FAIRVIEW

N. H. Hunter from Scott's landing is building a small house near the Fairview grade school on the three lots owned by the heirs of the late Mr. Hunter, N. H. Hunter's father. The building is 20 x 20. When completed, it will contain two sleeping rooms and a main room. Mr. Hunter and family expect to occupy it as soon as it is completed and the children will attend the Fairview school.

Mrs. M. L. Morrison is just recovering from an illness which lasted about 11 days. She had her tonsils removed and was thought by the doctor to have caught cold in her throat which affected her entire system. Mrs. Morrison has been able to get around the house for several days and expects to take up her position at the Sun Dial mill within a few days.

PLEASANT HOME

The final meeting of the class in home economics will be held at the home of Mrs. M. Lennartz on Thursday afternoon, December 14. Lunch will be served which will include agar-agar jelly, made from a Japanese sea weed, also delicious health bread. All who have attended any of the meetings are asked to be present and tell what help they have received in home economic problems. The services of Miss Marjorie Smith are so much in demand that she will be compelled to give up the work here for the present.

An event of interest to Pleasant Home people was the announcement on Thanksgiving of the marriage of Miss Alice Hale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hale and Elton Sloop, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Sloop. The nuptial knot was tied on October 7, at St. Helens by Judge Martin White. The announcement was made at a dinner party at the Grant Sloop home on Thanksgiving; the occasion being also the 79th birthday anniversary of Mrs. Sloop's father, Thos. Bush of Westport, who is visiting here. Mr. and Mrs. Elton Sloop will make their home at Bull Run, where the groom is employed at the power plant.

The young people of Pleasant Home gave a shower to Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Alexander on Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sloop. The Alexanders are making their home at Dodge Park, where Mr. Alexander is working for the Cameron & Hogg company.

The Ladies' Aid of the Baptist church will hold the annual bazaar at the church next Saturday, December 9. The bazaar will open at 2:30 in the afternoon and will be held in the basement. Many useful articles for the home and for Christmas presents will be on sale. Lunch will be served during the afternoon, and a chicken supper will be served from 6 to 8 p.m. A program consisting of music and readings will furnish entertainment for the evening. The invitation to come is extended to all.

Card of Appreciation.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvie Wheeler wish to thank friends and neighbors for their kindness and help during their time of need, for which they feel very grateful.

PLEASANT VALLEY

By G. N. SAGER.

T. Edholm of near Albany spent a few days last week at the home of C. A. Ekstrand.

Edw. Kelly was a Portland visitor last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Buchanan of Lents were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Sager during the fore part of last week.

John Barnard has returned home after an absence of several months spent in Washington and Yamhill counties.

Frank Dunsmuir, of Gilbert, was transacting business in the Valley Wednesday.

Pleasant Valley grange held its regular meeting last Saturday evening. The usual sumptuous repast was served. Attendance was above the average and a very good program was rendered. One candidate was given the first two degrees of the order. Among the visitors present were T. J. Kreuder, master of Lents grange, and J. D. Lee of Portland. Mr. Kreuder is also master of Pomona grange.

Parent-Teacher association held the regular bi-monthly session last Monday evening. Owing to weather conditions the attendance was rather small.

A Thanksgiving program was given by the school Wednesday afternoon which was much appreciated by those who were fortunate enough to be in attendance. School was dismissed until Monday.

We trust that every man and woman and every boy and girl who is old enough to read understandingly will read Governor Olcott's Thanksgiving proclamation, and let the sublime truths and noble sentiments penetrate deep down into their hearts that in the words of the immortal Lincoln "that government of the people, by the people, and for the people, shall not perish from the earth."

TROUTDALE

The Troutdale Parent-Teacher association will meet next Friday afternoon, December 8, at 2 o'clock. The circle has taken up a study of the history of Oregon and at this meeting the Lewis & Clark Expedition will be discussed. Mrs. Lou Harlow will tell the story of the Lewis & Clark Expedition and Mrs. A. C. Althaus will give a human interest story about Sacajewes, the Indian guide, and Lewis and Clark. It is the plan of those in charge to present this part of Oregon history in such a way that it will be of interest to everyone. Appropriate music will be provided for the occasion. The regular business session will be held and lunch served. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to be present Friday afternoon.

The Ladies' Aid is finishing up the work this week for the bazaar to be given December 9th. The apron committee has all kinds of aprons—dainty aprons, utility aprons, large and small aprons—and a limited number of house dresses. The fancy work committee has dresser sets, lunch sets, lunch cloths, dollies, night gowns, bed spread, quilt, caps, pillow slips, guest towels of linen and huck toweling, bath towels, handkerchiefs, dolls and many other articles, all especially designed for Christmas gifts. The usual good chicken pie dinner will be served from 6 to 8 o'clock. The bazaar opens at 5. Everybody invited.

A very large crowd attended the opening dance given in the new community hall on Thanksgiving evening. Much praise was given the Gresham orchestra for the excellent music furnished. The dance was a success in every way. Another dance will be given December 23d, under the same management and with the same orchestra.

Thanksgiving family dinners held full sway the past week. Mrs. Alice Rix has been quite sick for the past few days but is much improved at this writing.

Mrs. Frances Fox gave a musicale at her home on Thursday. Those from out of town taking part were Professor Wehoffer, violinist, and daughter Nellie, contralto; Professor Volinski, a noted Russian violinist, Miss Nonon, soprano and Mrs. Salene Short. Some very interesting folk songs were given by Miss Nonon.

Frances Bradley of West Linn, Oregon, spent the Thanksgiving vacation with Helen Althaus at Sweet Brier ranch.

Camp Fire girls met at the home of Mrs. J. R. Knarr on Saturday. Mrs. Elizabeth White, Camp Fire Girl state leader, was present to properly organize the club. She gave a very interesting talk on Camp Fire work and taught the girls camp fire motion songs. There are 15 charter members with Mrs. J. R. Knarr as guardian and Miss Olive Wilson, assistant guardian. The camp has been named Chanamanipi, meaning step by step.

The Ladies' Aid will meet in the church on Wednesday, December 6. A good attendance is desired as final arrangements will be made for the bazaar to be given on December 9.

Herman Blazer, Frances Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. A. Althaus and daughter Helen, ate turkey dinner at the Ellis McLean home in Portland on Sunday.

Mrs. Frances Fox gave a dinner to relatives and a few friends on Sunday, the occasion being the birthday anniversary of herself and granddaughter Frances, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fox. Those present, besides the hostess, were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fox and daughter Frances, Professor and Mrs. Wehoffer and daughter Nellie all of Portland, Maney Fox of Baker, Oregon, Mr. and Mrs. Short and baby of Washougal, Washington, Mrs. Reed of Corbett, Milton and Emanuel Fox. Maney Fox, the only surviving brother of the late Aaron Fox, was toast master.

The entertainment given by the Camp Fire Girls and some of their friends on Friday night was well attended. Nearly $50 was taken in. The program was followed by an old-fashioned dance which was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. C. I. Thomas attended the military funeral at McMinnville on Monday of her cousin, Wells Cooper, a Spanish war veteran. Mr. Cooper died in Seattle and his body was sent home for burial.
