was given H. C. Larson Thursday evening when a number of friends dropped in to spend the evening. The occasion was in honor of Mr. Larson's birthday.

Mrs. Ethel Miller left today for Monmouth to take charge of the Rick-reall teachers training school which has recently been taken over by the government. The school commences Monday. Miss Anna Brugger is acting as clerk at Bishops for a few days.
