BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH ANNOUNCES SERVICES
 Next Sunday at Bethel Baptist church in Gresham Bible school will meet at 9:45. After the opening exercises the men's Bible class will retire to the parsonage for the discussion of the lesson. The Rev. D. Q. Barry, the pastor, will preach at 11 o'clock, the topic being "The Value of the Rest Cure." The chorus choir will render as a special anthem "Lamp of Our Feet" by Walter A. Shawker.
 The Junior Union will meet at the church at 3 o'clock and the B. Y. P. U. topic being "The Value of the Rest at 6:30. A team of young people from the East Side Baptist church is expected to be present with the young people in the evening and assist in the service. They will render some special music.
 Song service will begin at 7:30 and preaching at 8 o'clock, the theme of the pastor being "The Danger of Drifting."
NOTICE.
 I shall not be responsible for debts contracted by my wife, James M. Shepherd, Jr., Bend, Oregon.

GRESHAM LOCALS
 The Women's Home Missionary society will meet on Wednesday afternoon, March 14, at the home of Mrs. W. J. Ott. Mrs. James Sterling is the leader. Those who will take part in the lesson study are Mrs. K. A. Miller, Mrs. James Elkington and Mrs. Anna Hevel. Mrs. Clyde Ruegg will give a piano solo, Miss Gertrude Alexander will sing and Mrs. C. M. Zimmerman will tell a story. Mrs. Ott will be assisted by Mrs. Roy E. Cannon, Mrs. J. E. Metzger and Mrs. Arthur Dowsett. All members and friends of the society are invited.
 George Throckmorton, brother of Mrs. J. H. Wood, has returned from Reedsport where he has been for several months.
 Matt Schanno who is in the Good Samaritan hospital, suffering from what is said to be pernicious anemia is in a very serious condition. He was reported to be easier this morning. He has been sick for several weeks and was taken to the hospital ten days ago. His many friends hope for his recovery.
 The Greshamas will hike next Monday east on the Section Line road. H. L. St. Clair will be the leader. Hikers welcome.
 Members and friends of the Bethel Baptist church have received through the mails unique announcements of the coming St. Patrick's social to be given by the Ladies' Guild on Wednesday evening, March 14. A well simulated potato, drawn on brown paper, gives the announcement as to the time, place and attractions of the evening. The social will be given at the Grange hall, where cafeteria supper will be served, beginning at 5 o'clock. A good program will follow the supper.
 A district Queen Esther rally will be held in Portland Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock which will be attended by a number of girls of the Gresham circle. Those wishing to go and those who will furnish autos should notify Mrs. A. Hevel by Saturday.
 The Areme club will meet on Monday afternoon, March 12, at the home of Mrs. Roy E. Cannon. The assisting hostesses will be Mrs. L. L. Kidder, Mrs. K. A. Miller and Mrs. Cora Childers Evans. All Eastern Star ladies are invited.
 Miss Faye Lord, who has been reporter for the Outlook for more than a year, has resigned her position to take up another line of work.

Miss Cora Johnson has been employed to do the stenographic work in the office of County Agent S. B. Hall in place of Miss Letitia Pulfer, who will give her whole time to the work in the telephone office.
 Miss Laura B. Jones, staff captain of the Volunteers of America, visited Gresham business houses today soliciting aid for the Portland institutions conducted by the Volunteers. This is the twelfth year since Miss Jones commenced her visits to this place. Her work takes her all over the state.
 Mrs. J. C. Schultz was taken early this week to the Portland Sanitarium for treatment.
 A food sale will be held Saturday, March 10, at Walrad's store by the Rebekah lodge. All members are expected to donate food for the sale and a good variety will be offered.
 Burtleigh Quesinberry of Rockwood, a senior in the local high school, had a narrow escape on Tuesday evening of this week when the car which he was driving collided with a switch engine at East Eleventh street and the Southern Pacific tracks in Portland. Two girls were riding with him and the three occupants of the car were more or less bruised but no one was seriously hurt. The car was a complete wreck. Burtleigh did not see the approaching engine until he was near the track and tried to avoid the collision by turning off. Though he could not entirely clear the track, his action probably saved his life and the lives of those riding with him.
 A report was brought to the Outlook early this week that the celebrated cow of H. G. Mullenhoff had been injured by a fall and it had been necessary to kill her. Investigation entirely disproved the report. It was learned, however, that a celebrated cow in Southern Oregon had been lost because of injuries.
 S. J. Bennison left this week for Tillamook county to complete timber cruising work commenced there in the fall. He will be away for four or five months.
 Regular services will be held by the Seventh Day Adventists in Carlson's hall over the J. E. Metzger furniture store tomorrow at 11 o'clock, when Elder Scott Kilgore of Idaho will be the minister. All are welcome at this service.
 The basket ball game at the high school this evening will be the last game by the high school team on the local floor. It will be a double header. Gresham will play St. Helens next week.
 The estate of Samuel H. Sheller, which will come up in probate court for final settlement on May 10, is being administered by Lee R. Sheller, his son, address R. 1, Portland. John Ide, son-in-law of Mr. Sheller, who handled his business affairs in 1922, is not the administrator, as some suppose.
 Mrs. Chas. Rosploch and two children of Tuslatin were guests early this week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Bennison.

Needlework Exhibit at the Library.
 A display of artistic needlework from the Arts and Crafts Society of Portland is now on exhibition at the library.
 Original designs, made by combining various simple stitches in cotton threads, have been used on inexpensive materials such as linen and crash, to make scarfs, table runners, bags, etc., with very pleasing results. All interested in art needlework are invited to examine these designs.
