BORING

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis and family of Salem are moving into Mrs. J. W. Roots' house this week. Mr. Curtis is working the third eight-hour shift now at the P. R. L. & P. substation here.

The Boring Rebekahs held a special meeting Wednesday evening to elect delegates to attend grand lodge at Myrtle Point in May, as the delegates elected at the last meeting were unable to go. The new delegates elected were Mrs. Wm. Morand and Miss Edith Anderson.

Mrs. E. M. Amesberry and little daughter Lois are visiting for a few days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Beck.

Otis Rich, secretary of the Boring baseball team and S. E. Waller attended the meeting held at the chamber of commerce in Oregon City Monday evening. The object of the meeting was to organize the Clackamas county baseball league, of which the Boring ball team is a unit. Another meeting has been called for Monday evening of next week to arrange the schedule of the games. The opening game of the season has been set for April 29.

Wm. Morand and E. V. Maulding left Thursday evening to attend the Muscovites ceremonials to be held in Roseburg Friday night and Grants Pass Saturday night. They expect to return home Sunday evening.

The junior Boring baseball team will play the Gresham team here at Boring Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Walter Roots and little son Jimmie of Portland are spending the week visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Telford and family.

Edward Armstrong, whose parents moved to Portland the latter part of last week, is staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Stager in order to complete the school term here.

FAIRVIEW

The April business meeting of the Women's society of the Smith Memorial church was held at the home of Mrs. Julia Snover. All the new officers were present, Mrs. D. M. Donagh presiding. Standing committees for the year were appointed.

Mrs. Earl Tegart will entertain the Women's club with a silver tea next Thursday afternoon, April 19. She will be assisted in serving by Mesdames Osburn, Lockwood, Lewis and Jonas. The program is in charge of Mrs. J. W. Townsend and Mrs. Osburn.

It was decided at the meeting of the Women's club that a May festival would be held in the grange hall Friday evening, May 4. The committee in charge of the affair is Mrs. Janet Grant, Mrs. Annie Tegart, Mrs. Buena Stone, and Miss Clara Sales.

Chinooks are in the Willamette.

Trout season opens April 15.

Just received $400.00 shipment of tackle. Come in and look it over.

PLEASANT VALLEY

John Barnard made a trip to Milwaukie on business last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Roberts of Portland were valley visitors last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Richey were guests at the home of Mrs. Richey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Robinson of Portland, Sunday.

Chas. Lowblad was in the city on business matters one day recently.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Kesterson and Mrs. F. A. Richey visited with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Knight of Sherwood, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Lehman, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Richey and Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Sager were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Anderson of Bellrose Sunday afternoon.

Ralph and Verne Richey loaded a car with potatoes at Sycamore station Thursday and expect to load another car Saturday.

R. E. Close, assistant superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of Oregon, will deliver an address at the Pleasant Valley church Sunday, April 15 at 11 a. m. Subject "The Supreme Call of the Hour." Everybody is invited and everybody should come.

AIMES

At a recent meeting of the school board it was decided to hold school another month, giving a full 9-months term. School has been held eight months in the year heretofore and the change is welcomed by the patrons of the district. School will be out on May 18.

Mr. Baker had his foot broken when he dropped a cant on it while working at the Cameron & Hogg mill. He was taken to a Portland hospital for treatment and will probably be laid up for several weeks.

Mrs. Dan Woods and children visited her mother in Lents for a week, returning on last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Hamilton and daughter Mildred visited Mrs. Hamilton's sister, Mrs. Mattie Hamilton in Vancouver recently.

KELSO

The Women's club will meet at the home of Mrs. M. C. Peterson the fourth Thursday in April, instead of at W. C. Patterson's as was stated in the last Outlook.

GILLIS

Services will be held at the community church next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, when singers and speakers from the Nazarene church of Portland will be present and take part. An invitation is extended to all.

Pleasant Home Methodist Church.
At the Methodist church next Sunday the pastor, the Rev. Geo. C. Berreman, will take for his subject at the 11 o'clock service "What time have you and what difference does it make?" The score for the first week of the race between the men and the women in the reading contest will be posted. Enrollment for the contest will close on next Sunday.

Sunday school will meet at 10 o'clock and Epworth League at 7:30. Mrs. Berreman will lead the meeting, the subject being amusements. A prayer meeting for older folk will be held during the League hour.

A social is being planned for Friday, April 27, with games and a program.

Pleasant Home Baptist Church.
Services next Sunday will be Sunday school at 10 o'clock, B. Y. P. U. in the evening at 7:30, followed by preaching at 8 o'clock by the Rev. A. J. Ware.

The program given by the W. W. G. girls last Friday night at the church was enjoyed very much by all those present. The young ladies from Portland were very fine indeed and all enjoyed the musical numbers by Miss Myrtle Rusher and Miss Doris Zimmerman of Gresham. These young ladies kindly substituted for Miss Peck, who was unable to be there.

District S. S. Association Will Meet.
The Pleasant Home District Sunday School association will meet at the Cottrell community church on Sunday, April 22. Mr. Sissons, president of the state association and another state worker are expected to be present. A feature of the meeting will be a round table discussion on the responsibility of the men to the boys of the community.

The committee arranging the program consists of Dawson Smith, Mrs. E. E. Van Fleet and Mrs. Sadie Chase. Mrs. Alta Gentry is president and H. H. Watkins secretary of the association.
