HERBERT HOOVER

Herbert Hoover is a big man for a big place and as Secretary of Commerce he seems to be in his place. He declined to become head of the Interior Department and is devoting his energies to building up American commerce at home and abroad.

In a recent report of his department Mr. Hoover said that the odds are favorable for 1923; the world begins the year with greater economic strength than a year ago; production and trade are upon a larger and more substantial basis, with the single exception of the sore spot in central Europe.

WARLIKE CONDITIONS THREATEN

War rumblings are again heard in Europe centering in three localities. In all of them conditions of peace are upset and feeling is intense.

Germany is inflamed over France's invasion of her territory, and clashes may ensue.

The near east conference stands in a deadlock because England will not yield to Turkey's demands to surrender her rights in the Mosul oil fields.

The seizure of Memel by the Lithuanians threatens to drag in the Poles and east Prussians and puts France on the defensive.

Memel is an important seaport on the Baltic. The seizure of Memel by the Lithuanians threatens to drag in the Poles and east Prussians and puts France on the defensive.

WEEKLY PAPER BECOMES A SEMI-WEEKLY

The Lebanon Criterion, edited and published by Robert F. Boetticher which has been issued as a weekly newspaper for nearly 25 years, appeared last week as a semi-weekly and will hereafter appear twice each week.

OREGON PEN HAS NEW WARDEN

Governor Pierce has replaced James H. Lewis, warden of the state prison for the past two years, with Johnson S. Smith of Portland who has assumed charge of the institution.

GRESHAM W. C. T. U. ENDORSE PIERCE'S STAND

Measures materially strengthening the enforcement of the prohibition law in Oregon will be submitted to the legislature in the present session. They have the endorsement of the district attorneys of the state, the Anti-Saloon League, the State Women's Christian Temperance Union and many other civic and reform organizations.

Following are the titles of the proposed measures which will give in brief their substance: "Anti-Moonshine Bill"; "Confiscating automobiles used in transporting liquors"; "Prohibiting moonshiners and bootleggers to carry firearms"; "To provide special fund out of fines to secure evidence and enforce the prohibition law by district attorneys."

At its meeting last week the Gresham W. C. T. U. passed resolutions favoring the proposed legislation and authorized the sending of a letter to each member of the Multnomah delegation at Salem. The letter asks favorable consideration of the measures and says:

"We feel that the continual ingenious inventions for the evasion of the Prohibition Law must be met by greater restrictions and more severe penalties, and we look to our law makers for this relief.

"For the protection of the younger generation we urge and confidently expect you to use your greatest influence in the interest of the passage of these helpful laws, and to work for them."

At the same meeting strong resolutions were passed commending Gov. Walter M. Pierce for his stand on the question of the enforcement of the prohibition law as expressed in his message to the legislature. Following are the governor's words: "I have been saddened many times by finding that prominent men of this state behind closed doors are breaking the prohibition law. I ask for a higher sense of moral duty and for an awakening of the public conscience. We must one and all determine to drive liquor from our midst by making it so hard for the bootlegger to thrive that he will be glad to leave our state and take with him his nefarious business. Liquor vendors can not do business alone. I ask you for assistance in a continued effort to enforce the law. I do not want a state constabulary, but I do want sufficient police agents to eliminate as far as possible violation of the prohibition act. I also ask that one-half of all fines collected through enforcement of the state prohibition and narcotic laws be turned into a special fund, such fund to be used in enforcing the laws."

ANOTHER CONSOLIDATION MEASURE

History repeats itself. The county and city consolidation proposal is up again. Not more persistent are the single taxers than certain gentlemen in Portland who want to make Portland co-extensive and co-ordinate with the county of Multnomah.

In other words, they want the county boundary to be the city boundary, all property to be city property, all roads to be city streets, all taxes to be city taxes, all farmers citizens of Portland, all schools to be city schools.

If the plan of these gentlemen is adopted there will be no Multnomah county, all will be city of Portland. There will be no county officers, all will be city officials.

There will be city regulations on everything. You'll have to get a city permit to erect a pipe, a permit to wire your house, a permit to have your plumbing overhauled. And when any of these things, or many others, are done, out comes an inspector to tell you if it is done right. In many cases you'll have to have union labor do the job or it won't pass inspection.

The Outlook has not seen the bill that it is told has been presented but believes it is framed on much the same plan as that of two years ago. There were strong protests at that time, both from the country and from the city. The conditions are no more favorable now for putting over this consolidation plan than they were then. The measure failed at that time to get endorsement of the committee.

Strong opposition will be voiced against this measure. It would be small advantage to the city of Portland. The principal argument is the lowering of overhead by doing away with one of the two sets of officials. That is, abolishing the county officers. But this is a hocus pocus. It will take as many if not more to administer a city government over the whole county than it now takes with the two organizations. It is true, the administrations may overlap in a few instances, but in other respects they augment and benefit each other.

Can the city of Portland hope to reduce its taxes by increasing those of the already overtaxed farmer? Can the city of Portland hope to administer the civic and judicial affairs of the present county area more economically than the present county officers? Can the city of Portland hope to police the outlying sections more efficiently than the sheriff's office?

The idea is preposterous. True it would give Portland a greater bonding value. It would add slightly to Portland's population. It would add a measure of prestige to the city with its larger area of valuable land.

It does not seem possible that all of Multnomah county outside the present city can by any constitutional process of law be gobbled up and forced into the city of Portland unless the voters of said outlying districts vote to come into the city. This it is believed they will not consent to do—not for many years to come. It would be better for all concerned for Portland to enlarge by natural accretion of territory, voting in areas surrounding the present city as fast as growth of population and development changes their character from agricultural sections to suburban or urban districts.

SONS OF REVOLUTION OFFER ESSAY PRIZES

The annual essay contest of the Oregon society, Sons of the American Revolution, has been announced and school children all over the state are urged to take part in it. Prizes amounting to $50 will be awarded for the three best essays, with $25 as the first prize.

The topics for the essays are: "Our Wars of 1776 and 1917; Contrasts and Similarities"; "The Treaty of Versailles and Paris in 1878"; and "Naval Warfare of the American Revolution". Contestants must be students of grammar or high school classes.

The committee in charge of the contest includes Herbert B. Augur, Frank L. Griffin and C. C. Chapman. Awarding of prizes will be governed by originality, accuracy of statement, manner of treatment, orthography, syntax, punctuation, neatness and legibility. Each essay must be signed by the writer with his or her address and must be forwarded to Herbert B. Augur, No. 960, Savier street, Portland, Oregon, by April 15.

These essays are limited in length to 3,000 words, must be written on one side only of the papers and accompanied by a statement from the writer's teacher that the writer is a pupil in a designated class and that the teacher believes the essay to be the pupil's own unaided work.

"CALLED" NOTES SHOULD BE CASHED

AA "Called" Victory Notes and matured War Savings Stamps have stopped bearing interest and should be cashed immediately, advises Director Theodore Hardee.

If any residents of the Twelfth Federal Reserve District, comprising California, Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Utah, Nevada, Arizona and— for Savings purposes—Alaska and Hawaii, are still holding 4 1/2 per cent Victory notes of the Fifth Liberty Loan with the letters A, B, C, D, E or F prefixed to their serial numbers, the Treasury Department desires to call to their special attention the fact that these particular notes were "called" by the Secretary of the Treasury for redemption on December 15, 1922, and therefore have ceased to bear interest since then.

The 3 1/2 per cent Victory notes also were "called" for redemption on June 15, 1922, and have likewise ceased bearing interest from that date. The Treasury Department wishes also to remind all present holders of the 1918 issue of War Savings Stamps that these stamps matured on January 1, 1923. Facilities have been provided at all banks and postoffices to handle the redemptions either for cash or by exchange into Treasury Savings Certificates. Bankers and postmasters can give full information on the subject. If this exchange is made before January 16, the certificates will be dated January 1, 1923, and will enjoy interest from that date; otherwise, they must bear the date they are actually issued and will draw interest from such issue-date only. In view of the wide distribution of these stamps among a very large number of small buyers, the government is greatly concerned in seeing that all holders get their full face value of $5 per stamp, and that they reinvest this money to advantage. The Treasury therefore recommends and urges reinvestment of these funds through exchange of the stamps for 4 per cent Treasury Savings Certificates up to the limit allowed, which is $5000 maturity value of these 5-year absolutely safe and profitable certificates, issued in denominations of $25, $100 and $1000.

Casserole Rice with Salmon

Line the bottom and sides of a mold with cold boiled rice 1/2 inch thick, fill the cavity with creamed pink or chum salmon and cover with rice. Steam 45 minutes, turn out on hot platter, pour either a white sauce or a hollandaise sauce over and around it. Serve hot. If a mold is not used, it can be put into a bowl and brown paper tied over the top.

SOMETIMES WE FEAR WE HAVE A SENSE OF HUMOR

Sometimes we fear we have a sense of humor. No matter how hard we try we can't say "every day in every way we are getting better and better" without laughing.—Toledo Blade.
