The union Thanksgiving day services will be held at the Methodist church instead of the Zion Evangelical church on account of the absence of the Rev. H. R. Gebhardt. Rev. and Mrs. Gebhardt left suddenly for Illinois after receiving word of the sudden death of his mother.

J. D. Bailey was rushed to the Portland sanitarium last evening and operated on for acute appendicitis at 7:30. He is getting along nicely.

Hal E. Bishop was taken ill from what is thought to be a nervous break down. He is being cared for at the home of his mother in Portland. R. G. Baker of Portland is in charge of the store here temporarily until matters can be straightened out and a permanent man put in charge.

T. W. Wixson, manager of the 20th Century store in Gresham is being transferred to Medford, Oregon, where the company is going to open up a new store. Mr. and Mrs. Wixson expect to leave tonight for Portland. Frank Black, who has had charge of the 20th Century store in Lents will be sent here to take charge of the store here. Mr. and Mrs. Black and family will occupy the home on East Powell street which the Wixsons are vacating.

W. E. Wood of Portland was in Gresham on business today. Mr. Wood has recently returned from a trip to southern Oregon.

Fred Mewhirter of Newberg had an operation at the Portland sanitarium on Thursday. Mrs. Mewhirter has been spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Roy Gibbs, and reports Mr. Mewhirter is doing nicely.

The second sacred concert to be given by the choir of Bethel Baptist church is planned for next Sunday night at the church. A feature will be violin and piano music by the Harper sisters of Portland. The concert will be preceded by 30 minutes of congregational singing when hymns old and new will be sung. An invitation has gone out for any who play orchestra pieces to volunteer their assistance in this concert.

Dr. and Mrs. Chas. Simon of Seattle arrived Saturday for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Gorsage. Chas. Simon, Jr., was left in Seattle with his aunt. Mrs. Simon is better known here as Miss Edna L. Benson. Miss Agnes Imlah is at the home of her sister Mrs. J. L. Stafford convalescing from her recent operation.

A special meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held at the library tomorrow afternoon, Wednesday, at 3 o'clock to complete the business of the world tour dinner and entertainment.

The library will be closed all day Thanksgiving.

The sale of Christmas seals will commence on Thanksgiving. Mrs. Maxwell Schneider, chairman of the sales committee, will be able to supply any who will sell.

A merry group gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Jones last Sunday afternoon and enjoyed a turkey dinner with its usual trimmings. The evening was spent in music and conversation. Those present besides the host and hostess were Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Cathey of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Cathey, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Jones and son Robert, Miss Beatrice Bates of Portland, Guy and Hallie Jones. Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Akin and family were unable to attend on account of sickness in the family, the two younger children having bronchitis.

Dinner guests last Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Metzger were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Metzger, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Metzger, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Metzger, Miss Roberta Millicent and Jimmie Lawrence.

All of the dances which the Gresham grade school took part in during "The Trip Around the World" will be repeated tomorrow, Wednesday afternoon, at 2 o'clock. A large attendance of patrons and friends are expected to be present on this special occasion.

New Merchandise Firm Starts.

A new store building has been built by Wm. J. Merica at the corner of the Section Line and Barker roads and the shelves have been well stocked with fresh staple and fancy groceries, some notions and a limited supply of school necessities. Mr. and Mrs. Merica own and operate the enterprise, which opened for business only this week. They solicit and deliver orders.

POMONA GRANGE MEETS DECEMBER 13

The regular meeting of Pomona grange will be held on Wednesday, December 13, at Russellville grange. An election of new officers for the coming year will be held. It is expected the election and business will occupy the entire day and no social program will be given in the afternoon but an interesting program is planned for the evening. The drill team will also put on the degree work as it was put on at the state convention and those who took part in it received high praise. T. J. Kreuder asks all those who are in the team to be at Russellville grange on Sunday afternoon, December 3, at 1 o'clock to practice.

It is understood that T. J. Kreuder will be a candidate to succeed himself as master of Pomona grange. Mr. Kreuder has filled that position during the past year in a very competent manner. He has the time to devote to the work which very few men have and he is never too busy to visit the various granges of the county and offer useful suggestions for their good. It would be hard to find a man who could fill the position of master of Pomona grange better than Mr. Kreuder and all grangers would do well to vote for him.

MULTNOMAH GRANGE HOLDS SESSION

Multnomah grange met in regular session last Saturday. The morning was confined to business. The usual splendid grange dinner was served at noon. Members of the juvenile grange furnished some recitations and songs for the afternoon program. The lecturer then called upon each granger in turn to tell what the farmer has to be thankful for that others do not have.

Among the visitors present were T. J. Kreuder, master of Pomona and Lents granges and H. W. Snashall from Gresham grange. Each gave talks that were of interest to the grange.

Some improvements are being made on the Multnomah grange hall. The stairway has been closed in to keep out the cold. When the building caught fire a short time ago a large hole was burned in the wall on the second floor at the front of the building in the room that is used for grange meetings.

CHORAL SOCIETY ELECTS OFFICERS

At its regular meeting last night the Gresham Choral society elected officers as follows: president, Miss Gertrude Alexander; vice president, Guy D. Jones; secretary, Miss Gladys Sharp; treasurer, Miss Anna Brugger; director, Hal E. Bishop. Mr. Bishop is ill at his Portland home. H. W. Strong will direct the chorus during his absence. Miss Florence Honey is pianist and Mrs. Mabel Clow organist.

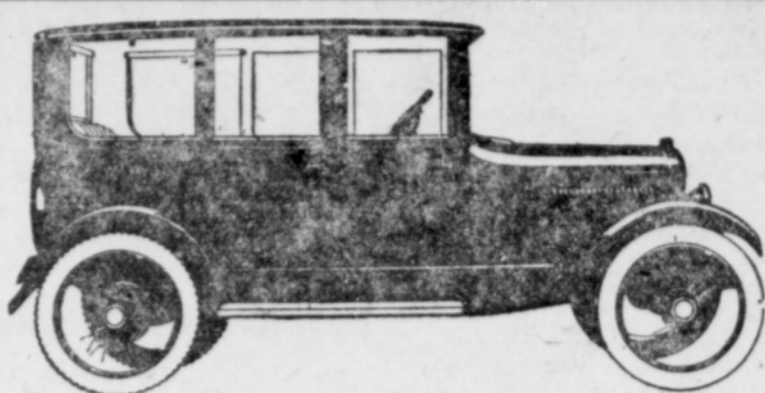

The society will make its first public appearance at the Thanksgiving service which will be held at the Methodist Episcopal church on Thursday morning at 10 o'clock when it will sing an anthem and lead in congregational singing. A number of fine anthems will be worked up for similar occasions.

At the next meeting on December 11, a social hour and refreshments will be enjoyed after the regular practice.

GRESHAM THEATER

Wednesday and Thursday, Nov. 29 and 30

The tide of Fate brings strange wreckage to the shores of life. See Pauline Frederick in the greatest performance of her career—

"MADAM X"

Competent critics hail it as truly a great picture.

Friday and Saturday, December 1 and 2

Life on the rough sea forms the subject of—

"THE SEA LION"

—Robert Bosworth's masterpiece. As dramatic as a hurricane, as full of force as a ship's sail in a high gale.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 3

"MOTHER O' MINE"

It is a thrilling story of the world and its people, and as Rudyard Kipling's verse—

*"If I were hanged on the highest hill
I know whose love would follow me still."*

—has become immortalized as a tribute to Motherhood, so will "Mother o' Mine" be a lasting tribute to the advanced art of the silver screen.
