

Gresham Grade School P.-T. A. Meets.
The regular meeting of the Gresham grade school was held Monday evening in the schoolhouse. A short business session was held. The school board has been busy discussing plans for a new grade school building and have held meetings every evening during the past two weeks. Plans were discussed at this meeting.

Prin. C. M. Quicksall had charge of the program which followed. He also gave a talk on matters pertaining to the school. Miss Ethel Calkins gave a talk on club work. Musical selections were given by Miss Kathryn Honey and by the Boys' Glee club. At the completion of the program, a social hour was enjoyed.

GRESHAM LOCALS

The American Legion basketball team will play its first game of the season this evening in the Union High school gym. The Creston club of Portland will furnish the opposing team. A number of boys who are now playing on the Gresham team played one or two games on other teams while waiting for this one to be organized.

Hal Bishop is reported to be improving but is not yet able to return to his work in Gresham.

New interest is being taken in the work of the Odd Fellows lodge in Gresham, as evidenced by the reception of several new members recently. A meeting is being planned for next Thursday evening, January 18, which will be in the nature of reception of new members and rallying of old. Installation of officers will take place at this time. This is not an open meeting.

The winter beauties of the Columbia River highway were enjoyed yesterday afternoon by a party consisting of Miss D. Willa Caffray, Miss Gladys Miller, Mrs. A. W. Shipley, Miss Cora Green and Mrs. H. L. St. Clair. While lacking in color, the scenery was interesting because of the full streams and the rushing, roaring water falls. A number of snow banks were seen beside the highway but there were no obstructions to traffic.

Mrs. Fannie Wells, who came here last July from Montana for her health, is greatly improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Huff of Spokane were the guests on Sunday of Mrs. Maggie Ulm.

Mrs. Chas. Raney gave a miscellaneous shower last Thursday at her home for Mrs. Harry Stanley, formerly Miss Lenora Eder. Eighteen guests were present. They brought many gifts, principally aluminumware, and placed a quilt during the afternoon. Light refreshments were served.

Mrs. Maggie Ulm was given a surprise on last Saturday evening by a number of relatives and friends. A delightful evening was spent. Those present were Mrs. C. Merrill of Gresham, Mr. and Mrs. E. Dewey, Mr. and Mrs. E. Nofke, Miss Elenor Nofke, Mrs. H. Stager, Mr. and Mrs. P. Wolfsehr, Miss Adeline Wolfsehr, O. T. Wolfsehr, Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Bowder, Miss Cora Bowder, D. F. Bowder, Jr., all of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Nelson of Anderson station, Mr. and Mrs. O. Klum of Kelso, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bangs have moved from the residence of Mrs. Vesta Raney on Third street to Mrs. W. J. Todd's apartments. The Raney house will be occupied by Mrs. Soward and family of Corbett.

R. W. and J. L. Stafford have returned from San Francisco, where they went recently on a business trip.

Ed. Glad of Tillamook, who has just been released from a hospital after five months of treatment following injuries received while in the forestry service, is the guest of Carl Soderquist at the home of Mrs. Maggie Ulm.

Miss Mary Hansen has been absent from school for several days on account of sinus and nasal trouble, for which she has been taking treatments in Portland. Her place in the Gresham grade school is being filled by Mrs. Albert Camp.

W. H. Rutherford's civics class left for Portland this morning to spend the day at the courthouse as guests of Judge G. W. Stapleton. While there they will witness whatever court proceedings come up and pay a visit to the county jail.

The senior class of Union High wish it understood that Patron tickets are for basketball games only and will not admit any one to the senior class play.

Making It Easier for the Boys

The Oliver No. 23B Sulky makes hillside plowing much easier for both the team and the operator. It saves time in making turns at the end of the furrow and insures quick penetration and uniform plowing.

The Oliver No. 23B Plow has also become very popular where irrigation is practiced. It leaves no back ridges or dead furrows to interfere with the flow of water.

Give us an opportunity to show you this plow.

When the Rev. and Mrs. H. R. Gebhardt returned home from Peotone, Illinois, they brought Mr. Gebhardt's sister, Miss Eleanor Gebhardt home with them. She has entered the freshman class of Union High school. Two young men, Edward Scheroeder and Edwin Koenning from Peotone, Illinois, also accompanied the Gebhardt's home and are now visiting at the Gebhardt home. They came out to see the country and expect to get work out here.

J. D. Bailey was brought home in an ambulance today from the Portland sanitarium where he underwent a serious operation for acute appendicitis on November 27. Mr. Bailey is slowly improving, but the doctor has asked that a no caller card be placed on the door until he becomes a little stronger.

THE FIFTY-FIFTY SPIRIT.

I left my dad, his farm, his plow,
Because my calf became his cow;
I left my dad—'twas wrong of course,
Because my colt became his horse,
I left my dad to sow and reap
Because my lamb became his sheep;
I dropped my hoe and stuck my fork,
Because my pig became his pork.
The garden truck I had to grow
Was his to sell and mine to hoe.

Why Another Didn't.
With dad and me it's half and half,
The cow I own was once his calf;
No town for mine, I will not bolt,
Because my horse was once his colt;
I'm going to stick right where I am
Because my sheep was once his lamb;
I'll stay with dad—he gets my vote
Because my hog was once his shoat;
It's fifty-fifty with dad and me,
A profit sharing company.

What you want, when you want it,
as you want it—Want ad. it.
