GRESHAM LOCALS

The Outlook acknowledges with thanks the many kindly comments on the Builders Edition of last Friday. They have come from many sources and inspire the belief that the readers notice and appreciate our efforts.
Mrs. L. T. Lusted left Sunday morning for Newberg to visit her niece, Mrs. F. C. Clark, who is also a daughter of Emmett Kelley. Mrs. Lusted rode down with B. S. Clark of Gresham who was on his way to McMinnville to join his wife. Mrs. B. S. Clark has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Collins in McMinnville since last Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Clark returned home Tuesday and brought Mrs. Lusted with them.
Mrs. C. E. Rusher has been quite ill but is feeling better at the present writing.

Wm. Jocelyn of the Loop Highway farm took a load to the livestock show this morning and stopped at the Outlook office long enough to exhibit to a number of persons his big 2-year-old Poland China hog. The animal is estimated to weigh 750 pounds. Mr. Jocelyn also had on his load a Jersey Black Giant rooster as big as a turkey and a pen of three-months-old chickens of the same breed, large and well developed.
Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cone and son Raymond visited on Monday of this week with Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Thompson, on their return from a trip by automobile from California. They have gone to their home at Lone Rock. Raymond will return to take up work in Portland.
Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Ford and baby arrived Monday from Wilmer, Minnesota. The trip took them four days and four nights, on account of severe snow storms in North Dakota and Montana. The green of the Pacific slope was a welcome sight to them after their experience. Mrs. Ford has been for some time in Minnesota, where her baby was born. The youngster is said to already showing a great interest in shooting. Mr. and Mrs. Ford make their home at the Portland Gun club near Jenne station.
Frank Moore is building a new four-room house on his farm on the Section Line road.
The Woman's Home Missionary society will meet Wednesday afternoon, November 8, at the home of Mrs. C. M.

Zimmerman. The hostess will be assisted by Mrs. O. A. Eastman, Mrs. O. A. Johnson and Mrs. J. H. Hoss. Mrs. A. W. Shipley will be the leader. All ladies are cordially invited.
The regular meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union will be held at the home of Mrs. J. G. Metzger near the grade school building on Thursday afternoon, November 9, at 2:30.
The social which the Queen Esther circle has planned has been postponed and will be discussed at the regular meeting of the circle on Monday evening, November 6, at the home of Miss Georgia Stapleton. It is most necessary that all members be present as the election of officers will take place at that meeting.
E. Baumann has returned from Shipherd's springs where he went for treatment for rheumatism.
Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Pulfer and family have moved into their new home on Ava avenue in Kirkland addition. Mrs. Pulfer is just recovering from a severely sprained ankle.
Mrs. John Lovegren has been very ill but is improving.
Mrs. Dennis Taylor returned to Gresham last Monday from Omaha, Nebraska, where she has spent the past month visiting relatives and friends.
There will be no more geese in eastern Oregon after this week—Frank Jones and Floyd Mack have gone there on a hunting trip.
A Mr. Hicks, of Portland, will be present Saturday night at the Gresham Picture Theater and between pictures will explain the Compulsory Education bill. This is something many will welcome and all who are interested are urged to attend.
Rev. Chas. MacCaughy, pastor of Centenary-Wilbur M. E. church at East Ninth and Pine, Portland, has announced a "Greater Oregon" service at his church next Sunday evening at 7:30. He announces that Mayor Geo. Baker will give the address.
Mayor K. A. Miller has received a complimentary pass and an urgent invitation to be present on Mayor's day, Monday, November 6, at the Pacific International Livestock Exposition. The exposition will be the big attraction all next week.
The fact that Hallowe'en is over for this year is shown by the window washing campaign that has been going on in Gresham during the past few days. The windows of the business houses were especially well marked up but the soap came off easily. One of the worst pranks committed this year occurred over on South Roberts avenue. Some of the larger boys pushed a wagon filled with sand and owned by J. H. Hoss into the gulch. It was necessary to empty out the sand before it could be raised. Many porches were piled high with various articles from ice cream freezers to ladders.
Miss Mayme Hoss has resigned her position at A. W. Metzger's store, where she has been bookkeeper for the past ten years.
Misses Virginia Currin and Anna Brugger were hostesses at a Hallowe'en party last Tuesday evening given at the home of Miss Brugger. About 20 young people were present. The guests were greeted at the basement door and were admitted to a dark interior through which ghosts, goblins and witches were passing. The house was prettily decorated in the Hallowe'en colors. An enjoyable evening was spent.
The Epworth League of the Methodist church gave a Hallowe'en party Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Zimmerman. The rooms were decorated with corn stalks, autumn leaves, pumpkins and jack-o'-lanterns. Much credit should be given to the committee in charge for the splendid success of the party. A large program of games and stunts was arranged before hand and excellently carried out. There were about 50 young people present.
Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Manning drove to Russell street last Sunday morning in their machine and picked up J. V. Wilson and his sister, Miss Mary Wilson and went on to Beaverton, Oregon, to spend the day with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Williamson. The two Wilsons, Mr. Williamson and Mr. Manning were old schoolmates. They went to school together last in the little school on the hill 53 years ago in Oakland, California. W. H. Williamson has just bought a new home recently built in Beaverton. Miss Wilson is a teacher in the Jefferson high school in Portland during the day and in the Girls' Polytechnic school evenings.
A friend has kindly donated to the Bethel Baptist church the use of a fine piano for the winter. It came as a complete surprise and will be greatly appreciated in connection with the Sunday evening concerts.

Your Productive Days Cannot Last

When the wild geese sweep down from Canada through the gray sky of our November—when the rabbit hops through the rustling corn rows that are crisp with the early morning frost—when the squirrel scampers through the mass of dead leaves in the forest—
Doesn't it all impress you with the imminence of winter—with the thought of how much better you might have been prepared to face it?
Don't let the winter of life catch you unawares! The summer is long and pleasant and thoughts of old age are hazy, but your productive days cannot last forever.
The winter of life will have just as many joys and pleasures for you as did the summer if you build an account in this bank.

Baked Salmon.
With a fork break apart one can of chum salmon. Mix with two heaping cups of hot mashed, seasoned potatoes. Break in and mix all together 1 egg. Form into little balls and fry brown or make into a loaf and bake in well greased bread tin ½ hour or until nicely browned. Use ¼ cup of milk in mixing as that will help it to brown.
