GRESHAM LOCALS

The Progressive Citizens association will hold its regular meeting next Monday evening, October 2.

Miss Winnifred Gaborn returned to work Wednesday after a vacation of two weeks which she spent visiting her sister, Mrs. J. W. Curties at her home at The Dalles.

The Baptist church in Gresham has been offered a donation by the Dwight Edwards Coffee company on every pound of Dependable Brand coffee sold in Gresham and the surrounding country stores. An appeal is made by the church to all users of coffee to buy this brand of coffee and in this way aid a good cause. The proceeds will go toward building the new Baptist church.

Mrs. H. C. Larson attended a meeting this afternoon of the wives and daughters of the employees of the P. R. L. & P. company at the Labor Temple. While the purpose of the meeting is not yet known it is thought it was for the purpose of forming a ladies' organization.

Mrs. Helen C. Ives of Pecatonica, Illinois, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. I. Kidder. While in Gresham she also visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Miller and family. Mrs. Ives spent the past year visiting in Honolulu and stopped off here on her way home.

The Queen Esther circle is planning to hold a costume party next Monday evening, October 2, at the home of Mrs. Burt Northrup which is across the street from the pickle factory. This is the regular meeting night of the circle.

Mrs. John Fox is in a Portland hospital where she recently underwent serious major operations. She is reported to be recovering satisfactorily.

Edna, the 6-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Marston, who was taken to a Portland hospital three weeks ago for treatment for typhoid fever, is much improved.

Among the Gresham visitors to the state fair on Wednesday were Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Brugger, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie St. Clair, Mrs. H. M. Shaw, the Misses Letitia Pulfer and Martha Hagerberg, Orville Zimmerman and Leslie Walrad.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Yager and family have moved into Dr. A. Thompson's house on Kenney street.

The Missionary society of the Free Methodist church will meet next Tuesday afternoon, October 3, at the church parsonage at 1:30. The ladies will quilt for the W. C. T. U. children's home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Strong and children have returned from a two-weeks' stay at Seaside. They report the weather delightful and conditions favorable for an ideal vacation. Mr. Strong is now a member of the choir of the First Methodist Episcopal church in Portland.

Edward Strong left today for California to resume his studies in Leland University.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Anderson, Mrs. Elton Eastman and Miss Gertrude Eastman are visiting the state fair today.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Kern went to Salem Sunday to enter articles in the state fair. They returned Tuesday by way of Mt. Angel, where they visited with their son, W. R. Kern and family.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Beal of Ola, Idaho, and the latter's niece, Miss Frances Holbrook, were in Gresham today enroute to their home. They have been on a trip to Lebanon and were in an automobile accident caused by the skidding and overturning of their car. They were unhurt but Mrs. La Rue of Woodland, Washington, a member of their party was severely bruised.

Visitors at the Al. Wheeler, L. Perry, Lon and Steve Marston homes this week were S. M. Eby of Vancouver, Washington, Mrs. Otto Taylor and nephew of Portland.

VETERINARY WILL BUILD OFFICE

Dr. H. C. Johnson, a veterinarian of several years experience, has leased building space on Powell street from John Metzger and will begin at once the erection of a building to be used by him as an office. Dr. Johnson was unable to find a vacant room in Gresham suitable for his purpose and has taken this means of meeting the situation. He expects to be able to occupy his office the latter part of next week. A telephone will be installed.

Announcement of Services at Free Methodist Church.

The regular services will be held at the Free Methodist church next Sunday beginning with Sunday school at 10 a. m. and preaching by the Rev. E. Blackman at 11. He will be assisted by Mrs. Blackman.

EVANGELICAL CHURCH SERVICES ANNOUNCED

The Sunday school of the Zion Evangelical church held its annual business session last Sunday. Reports for the past year were very encouraging. It was voted to give the birthday money for the year to the Near East Relief work. Officers were elected and classes re-arranged. The exercises for promoted pupils and the installation of the newly elected officers are to take place Sunday morning.

Sunday school meets at 10 a. m. Each class will start out on its trip to Palestine in the membership contest for the months of October and November.

Church service in the English language will be at 11 a. m.

In the evening at 7:30 o'clock Mr. Bloom, who has been in Palestine twice, will give an illustrated lecture on the country under the auspices of the Young People's League.

Non-church members are most cordially invited to worship with us.

MRS. KITZMILLER HAS SERIOUS INJURY

Mrs. S. R. Kitzmiller received painful injuries and was rendered unconscious in an accident which occurred at her place yesterday afternoon. She was assisting in the moving of a poultry building by holding down a long pole which was being used as a pry. It suddenly slipped and struck her on the head, cutting a long gash and rendering her unconscious. Medical aid was quickly summoned and she was made as comfortable as possible. Today she is reported to be suffering much pain from the cut and the shock but her complete recovery is expected.
