DAIRYMEN TO WAGE WAR AGAINST TUBERCULOSIS

Last Wednesday was Dairy Day in Gresham and one of the results of the lectures on the various phases of the dairy business and stock diseases was that the dairymen present voted to join in the fight against tuberculosis that is to be made a statewide movement. It is hoped that this campaign will commence in the spring. It will be waged against tuberculosis in dairy stock.

There were about 105 present at Wednesday's meeting. Addresses were made by Prof. B. T. Simms, professor of veterinary medicine who spoke on problems in the dairy industry; H. A. Lindgren, extension specialist in animal husbandry, O. A. C., who had as his topic Utilizing By-Products of Dairy and Farm. The dairy outlook was discussed by C. L. Hawley, state dairy and food commissioner. "Contagious Abortion in Dairy Cows" was the subject of a talk by Prof. B. T. Simms, professor of veterinary medicine, and was the main discussion of the day.

WELL KNOWN SCHOOL MAN DIES SUDDENLY

Joseph B. Lent, for many years a teacher in the schools of this part of the country, dropped dead on a Portland street last Saturday, aged 75 years. He was born in Pennsville, Morgan county, Ohio, October 23, 1847. He was a veteran of the Civil War, having enlisted in the northern army at the age of 16. After the close of the war he completed his education and took up the work of teaching in Ohio, later moving to California, where he taught for several years. He came to Oregon in 1881 and continued his life work of teaching until five years ago when he retired to his farm in the Lusted neighborhood.

In 1882 he married Miss Luella Spaulding, who survives him. He is also survived by one daughter, Mrs. Jean Dollowitch of Lusted.

He united with the church at an early age and remained a steadfast Christian until the last.

Death came to Mr. Lent when he was in Portland with H. S. Eddy for the purpose of signing a deed for his Pleasant Home residence to the Baptist church of that place, which had been purchased for a parsonage. He was crossing the street with Mr. Eddy and except for the quick action of the latter would have fallen under the traffic. He was assisted to the sidewalk but died immediately. Mr. Lent had already signed a contract for the sale.

Funeral services for Mr. Lent were held on Monday afternoon at the Bethel Baptist church in Gresham by the pastor, the Rev. David Q. Barry. Interment was in Mt. Scott cemetery.

Does 4% look small to you?

That is the interest, compounded semi-annually, which this Bank pays on Savings Accounts.

Some people consider it very "old fashioned" to be satisfied with "savings bank interest." The facts are, 4% is a very high rate, in view of the complete safety afforded—to say nothing of the splendid service, facilities and convenience offered by this Bank.

And Savings Bank patrons will be safe, and getting a generous interest return on their money, when some of our more venturesome "financiers," who scorn "savings bank interest," are on the rocks.
