DALE ALTMAN NOT A CLUB BOY THIS YEAR

An article appeared on the front page of the last issue of the Gresham Outlook under the heading of "Nation Builders in the Making" and was accompanied by a picture of three boys and their calves. The article was written by some one representing the Pacific International Livestock Exposition who evidently was not in very close touch with Oregon. The club record for Dale Altman was a record won last year. Dale is not a member of the calf club this year. The picture was also taken last year. All of the information given is correct for the record won last year with the exception of the prize won at the state fair. He won fifth place instead of fourth as was stated. The information was sent to the Outlook for the purpose of advertising the Livestock Exposition and was used thinking the story to be entirely correct.
