NATIONAL HUMANE WEEK.

This is national humane week and everyone who loves animals and mankind should be glad to think of its meaning and gather from it some lasting lessons of kindness toward and care of all God's creatures which are committed more or less to the care of man, the king of creation.

"Be kind to animals, you are one yourself," is the motto of the Oregon Humane society. It is well for everyone to remember that a "merciful man is merciful to his beasts" and that no one who is unkind to the least of the animals that serve man has a right to expect kindness himself from either man or beast.

Generally the subject of kindness to animals will be presented in schools and ministers are urged to present the subject from the pulpit next Sunday. Every citizen is urged to use his influence to see that animals are properly protected and cruelty and neglect avoided. Instances of cruelty should be reported to the authorities.

PLEASANT THINGS.

This is undoubtedly the pleasantest time of the year and that fact suggests some thoughts on pleasant things.

It is natural to think and many thoughts crowd into the mind involuntarily, but it is possible to direct the thoughts along consciously selected lines. If one begins the day with a firm resolution to think pleasant thoughts, and watches to stifle any and all unpleasant thoughts that may suggest themselves, one can fill up the whole day with thoughts of things that will enhance one's own and others' pleasure. And to do so is to fulfill one of the secrets of successful living.

We can cultivate the habit of looking for the pleasant things in life. The world about us, especially this portion of it, is crowded full of beautiful things. There are so many beautiful things in the characters and lives of people we know that we do not need to let the unlovely things in some worry us one bit.

Of course, there are persons who just naturally haven't a habit of being pleasant or seeing pleasant things. They are grouchy in the morning, they expect everything to go wrong and naturally their expectations are met. It is surprising how many pleasant things will be found in the day's life if one has a mind to recognize and enjoy them.

The writer was recently asked what he thought of when he heard a bird sing. He replied he thought of heaven. The other morning a bird was heard vociferously and joyously voicing its morning matins beside the bedroom window as the sun was flooding the eastern horizon with the glorious beams of day. Said one, "I wish that bird would hush up so I can go to sleep."

Who has not heard this: "Good morning; pleasant day." "Yes, but it will be raining before night." We haven't space to begin to enumerate the pleasant things all should recognize every day of life. They are on every hand and meet you at every turn of the road.

We treasure pleasant memory Of hours spent and gone. Days spent in Pleasant Valley When summertime is on.

It's nothin' short o' pleasant To hike to Pleasant Home, And Pleasant Views an Eden. When springtime flowers come.

We live in Happy Valley With Fairview on the right It's mighty pleasant living With all things grand in sight.

ON WITH THE MOTOR POWER. Every mile of good roads laid by states, counties, towns and villages has a bearing on the nation's business so far reaching that it would puzzle the mind to follow it to its logical conclusion. Of course, the natural tendency is to look at the benefits that come nearest and soonest to hand, benefits which are indisputable, providing unwise financing of such improvements does not more than offset the good that is bound to be gained.

Reports from all over the country show that interurban freighting is on the increase due to good road building, particularly where the terminal facilities of railroads are congested. This means more motor trucks, more men at work, more money earned, and a consequent greater spending power. Haulage of farm products to shipping stations spells more business for the farmer, and better still makes his marketing more elastic.

The effect is also seen in the great increase of bus transportation in districts where the street car has not shown its nose as yet, bringing business into the small towns. Trade is rapidly increasing, particularly where the merchant has vision to send his message to the outlying districts through the local press.

America today is on the eve of a development in motor trucks, omnibuses, and large and small farm tractors that

REPORT OF THE CONDITION FIRST STATE BANK

At Gresham in the State of Oregon, at the close of business April 30, 1923.

RESOURCES Table with 3 columns: Description, Amount, Total. Includes Loans and discounts, Overdrafts, U. S. government securities, Other bonds, Stocks, Bank deposits, Real estate, etc.

LIABILITIES Table with 3 columns: Description, Amount, Total. Includes Capital stock, Surplus fund, Undivided profits, U. S. deposits, Demand deposits, Cashier's checks, etc.

I, C. J. LUNDQUIST, cashier of the above named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief. CORRECT—Attest: A. Meyers, Theod. Brugger, C. J. Lundquist, Directors. R. W. NYSTROM, Notary Public.

In point of volume will surpass the development of the railroads. Some of the railroad men view the situation with a certain feeling of alarm, but there is nothing to fear. It is the same fanciful spectre that haunted the mind of the printer when the typesetting machine came into being. Where one man was at work under the old system there are fifty at work today.

PERSEVERANCE COUNTS MOST.

By Richard Lloyd Jones. Wealth inherited is never valued like wealth earned. Victory is great as the battle is hard. There is no short road to real triumph. That which is gained easily is lost easily. "Easy comes, easy goes." The plant that grows fast withers rapidly. The tree that grows slowly endures. Steadfast application will do more than the quick, hard blow of impatience. Dropping water will cut its way through granite.

Mountains were not made in moments; they are the work of ages. Great deeds are done not by strength but by persistence. Want a thing hard enough, work for it long enough and you are pretty sure to get it.

A single purpose is the first essential to success. Stick to it. Tenacity is the primary element of greatness. It is wisdom to build castles in the air; but it is folly to stop there. Go to your foundation; pile stone upon stone until you reach your castle. Then it is yours.

"Stay with it" is the slogan that makes the cowboy master of the bucking broncho. "Don't give up the ship," was the command to his men that brought Perry victory.

Perpetual pushing puts difficulties out of countenance and makes seeming impossibilities give way. The weak wait for the opportunity to strike while the iron is hot. The strong make opportunity by striking the iron until it is hot.

Perseverance rather than brilliancy is the best in a long race. The tortoise knows he has to do his utmost all the time to even hope to cope with the hare. The hare, knowing his better speed, often relies upon sprints and delays too long.

Over-confidence foreshadows neglect. Don't go to sleep at the switch. It isn't worth the risk. The pick and spade persistently applied at a fixed place may penetrate a mountain.

The oceans have been wedded through the Suez and Panama canals by just digging. He who attains eminence spends his energies in one pursuit. There is no creature so humble but who, armed with determination, may not gain his point.

By gnawing through a dyke even a rat may drown a nation. No soldier was ever decorated with shoulder straps for marking time. Brand the word "forward" on your brain. Always obey it. Go ahead and keep going.

Don't worry about what the other fellow can do. He may be better than you, but you stick to your job. You may be the tortoise that wins the race. For—"He that shall endure unto the end the same shall be saved."

Love One Another. Once we knew a man in far away India who for more than 30 years had not spoken to a human soul. His last words were that it was better to think and do things than to waste time talking; moreover he believed nobody ever had said anything of lasting value. It would be a strange world if all of us just shut up and talked through our actions. Gee, how lonely it would be. Lots of things might be accomplished that are now left undone, but we'd miss that human contact that seems to make the whole world kin. And it isn't true that nothing has been said of lasting value. There are three everlasting words that stand as the foundation of human happiness and development: LOVE ONE ANOTHER. We don't need to talk a great deal if we say something.

Advertisement for Red Crown Gasoline. Features the Red Crown logo and text: "In San Francisco it's Red Crown Gasoline by 160%".

78 of the first 161 motorists who passed the corner of Market and Kearny Streets, San Francisco, answered "Red Crown" to the question "What kind of gasoline do you prefer?"

The result of this check, in which "Red Crown" led its nearest competitor by 160%, is typical of the entire Pacific Coast field, where the majority of motorists get best results by using Red Crown, the gasoline of quality, and nothing else.

Farmers Mutual Fire Relief Ass. Does Flourishing Business.

The Farmers Mutual has grown to be the largest farmers' company in the Northwest. Farmers who consider their own welfare prefer it. President Snashall reports the Association has over $16,000,000 in force and over 10,000 members. In the past year it has paid over $33,000 in losses with one assessment only at 30c per hundred dollars. There is no reason why farmers should pay high rates when they can insure in a Farmers' Association. Anyone wishing to insure will call on H. W. Snashall at the Fair Grounds, Gresham.
