STATE EVANGELIST WILL HOLD MEETING

Pleasant Home Baptist church will begin a series of evangelistic services on Sunday, March 11, with State Evangelist Bentley in charge. His first service will be Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

The Sunday school will convene at 10 o'clock with Superintendent H. C. Nelson in charge. Last Sunday was the banner attendance for the year, having 63 present at Sunday school.

The B. Y. P. U. meets at 7:30 next Sunday evening with Wilma Chase as leader. Seven new members will be received Sunday evening. At 8 o'clock Evangelist Bentley and Rev. A. J. Ware will be in charge. Services will continue every evening during the week at 7:30.

Mrs. J. R. Jones of Waterville, Washington, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. P. M. Miller for several days, left on Tuesday for Olympia, Washington, where Mr. Jones is attending the Washington legislature. Mr. Jones is a representative from his county.

The Baptist Ladies Aid met Thursday afternoon to have the usual spring house cleaning at the church.

H. C. Nelson has gone to work for the Palmquist Bros' at their new mill near Marmot.

Terry and Cedar Schools See Slides

Last Friday afternoon the children of the Cedar school accompanied by their teacher, went over to the Terry schoolhouse where some slides were to be shown by Mrs. Alta Gentry. The children enjoyed seeing the pictures of the homes of other lands, children of other lands and pictures showing the rapid transit in Africa but the latter was found to be just the opposite from the title. The slides are the property of the University of Oregon and of the Methodist Centenary in Portland.

There were ten women present. It so happened that one of the women had been in Norway and another in the Orient. They told interesting stories of the homes and children in these countries. Refreshments were served. The afternoon was enjoyed very much by all present.

PLEASANT VALLEY

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Bliss started last Monday for California, where they will spend several weeks visiting friends and sightseeing. Mr. and Mrs. Bliss are traveling by auto.

Quite a number of Pleasant Valley folks attended the funeral of Mrs. Thos. E. Cain which was held at Lents last Friday. Mrs. Cain was a pioneer resident of this place. Her home at the time of her death was in Happy Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Z. Olson entertained friends from the city Sunday.

Pleasant Valley grange, Parent-Teachers circle and the Sunday school are on record as favorable to the movement for a clean fair.

Mrs. Annie Giese is having a new house built on her place.

The Pleasant Valley school gave a pantomime play at the grange hall last Friday evening. The play depicted the history of America from the landing of Columbus on down to the World War. The splendid manner in which the children rendered their respective parts was attended by the many expressions of appreciation and praise coming from the large audience. Ralph McCulloch gave a splendid rendition of Lincoln's Gettysburg speech. John Nevelin, accompanied by Mrs. Willard Bliss, rendered a number of violin selections between acts.

TELEPHONE CHANGES ARE DUE NEXT WEEK

Beginning March 15 several changes in the office force of the local telephone company will go into effect. H. J. Pulfer, who has been for several years manager and office secretary, will leave the employ of the company to take up a line of business of his own. Miss Letitia Pulfer, who has been putting in half time in the telephone office for some time will become office secretary. Miss Vida Quay, chief operator, will be her assistant in the office but will retain her position as chief operator.

Mr. Pulfer will open an office which has been fitted up in the lobby of the hotel building next door to the telephone office, where he will do auditing accounting. He will have oversight of the books of the telephone company and several Gresham mercantile houses and will be open for any work in the line of expert accounting.

BORING

Special evangelistic meetings will begin at Boring M. E. church next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. The pastor, E. G. Ranton, will be assisted in these meetings by Rev. A. S. Hisey, Gresham, and Rev. G. C. Berreman, Pleasant Home. All are invited to take a part.
