ENTHUSIASTIC WOMEN SIGN UP FOR SEWING

Pleasant Home women are responding enthusiastically to the plan for a sewing school in that district and nearly 30 have already signed up for the course. To care for this class and to better distribute the time of the extension work in this county, the women will be divided into two groups and meet in alternate days. Miss Cooley does not want more than 15 in a class. As many more as wish can attend and look on but those in the class will actually do the work assigned under the supervision of Miss Cooley.

There is no charge for the work, the teacher being furnished by the extension department of O. A. C. The number in the class is limited and those women are chosen as far as possible who, in return for the benefits they derive, will assist in spreading the information received.

The Pleasant Home class will meet the week of March 26-31, one division meeting on Monday, Wednesday and Friday and the other group meeting on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. The sessions will begin about 9 a. m. and continue until 4 p. m. The women will take a potluck lunch for noon. The meetings will be in the Methodist church in the new Sunday school room. This room is well lighted and centrally located with all the equipment needed except the sewing machines which the women will be expected to loan for the week. Five machines will be needed. Classes are being organized at Russellville and Corbett for the second week in April. These two groups will alternate as the two Pleasant Home groups are doing.

The women who have already signed up for the class at Pleasant Home are as follows: Mesdames B. C. Altman, Alta Stafford, Moulton, Alta Gentry, Robt. Lundbom, Bert Olsen, Guy H. Robertson, Jean Dollowitch, Henry Douthit, Helmer Johnson, A. E. DeHaven, Jewell Collins, Frank Gustafson, Donaldson, LeRoy Walters, G. W. Alder, Joe Caldo, Sefton, D. B. Hogan, Wilkenson, Alt, E. Brink, Dolly Klinski, Wagner, Henry Fritz and I. T. Wood and the Misses Ruth Iekler, Mary Christensen and Alice Jack. A number of others have spoken about taking the course and if their names are not in this list they should notify Mrs. Gentry at once. In every case preference will be given to those women who have completed the course in nutrition, after that it will be the plan to distribute the work over the territory in as fair and equal manner as possible, letting one in a group of friends take the actual work and then pass it on to her circle of friends. The time of the expert can in this way be multiplied many times over.

The only individual equipment needed will be needles, thread, pins, thimble, tapeline, shears, tailors chalk and muslin or cambric pieces to practice making slit pockets, bound buttonholes, etc.

Others wishing to take the course should notify Mrs. Gentry at once and she will list the names and the classes will be made up and days assigned later by the extension worker, the county agent and Mrs. Gentry. If there is any reason why an individual should especially wish to attend on certain days they should notify Mrs. Gentry but the impossibility of pleasing everybody is evident and for the most part it will save confusion to simply assign the days.

No actual construction of garments will be done at this school. The selection, testing alteration and interpretation of commercial patterns, tailored finishes and decorative finishes will be taken in this unit. Later courses to which women finishing this first unit will be eligible will include the actual construction of garments and freehand pattern work, textile study and then millinery courses, the making of hats for fall and winter, and the making of hats for spring and summer.

This work is open to any community in the county if the women will take it up in a definite way and notify County Agent S. B. Hall of their desire for a class. As the time of the state extension worker is limited, the communities have to adapt themselves to the schedule of the college worker and wait their turn. The first course in the schedule is the nutrition course by Miss Margery Smith and this class was a wonderful help to those women who took it. It is not a cooking school as some think, but a school in food values and the proper combination for different individuals. Miss Smith makes the class very interesting and the only cooking done is to demonstrate how some uninteresting foods

FUNERAL HELD SUNDAY FOR LA DESSA DAVIES

The funeral of La Dessa Davies, who died suddenly at her mother's home in Gladstone on February 13, was held at the Baptist church in Gresham last Sunday afternoon and the body was laid to rest in the family lot of her grandfather, J. J. Robertson, in the Gresham cemetery.

The services were in charge of the Rev. C. F. Mosier of the Gladstone Baptist church, of which the young girl was a member. Music was furnished by a quartet consisting of David Cathey, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cathey and Mrs. J. A. Bushong. Among the pall bearers were Ellis Wright and Winfred Hill, Gresham young men. Many beautiful floral tributes were received, among them being a beautiful piece from the Oregon City Woolen Mills, for which Mrs. Davies works. The following obituary was read:

Ruth La Dessa Davies was born at Sandy, Oregon, December 8, 1908. She passed away at Gladstone, Oregon, February 13, 1923.

La Dessa was energetic, kind and obedient always. She carried with her the spirit of helpfulness. She assisted her mother faithfully. She was converted and joined the Gladstone Baptist church in the winter of 1922. She took great joy in her Christian life, and served her Lord with earnestness and constancy. Matters concerning the good of the church always took first place.

She is survived by her mother, Mrs. M. Davies, one brother Richard and one sister Dorothy. These with a large circle of loved ones and friends mourn the sad loss of La Dessa's early going.

EAGLE CREEK WOMAN PASSES AWAY The funeral of Mrs. Susan E. Longwell of Eagle Creek who died on February 12, 1923, at the Nash sanitarium at Troutdale, from stomach trouble, was held last Monday afternoon, February 19, at 1 o'clock at the Eagle Creek church. The funeral had to be postponed for a time on account of the weather. The body was brought to Gresham to the Metzger undertaking parlors to await funeral arrangements. Interment was at the Forester cemetery near Eagle Creek. Mrs. Longwell was born in Ohio on March 7, 1855. She had lived in Oregon for a number of years. She is survived by her husband and two sons. Loading Down the Auto. Several states have been taxing gasoline from one to two cents a gallon. A meeting of western states' governors was recently held in San Francisco for the purpose of adopting a uniform system of taxing gasoline two cents a gallon in the eleven western states which would raise a fund of $100,000,000 a year. Every time a Ford filled its 10-gallon tank, it would pay 20 cents in tax. The extension of special taxation is a dangerous program for any state to adopt. While it must be admitted that this is a new way of raising money for road construction purposes, it is no way justified the adoption of extension of this system of special taxation. It would be just as logical to establish a tax of from $1 to $5 on every tire sold in a western state or it would just as well to apply a flat tax on automobile sales. California sold 200,000 cars, approximately, in 1922. A tax of from $10 to $40 a car according to its price would raise several million dollars. Why not add these taxes also and load the automobile to capacity.—The Manufacturer. Subscribe now for the Outlook and your Portland Daily. A NEW DISCOVERY More and Better Fruit Nature's way of production greatly improved. The fruit is much larger and the fruit buds mature extremely large cherries and they do not fall. Bear in mind that fully 60 per cent of our cherry crop falls before maturity. This may all be saved, except for weather conditions, the first year by the application of "Morehouse's Orchard Invigorant" applied by expert horticulturists. All fruit made to bring forth an abundance, as the "invigorant" feeds the fruit bearing buds. The serious blighting as well as Bacterial Gummosis, in the cherry, soon overcome, through the perfect circulation of the sap. Roses and all the flower kingdom made to respond with brighter tints, all cereals, vegetables, forced into heavy production. Practical pruning, spraying, budding and grafting done in proper season.
