

GRESHAM LOCALS

D. S. Johnson has completed a neat bungalow of four rooms and bath, located in Lawrence addition on Lawrence avenue, two blocks east of South Roberts avenue. The building is of hollow tile construction and is well finished and modern throughout. Mr. Johnson has done much of the work himself and has taken pains to have everything first class. The house is about ready for occupancy and Mr. Johnson is looking for a buyer. It is a corner location and occupies two lots.

Dr. Kate Cleverdon, of Centralia, visited over the week-end with the two Honey families. Geo. Honey is now able to be out again after a severe attack of lumbago which has lasted over a month.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Church have rented their home on the Powell Valley road and moved to Onalaska, Washington, where they expect to spend the winter. Mr. Church secured work in the mill there and left last Sunday and Mrs. Church went to Onalaska this morning. They will live with their daughter, Mrs. John Smith and family, while in Onalaska.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Carothers went to Portland Sunday afternoon to attend the funeral of the husband of Mr. Carother's cousin, Charlie Wilson. He leaves a wife and two sons. Mrs. Wilson is known to Gresham people as the daughter of Mrs. Melinda Carothers.

Miss Agnes Imlah, a sister of Mrs. J. L. Stafford, underwent a major operation Monday at Good Samaritan hospital. Miss Imlah is in training at the hospital.

Guests at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Wood over the week-end was the niece of Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Wm. Sahiman and daughter Shirley, from Seattle, Washington. The Rev. Wood had charge of the christening services at his home Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Sahiman's 16-months-old daughter was christened Shirley Irene. Others present at the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Wood and Mrs. Alta Gentry and son, Russell.

John Hamlin, John Imlah, John Lovgren and Mrs. John L. Stafford made a fishing trip to Cloverdale Saturday. They spent the week-end with Mrs. Stafford's father, A. A. Imlah.

Mrs. R. T. Smith has gone to Arleta to visit her son, Arthur and family. Mrs. Smith was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Jas. Shepherd and little son.

A baby girl weighing 7 1/2 pounds was born on November 10 to Mr. and Mrs. George McDonald of Gresham at the home of Mrs. Carrie Powell. Mother and baby are doing well.

The Gresham Parent-Teacher circle will meet at the grade school on Monday evening, November 20.

Dinner guests at the J. W. Hendricks home on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Morgan, Mrs. H. Morgan and daughter of Estacada, Mr. and Mrs. "Bud" Williams of Gresham, Robert McCann of Marshfield, Mr. and Mrs. George Smith and son of Portland.

Mrs. Laura Barnes of Portland and her daughter, Mrs. Ellen Douglass of Pittsburg, California, were in Gresham today for a visit with the former's daughter, Mrs. Della Browning.

Jack Collins of McMinnville was a caller yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Clark.

The condition of Mrs. H. M. Shaw, whose illness was noted in the last Outlook, remains about the same. Although her condition is considered serious, hopes of her recovery are held out. On Monday, summoned by their mother's illness, all her children were together, the first time in 18 years. This was her 70th birthday. Lee Shaw of Wasco returned home on Monday evening, as did Grant of Portland and George of Fairview, and her son-in-law, H. Donley of Spokane. Mrs. Donley remained to assist in the care of her mother.

Wm. H. Averill has resigned his position as agriculture teacher at Union High school in Gresham. Mr. Moreland from the Oregon Agricultural College has been hired to fill the vacancy. He commenced teaching Monday.

The Sons of Veterans of Ross Camp No. 2 and the auxiliary will meet in regular session next Saturday evening, November 18, at the Gresham grange hall. An inspection will be held. All members are urged to be present.

The regular meeting of the G. A. R. and W. R. C. will be held Saturday afternoon, November 18, at the Gresham grange hall. A good attendance is expected.

The splendid community program of music given at the library brought out a crowd which taxed the capacity of the library, many people standing during the entire program. All numbers were rendered well and were received with enthusiasm. The address of the evening by Mrs. Paul Petri of Portland was one of great interest to music lovers.

Special Meetings.

There was an excellent meeting at the Free Methodist church on Sunday. The preaching was with no uncertain sound and the interest was good. Some are being awakened, for which we thank God. These meetings will continue this week. The attendance was very good last night, the evangelist preaching with energy and power. All are cordially invited to attend these meetings. E. D. Blackman, pastor.
