

German Resentment Against French

This first and exclusive picture shows German resentment against French invasion of the Ruhr, taken as thousands crowded the square around the Bismarck monument on King's Place in Berlin. German police could not control the crowd which was frenzied to the point of demanding war.

PLEASANT VALLEY

By G. N. SAGER. Tonkard and Lawrence Edholm of Albany were week-end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Ekstrand. Mr. and Mrs. John Kadock and son Homer of Lents were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McLean last Friday evening.

Mrs. Lloyd Welch and son Robeson were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Kesterson.

Mrs. Ethel O'Connell of Sellwood came out Saturday evening and remained over Sunday at the home of her father, A. B. Olson.

Ralph and Verne Richey and John Forsgren went out to the Bull Run country Monday in quest of a bear.

Frank Everhart of Lents was looking after business interests in this vicinity one day recently.

The mail carrier who has the nerve and stick-to-it-ness to make his deliveries under the adverse weather conditions prevailing the past few days surely merits commendation and not censure even though he is late.

The basket social given at the grange hall last Friday evening under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher circle was a success and added a tidy little sum of money to the treasury of the association.

Those farmers who failed to avail themselves of the opportunity to attend at least some of the programs put on during Farmers week at Gresham do not realize how many good things they have missed.

The Western Life Advocate gave the following as the qualifications for a "true gentleman."

"The man that's clean inside and outside; who neither looks up to the rich nor down on the poor; who can lose without squealing and win without begging, is considerate of women, children and other people; who is too brave to lie, too generous to cheat and too sensible to loaf, and who takes his share of the world's goods and lets other people have theirs, has the characteristics of a true gentleman."

Emphasize the component or essential parts that more particularly refer to selfishness, bigotry and intolerance; acknowledge Jesus Christ as the Lord and Savior of the world; practice in so far as possible, his precepts and example and you would attain to something near the qualifications which constitute a 100 per cent American citizen.

PLEASANT HOME

The Methodist Ladies' Aid is planning a program and social to be held at the church on Saturday evening, February 24. The program starts at 8 o'clock. The Rev. E. G. Ranton will give violin numbers and Joel Berreman of Hazel Green, brother of Pastor George Berreman, will give readings. There will be other interesting numbers on the program. Refreshments will be served. A small admission will be charged, which will go to help clear the parsonage debt.

POWELL VALLEY

Mrs. J. Trudson is at Emanuel hospital in Portland, where she went on February 6 for treatment. She will probably be there a week or two more. The Ladies' Aid of the Swedish Lutheran church which was to have been held at the Lekander home on February 15, has been postponed until the 22d on account of the weather conditions.

Services will be held at the Swedish Lutheran church at the usual hours next Sunday, preaching at 11 in the morning and 7:30 in the evening and Sunday school in the morning at 10 o'clock.

TROUTDALE

The official visit of the worthy grand matron to Troutdale Chapter, O. E. S., has been postponed indefinitely on account of the storm.

OREGON BULBS GROW WELL IN PHILIPPINES

W. L. Crissey of "Gladious Farm" is in receipt of an interesting letter from Whipple S. Hall, of Manila, P. I., in which Mr. Hall says: "The gladioli you sent me were planted on December 27th—this morning, January 10, all but ten were above the ground and from one to ten inches high."

On September 27 I planted zinnia seeds. By November 19 they were in full bloom and I have never seen such flowers. Many were six inches in diameter. It is a curious fact that all locally grown seed loses in size and color with each generation, until within a few years it runs out entirely. For instance, local zinnias six generations from the states are little larger than daisies and have no stems worth mentioning. The tropical flowers here are wonderful, particularly the orchids. I'll send you some photographs of my garden along in March when the orchids are in bloom."

PLEASANT VALLEY FOLK GIVE PLEASANT DANCE

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Springer of Pleasant Valley gave a dance Saturday night to friends and neighbors. It was well attended and thoroughly enjoyed.

"A better form of entertainment could hardly have been given as the neighborhood has not witnessed this pretty and healthful exercise for several years and what gratitude was not expressed in words was unmistakably expressed in the happy face of every guest," said one who was there.

After a most appetizing midnight lunch all bade their generous host and hostess and each other a reluctant good night until next time.

Pleasant Home to Have Sewing School

A four-day sewing school is to be held in Pleasant Home some time in March by Miss Esther B. Cooley, clothing extension specialist. Miss Cooley has asked to have a class of 15 or 16 women who will take the complete four-day course. A number have already signed up but there is still room for six or seven more. Those who are interested can get in touch with Mrs. Alta Gentry. It has been suggested that all of the districts in this part of the county have women representatives attend these sewing classes in order to have the work do as much good as possible.

While the number of women in the class is limited, there have been no restrictions made against other women coming and watching but they will not be given special instruction. Miss Cooley believes it impossible to give personal instruction to a larger number than 16 and do it efficiently.

STATE COLONIZATION WORK IN NEW HANDS

W. G. Ide of Portland, a colonization man of wide experience, has been selected to handle the land settlement of the Oregon State Chamber of Commerce, it has been announced.

Mr. Ide was selected following the decision of the state chamber to organize all sections of the state in need of settlers, in anticipation of the state-wide development program to be inaugurated this year by the Oregon Development Board. Lands available for colonization in various districts of the state will be listed and settlers will be placed on specific tracts of land under the supervision of the state chamber.

Heretofore, the land settlement efforts of the state chamber have brought in many new homeseekers, but it has been impossible to check up on the number who have actually settled in Oregon, nor the districts in which they have located. Under the new arrangements, a close contact will be maintained with each settler until he is actually located under conditions suited to his means and requirements.

Home Demonstration Will Be Given.

Miss Margery M. Smith's next demonstration in home economics at the new Union schoolhouse in Clackamas county is scheduled for Wednesday afternoon, February 21, at 2 o'clock.

To the Resident of Powell Valley Water District No. 2.

HOW ST. VALENTINE'S DAY ORIGINATED

The story of the origin of St. Valentine's Day, February 14, is rather interesting and not the kind of story that some people would expect to hear. The name St. Valentine was derived from the name of a martyr and saint, Valentinus, who was put to death by Marcus Aurelius Flavius Claudius on February 14, about 1752 years ago.

The custom of giving and receiving valentines is best explained in the words of Chaucer: "For this was on seynt Valentines day, When every bird cometh ther to chose his mate." The old notion was that birds began to choose their mates in February. It is said that in the olden days the young men and young women held a social gathering on St. Valentine's eve and drew lots. It is thus supposed that the ugly, cartoon valentines first came into use when a young man, displeased with his lot, drew a ridiculous picture of the unloved one. Sometimes, it was said, he was rude enough to show it to her and thus spoiled the evening for both.

The linking of the name of the martyr to this custom is explained by the fact that it takes the courage of a Christian saint to publicly choose his wife. When a man says "I am your valentine," he does not realize he is saying, "I am your martyr."

Valentine's day is observed less and less and it is expected will be practically forgotten within a few years.

Late Winter Storm Severe

ening. The snow is piled up in deep drifts all along the route. The telephone service between Gresham and Corbett has been crippled by the storm and it is impossible to reach the highway so there is no way of finding out just how deep the snow is. The last report told of a number of automobiles snowed in on the highway.

Other Cities Have Snow.

The Gresham and Portland vicinities are not the only ones experiencing this severe snow storm. In many places the snow is deeper than it is here. Seattle and Tacoma were the first cities to get the storm which began to rage there last Monday. There has been 18 inches of snow in Seattle and street car service was discontinued for a time. A thaw and rain came, however, and helped the situation and stopped before flood conditions became serious. The snow also began falling in Tacoma last Monday. Public schools there were ordered closed until better weather. That city now has a foot of snow and from last reports no thaw had come. Aberdeen, Washington, has from eight inches to two feet of slush which came as a result of a light thaw.

Roseburg, Oregon, is crowing over the fact that so far that region has escaped the storm and pleasant weather is still having its sway there.

Salem has had about four inches of snow but most of it melted before it reached the ground. Colder weather made icy pavements.
