GRESHAM LOCALS

The Queen Esther Circle will hold its regular meeting Monday evening, April 2, at the home of Anna Hamerton. All members and friends are cordially invited.

Miss George Stapleton, Carl Arvidson and Adolph Zenger, first year typist students at Union High, left for Corvallis this morning accompanied by their teacher, Miss Esther Gardner, and Judge Geo. W. Stapleton. The students are to take part in a typing contest held in connection with Business Week at O. A. C.

Miss Lillian Jaeger of Portland, is a guest at the home of R. D. Bailey.

A meeting of the Ladies Baptist Guild has been called for Tuesday afternoon, April 10, the place to be announced later. This is a meeting of utmost importance to all members and friends of the Guild as plans will be discussed in which all are interested.

Mrs. Gertrude Schanno has returned from Centralia, Washington, where she has been with her mother for the past ten days.

The attractive residence of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Buzick and about half the lot owned by them on Powell street have been sold to the Misses Sara and Elta Wrenn of Portland, who have taken possession and have undertaken plans for the further beautification of the house and grounds.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Buzick have gone to Watertown, South Dakota, to look after business interests at that place. They hope to dispose of their property there and return to Gresham to make their home.

Mrs. Ava Edwards and daughter Pauline of Pendleton are visiting with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Thompson.

At the business and social meeting of the Methodist Ladies Aid society last Wednesday important working plans were made for the future activity of the society. Four circles were formed on geographical lines and a temporary chairman was chosen for each circle. The third Wednesday of each month was named for the regular meetings of the circles, while the general meeting of the society will be held as usual on the fourth Wednesday. Territory south of Powell street will be known as the south circle. Main street divides the remainder of the city into northwest and northeast circles. Besides these there will be also a Linnemann circle. The temporary chairmen for these circles are, respectively, Mrs. Walter Winters, Mrs. Frank Peak, Mrs. A. W. Shipley and Mrs. B. F. Cogswell.

AMERICAN LEGION

April 8 will be American Legion Sunday, and will be observed by fitting services in the Gresham M. E. church, in the evening. The services will be participated in by all of the local churches. The Rev. H. R. Gebhardt, of Zion Evangelical church, will preach the sermon. There will be special music. Legion members and the Ladies' Auxiliary will be seated in a body.

The executive committee of Gresham Post of the American Legion has been divided into three teams and a membership drive is under way in which the team losing has to put up a dinner with the second team furnishing the entertainment. An effort is to be made to secure as many new members as possible, also to collect dues for this year.

On Tuesday night, April 3, the committee will meet and the count be made. All paid up members of the Post are eligible to the dinner, which will be served at some date in the near future.

The committees are, Roy H. Gibbs, Chase E. St. Clair and Will Teevin, Ernest Brugger, Dr. H. H. Hughes and Cleveland Bliss, C. G. Schneider, K. C. Roberts and A. W. Metzger.

Mrs. E. H. Kelly left Thursday for Castle Rock, Washington, to attend the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Laura E. Merrill, the last member of a pioneer family who crossed the plains and settled in that vicinity in 1869.

The family of H. J. Fleischer has arrived from Boise, Idaho, and have taken up their residence in the Fred Shelley house on South Roberts avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Fleischer have three children, one of whom will attend the grade school. Mr. Fleischer is general manager of the Pack Products company.

Mrs. E. C. Rossman and daughter Dorothy of Portland were dinner guests on Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. St. Clair.

G. G. Mayenschein has returned from Grandview, Washington, in the Yakima valley, where he has been for the past month looking after his 20-acre fruit ranch. He is making plans to rent his 12-acre berry farm here and go back to Grandview for the summer.

Miss Floella Jacobs was very pleasantly surprised last Tuesday evening when about 40 friends arrived at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Millikin, to help her celebrate her birthday. The evening was spent playing games and enjoying music. Light refreshments were served. Departing at a late hour, the guests all declared that they had spent an enjoyable evening and hoped that they could repeat the occasion next year.

Zion Evangelical Church Program.

At Zion Evangelical church in Gresham special plans are being made for the Easter day services. The Sunday school will meet at 10 o'clock. At 11 Easter services will be held in both the English and German languages, followed by holy communion in the German language. At these services a special offering will be received for the needy in Germany. Easter music by the choir will be given.

The young people will meet at 7:30 in the evening under the leadership of Walter Ramsar. The Easter Psalm will be the topic.

First State Bank Essay Contest.
